For Charge Customers. When the trade of a department store is so large that the floorman and sales people cannot recognize credit customers readily various expedients have been adopted for establishing their identity.

The usual system provides for long waits while the customer's name is looked up, but a quicker method is based on an identification coin bearing the registered number, which is sent to the cashier with the credit payment if the customer takes the purchase with him.

When making purchases, says System, the customer merely tears off two of the address slips and hands them to the salesgirl. One slip is stuck into the package as an address label if the goods are to be delivered and the other is attached to the cashier's account.

The scheme saves time and trouble and eliminates the chances of error in transcribing the name and address. It is said to avoid more errors than any other plan in use.

BLACK HAND BAND A NATIONAL ORDER

Seized Letters Show Members All Over the United States.

HEADQUARTERS AT MARION, OHIO

Vicario, One of the Prisoners, Believed to Have Been Connected With Petrosino's Death - Evidence of Money Sent to Italy.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—Detectives are gathering evidence against the Black Hand band which was rounded up in Columbus and Marion, Ohio, and it is expected that operations in nearly every large city in the United States and ramifications of the Secret Service in Italy will be laid bare.

In addition to the arrest of four Sicilians in Marion, Columbus and Dennison, Joe Botella and Sam Rizzo were taken into custody in Marion. Those arrested were Sam Lima, said to be the ringleader of the gang in the United States, and Joe Rizzo in Marion; Antonio Marsini in Dennison and Tony Bichiero in Columbus. These arrests were made on letters sent to John Amicon, a wealthy fruit dealer of Columbus, Ohio.

The inspectors state they have evidence showing that a room in the rear of a little fruit store in Marion, conducted by the Rizzos, was the headquarters of the gang who had voted on the division of the spoils sent $20,000 in postal money orders to Italy from the postoffice at Marion, Ohio. It is plain that these men are so well organized that they meet and vote on the division of their proceeds of extortion on somewhat of a business basis.

Columbus, Ohio.—Postal Inspector Oldfield is positive the Black Hand suspect, Collogero Vicario, arrested at Bellefontaine, was connected with the murder of the New York detective Petrosino in Italy some months ago. "I base my belief," he said, "on the fact that this man Vicario is known to have left for Italy about the time Petrosino was assassinated."

Vicario is a brother of Antonio Vicario, arrested at Marion. He was found at the home of Mrs. Salvatore Cirra which was surrounded by the officers. Vicario was heavily armed and had $1,000 on his person. Women and children in the house are said to have been armed also.

Vicario is a member of the fruit firm of Demar & Co. Salvatore Cirra was shot and killed a year ago by Charles Demar, a nephew, who was acquitted on the plea of self-defense. A year prior, Joseph Demar, a brother of Charles Demar, was assassinated, and his slayer was never captured.

RIFLES FOIL JAIL DELIVERY. Lives of Trolley Passengers Put in Great Peril by 150 Convicts.

Joliet, Ill.—A jail delivery plot, by which more than 100 men were to have escaped from the State Penitentiary, was thwarted by the coolness of a handful of guards when 150 convicts were held under threatening rifles after one of their number had broken from the stone quarry line and made his escape.

For a time, while August Vatter, the running convict, was making his wild dash from the line, lives of passengers in two electric cars were menaced by the rifles of the guards, as they were aimed in a vain attempt to catch a glimpse of the fleeing prisoner as he raced side by side with the speeding trolley.

Vatter, who was picked by the leaders of the plot to make the first break for liberty, was captured after a chase of two hours through the countryside. He was trapped in a shed by the daughter of a farmer, who had been notified of his escape over the telephone.

SOO CANAL LOCK WRECKED. Steamer Perry G. Walker Crashes Through Gates.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—The Canadian locks were wrecked when the lower gates were rammed while the steamers Assinabola and Crescent City were passing down through the ship canal by the Perry G. Walker, of the Gilchrist fleet, which was passing up. As a result, the Walker, which rammed the gates, has a hole in her hull, the Crescent City has foundered, and the Assinabola is damaged, and the $4,000,000 Canadian canal is out of commission for the rest of the season, the damage being estimated at $250,000.

No Fun For the Calf. Philadelphia Inquirer. "But in all his rejoicing," concluded a teacher who had been discoursing upon the parable of the Prodigal Son and wished to emphasize the character of the elder brother, "there was one to whom the preparation of the feast brought no joy—one who did not approve of the feast being held and who had no wish to attend it. Now, can any of you tell me who this was?" A pause, and then from a dozen sympathetic little lads came this chorus—"The Calf—it was the fatted calf, sir!"

Plank Blown Through Tree. Each day brings to light some new freak of the recent tornado which caused death and destruction in Georgia. As an evidence of the freakish force of the wind a big pine tree and a large plank on the property of the Hon. S. M. Roberts, about twelve miles from Atlanta, are now joined as if done by an expert carpenter.

Although the tree was a large one the plank was picked up and driven through the centre as neatly as if shot from a gun. Not only was the plank shot through the tree, but went through without tearing the tree. The plank was picked up in the yard of Mr. Roberts' sawmill and other planks in the pile were not molested by the wind.

So singular does Mr. Roberts consider this action of the tornado that he has posted a notice telling how the plank was driven through the big pine and ordering that it shall not be cut down.

PRESSED HARD. Coffee's Weight on Old Age.

When prominent men realize the injurious effects of coffee and the change in health that Postum can bring, they are glad to lend their testimony for the benefit of others.

A superintendent of public schools in one of the southern states says: "My mother, since her early childhood, was an inveterate coffee drinker, had been troubled with her heart for a number of years and complained of that 'weak all over' feeling and sick stomach."

"Some time ago I was making an official visit to a distant part of the country and took dinner with one of the merchants of the place. I noticed a somewhat peculiar flavour of the coffee, and asked him concerning it. He replied that it was Postum.

"I was so pleased with it, that after the meal was over, I bought a package to carry home with me, and had wife prepare some for the next meal. The whole family were so well pleased with it, that we discontinued coffee and used Postum entirely.

"I had really been at times very anxious concerning my mother's condition, but we noticed that after using Postum for a short time, she felt so much better than she did prior to its use, and had little trouble with her heart and no sick stomach; that the headaches were not so frequent, and her general condition much improved. This continued until she was as well and hearty as the rest of us.

"I know Postum has benefited myself and the other members of the family, but not in so marked a degree as in the case of my mother, as she was a victim of long standing." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

I neglected it, and finally got so bad I had to stop working. My back ached terribly. I could not rest well at night. I had rheumatic pain and lost all energy.

The urine was in an awful condition. I ran down and down until I was an emaciated wreck and an invalid, in bed and out of bed, but in it most of the time. AGONIZING ITCHING.

Eczema For a Year—Got No Relief Until Cuticura Cared Him.

"I was troubled by a severe itching and dry, scurfy skin on my ankles, feet, arms and scalp. Scratching made it worse. Thousands of small red pimples formed and these caused intense itching. I was advised to go to the hospital for diseases of the skin. I did so, the chief surgeon saying: 'I never saw such a bad case of eczema.' But I got little or no relief. Then I tried many so-called remedies, but I became so bad that I almost gave up in despair. After suffering agonies for twelve months, I was relieved of the almost unbearable itching after two or three applications of Cuticura Ointment. I continued its use, combined with Cuticura Soap and Pills, and I was completely cured. Harry Seaside, Cross St., Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8 and 19, 1907."
