Ninety-nine years' imprisonment was the sentence pronounced upon Sergeant J. D. Manley, the national grardsman who killed Louis Richenstein during President Taft's visit to Dallas, Texas, on October 23, 1909. Manley was attempting to hold back the crowd when Richenstein broke through the lines. Manley plunged his bayonet through the man and killed him.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed Pineywoods Inn, the famous hostelry at Southern Pines, N. C. There were no guests in the hotel. The loss was complete, reaching $30,000, and the insurance only partially covers it.

The plant of the Macon (Ga.) Daily Telegraph was completely destroyed by fire. The equipment in every department was totally destroyed, and literally nothing was saved from the flames. C. Raymond Clay, a linotype operator, was burned to death. The loss will reach $100,000. New equipment has been wired for and until it arrives The Telegraph will continue to be issued from the plant of the Macon News.

The Huntsville (Ala.) hotel was almost entirely destroyed by fire. The total loss was about $120,000, with insurance of $82,000. Several leading business concerned were burned out also. Guests of the hotel lost personal belongings aggregating $10,000.

A fire early endangered an entire setail business block of Montgomery, Ala, before it was gotten under control. The fine $10,000 stock of John L Cobbs & Co. was damaged about $50,000, the loss covered by insurance. The Alabama Bible society sustained a loss of about $8,000.

Five men were killed outright in an explosion in the Volande mines The explosion was of a local nature in a pecket. Only the men in the pocket where the explosion occurred were killed. It is not known whether they were killed by the explosion or by falling slate| The Volande mines are in Tuscaloosa county, 27 miles from Birmingham, and J. B. McClarin is the president of the company.

H. C. Frick, multi-millionaire of Pittsburg, Pa., with a party of capitalists, arrived at the Caddo oil and sas field near Caddo, La., to make inwestigations relative to organizing a corporation to pipe natural gas to St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans.

The eastward march of the boll weevil has carried the dreaded cotton pest to within less than 30 miles of the Alabama state line. Specimens of the weevil were brought to Louisville, Miss., from Winston county.

Demon speed claimed toll at the Atlanta Speedway when Al Livingston, "the dirt track king," member of the National team, was thrown high in the air and then dashed to the ground, with fatal force, as he rounded the south curve of the track going at an 84 miles an hour speed. A tire burst, the car swerved, switched suddenly and then jerked its rider into etermity.

While suffering from temporary insanity, Joel D. Wallace, a prominent merchant and groceryman of Lawrenceville, Ga., shot and killed his wife, turned his revolver upon Cline, his 7-year-old boy, whom he killed instantly, shot his son, Felton, 9 years old, and then fired three bullets into his own body, killing himself instantly. The exact cause of the deed will

A storm of midwinter intensity swept the north Atlantic coast and left a broad trail of broken wire communication along the seaboard. Telegraph companies were beset with difficulty in all directions. The storm was apparently severest between Baltimore and Washington, all wires being down between those cities. In the mountain districts of Pennsylvania snow fell to the depth of 12 inches. Eighteen inches of snow covered the ground at Binghampton. N. Y.

J. W. Church, the Notary Public, of Summit, N. C., Tells How Cardui, The Woman's Tonic, Helped His Wife.

Summit, N. C .- "My wife had been ailing for nearly 12 years," writes Mr. Church, "and at times was unable to leave the house. She suffered agony with her side and back. We tried our family physician for many years, without relief. After his treatments all failed, she began to take Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now she is red and rosy as a school girl.

"Mrs. Church recommends Cardui to all suffering women."

Cardui is more successful than other remedies, because it is "different." It is in a class by itself.

In over half a century, more than a million women have been helped to rosy health and happiness, by using this well-known and scientific woman's remedy.

Cardui acts specifically, on the weakened womanly organs. It helps to refresh the worn-out nerves and is the ideal remedy for young and old.

As a tonic for women, it has brought remarkable results.

As a remedy for women's ills, its friends say it has no equal. Try Cardui.

SICK, SOUR, UPSET STOMACH

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Relieved Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapepsin.

Here is a harmless preparation which surely will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or outof-order stomach within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store here in town.

