ANSON MAN KILLED BY TRAIN.

J. A. Dunlap, Prominent Citizen of Cedar Hill, Run Down.

Charlotte Observer.

Wadesboro, Dec. 1.—J. A. Dunlap of Cedar Hill, a prominent citizen of this county, was instantly killed at 5 o'clock this afternoon by a through freight on the Seaboard Air Line. The accident occurred at the crossing on the Ansonville road immediately in front of the furniture factory.

The buggy in which Mr. Dunlap was riding was demolished but horse he was driving was uninjured. The train was a fast freight southbound and the cure at the crossing makes it extra dangerous for these driving on the road. Mr. Dunlap drove on the track immediately in front of the train and the engine stuck the buggy. Death was instantaneous, caused by a blow on the skull.

Mr. Dunlap leaves large family connection. A son, Dr. L. V. Dunlap, lives at Albemarle.

[Mr. Dunlap, whose tragic death told in the above, was the father of Mrs. John Hampton, of this county. Mrs. Hampton left last Thursday evening for Wadesboro to attend the funeral.—The News.]
