Baptizing at Mill Spring

A baptizing was held at the Baptist church of Mill Spring last Sunday when the following candidates were received into the church by baptism Messrs. Loas Walker, Jesse Lewis, Jno. Walker Misses Splawn, Gladys Gibbs.

After the baptizing the Rev. Moss, pastor of the church and who also conducted the baptizing, preached an excellent sermon to one of the largest congregations ever assembled in the church, the house was filled to its utmost capacity standing room being hardly procurable.

Base Ball Game at Lynn.

Last Saturday afternoon the Lynn base ball team defeated the aggregation from Pleasant Hill by a score of 7 to 1.

The game throughout was greatly interesting, though the Lynn boys had the visitors at their mercy from the jump. Early's curves were so puzzling that the opponents failed to make the proper connections, and when they would be so fortunate the seven men in the field handled the ball like leaguers.

Mrs. John Hutcherson Improving.

The many friends of Mrs. Jno. Hutcherson, will be glad to learn of her rapid improvement since a recent illness.

Mrs. Hutcherson will be removed from the hospital at Rutherfordton to her home this week.

At Three Points in This State.

Mr John W. Kern, Democratic nominee for Vice President, will make three speeches in N. C. next month. He will speak at Asheville Oct. 6th, at Greensboro on the 6th and at Winston on the 7th.

Base Ball Game at Lynn.