These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Gastritis or any other stomach disorder.

The Test of Time.

Benjamin Hapgood Burt and U. S. Epperson of Kansas City were motoring in Long Island the other day and stopped at Evan's hotel in Douglaston. They ordered large quantities of raw oysters, some of which were thrown side by the oyster opener.

"How do you determine when an oyster is bad?" asked Mr. Epperson. "You wait a short time and if you have ptomaine poisoning the oysters were bad," said Mr. Burt. "If you are not ill they were good. That's the only safe way to tell good oysters from bad ones." Reporter in Luck.

City Editor (hurriedly)-Anything new about that suicide in the St. Fashion hotel?

Reporter-Not much. The man was a stranger, about my size. Shot himself with a .32 caliber revolver. Had on a dress suit at the time. The body had been taken to the morgue.

City Editor-Bout your size. That's lucky. I want you to report a big soclety wedding in an hour. Rush around to the morgue and ask the keeper to lend you that dress suit.

THOUGHT SHE HAD PRACTISED Frenchman's Suspicions Really Something of a Compliment to the Men of America.

Claude Grahame White, the English aviator, praised, at a dinner in New York, the good fellowship of Americans. "The American woman is regarded abroad as an angel," he said. "The man is admittedly a good fellow, but an angel he is far from being. "You've heard of the Frenchman, perhaps, whose sweetheart spent the summer in America? After her return the poor Frenchman seemed quite "'What's the matter with you?' a friend asked.

about my flancee. You see, since her return from America she kisses so much better than she used to."

"'I am worried,' the other muttered,

He Was a Boston Boy. "Your little boy must be very intelligent," said a visitor to a Boston school teacher whose five-year-old son was forming Greek words with building blocks.

"Intelligent!" exclaimed the proud parent. "He is phenomenally gifted. As an example of his early erudition, what do you suppose was the first words he ever spoke?" "'Papa' and 'mamma'?"

"Stuff and nonsense!" ejaculated the father in a tone of disgust. "Why, the day he was 12 months old he suddenly laid down his algebra and said to me: 'Father, the longer I live the more indubitable proofs I perceive that there is in Boston as much culture to the square inch as there ever was in the ambient area of ancient Athens!""

STOPPED SHORT Taking Tonics, and Built Up on Right Food.

The mistake is frequently made of trying to build up a worn-out nervous system on so-called tonics-drugs. New material from which to rebuild wasted nerve cells is what should be supplied, and this can be obtained only from proper food. "Two years ago I found myself on the verge of a complete nervous collapse, due to overwork and study, and to illness in the family," writes a Wisconsin young mother. "My friends became alarmed because I grew pale and thin and could not sleep nights. I took various tonics prescribed by physicians, but their effects wore off shortly after I stopped taking them. My food did not seem to nourish me and I gained no flesh nor blood. "Reading of Grape-Nuts, I determined to stop the tonics and see what a change of diet would do. I ate Grape-Nuts four times a day, with cream and drank milk also, went to bed early after eating a dish of Grape-Nuts.

"In about two weeks I was sleeping soundly. In a short time gained 20 pounds in weight and felt like a different woman. My IIttle daughter whom I was obliged to keep out of school last spring on account of chronic catarrh has changed from a thin, pale, nervous child to a rosy, healthy girl and has gone back to school this fall.

"Grape-Nuts and fresh air were the only agents used to accomplish the happy results."

LIGHT FOR LAW MAKERS.

Changes and Improvements Made in Capitol Building.

The work of installing the ventiating system in the State House. renewing and remodeling the heating equipment, and wiring the building for electricity in progress the past several months has been completed with the exception of putting up the new electric fixtures. The ventilating equipment includes a huge electric fan in the roof of the Capitol that is connected with huge air ducts that are thoroughly controlled so that the ventilation all over the building and especially in the Representatives' hall and Senate chamber can be thoroughly controlled. The electric lighting is complete and includes circles of lights up in the dome and ample lights all through the rotunda that has heretofore been so deficient in lighting equipment. The big stone structure was erected before the day of electricity (in 1831) and has all these years had only gas equipment except for electric wires that have been installed in some of the offices, the wiring being exposed. The new wiring throughout the building is concealed in the walls, this having taken much of the long time and considerable cost of the work, which is being done in compliance with an act of Clayton Davis, a forest ranger in the employ of the Biltmore estate, who was shot by a person or persons unknown November 2d, while searching for poachers died and T. C. Kearns, a mountaineer of Mill River, Henderson county, is in custody charged with the shooting.

