A Surprise Wedding.

Thorn H. Jackson of Henderson county and Miss Ethel McQuery, also of Henderson, were married Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church by Rev. Amos Justice in the presence of a few friends. The marriage was something of surprise. Mr. Jackson has just been mustered out of the regular army after 8 years' service in Cuba and Philippines, and arrived in Tryon a few days past to claim the sweetheart whom he had told good-bye so long ago, and kept the promise then made "In my Uniform of Blue I'll Come Marching Back to you." He will re-enlist in the coast artillery at Fortress Monroe, Va. about the first of July. Miss McQuery has been connected with the Mimosa Hotel at Lynn. After the ceremony the wedding party was the guest of T. H. Justice, who entertained in honor of the bridal couple. Mr. Mrs. Jackson left on the evening train for Henderson county to visit relatives before going to Virginia. The groom is a relative of Jas. Jackson.—Thermal Belt.