The deceased was walking near the boundary line of the estate near State Rock creek when a shot from ambush struck him in the abdomen. The wounded man was found by forestry hands some hours later, after he had crawled and walked a distance of nearly three miles in the direction of his home, to which he was carried.

Cotton Picking Record.

Mr. J. C. Aycock, of the Bethlehem church community of Union county picked 502 pounds of cotton in a day recently. Wade Cloaninger, the 15-year-old son of Mr. J. L. Cloaninger, of Barringer township, Iredell county, picked 406 pounds of cotton in a day also. With such pickers a cotton picking machine is not needed.

Summary.

Dr. D. E. Everett of Raliegh has advised Governor Kitchin that it is impossible for him to serve as a director of the North Carolina soldiers' home, to which he was appointed a few weeks ago to succeed the late A. B. Stronach and the Governor has commissioned A. H. Boyden of Salisbury in his stead.

On the recommendation of National Committeeman Morehead, Dr. H. D. Walker has been appointed a pension examining surgeon at Elizabeth City, vice Dr. J. B. Gragg, resigned.

At Wadesboro during October there were 399 liquor prescriptions filled at the depository, against 313 for September.

Protest Against Screening Food. Several weeks ago the Wilmington board of aldermen, after considerable discussion, passed an ordiance providing that all food products placed on display on the sidewalks should be screened. The retail grocers and market men protested at the time and at the next meeting of the city fathers will enter a strenuous protest to have the ordinance repealing or greatly modified. It is contended that by screening the products they are hid from view and it is also rather inconvenient.

Mill Charges Discriminating Rates. The Cannon Manufacturing Company of Concord has filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission against the Southern and other railroads alleging that by reason of discriminatory rates allowed others it was seriously injured in shipments of sheeting, gingham and towels to the Pacific coast.

. By reason of excessive rates, it is also alleged, concerns elsewhere are given advantages over complainant.

Will Build Depot.

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad company has filed two plans for a $30,000 passenger station at Fayetteville, which will also be used by the Raleigh and Southport railroad on a rental basis, thus affording a union station for Fayette-

The Atlantic Coast Line has been making a fight to be allowed to remodel the old station, which the citizens fought bitterly.

WOULD BE OF MORE VALUE

Father O'Leary's Facetious Rejoinder to John Philpot Curran an Example of Real Wit.

One day the famous John Philpot Curran, who was also very partial to the said corned mutton, did me the honor to meet him. To enjoy the society of such men was an intellectual treat. They were great friends and seemed to have a mutual respect for each other's talent, and, as it may easily be imagined, O'Leary versus Curran was no bad match.

One day after dinner Curran said to him: "Reverend father, I wish you were St. Peter."

"And why, counselor, would you wish that I were St. Peter?" asked

O'Leary. "Because, reverend father, in that case," said Curran, "you would have the keys to heaven, and you could let me in."

"By my honor and conscience, counselor," replied the divine, "it would be better for you that I had the keys of the other place, then I could let you

Curran enjoyed the joke, which he admitted had a good deal of justice in it.-From Kelly's Remeniscences.

On Authority of Teacher.

A quick-witted boy, asking food at a farmhouse too recently ravaged by other hungry fishing truants, was told that he was big enough to wait until he got home.

"Of course, if you have children with you-" hesitated the kindly woman of the house, and was immediately informed that there were six children in the party.

"No. I don't tell a fib, neither," was the indignant protest later drawn forth by the condemnation of one who had shared the good bread and butter thus secured. "Fib nothin'. We're children six times over. We're children of our father and mother, children of God, children of our country, children of the church an' children of grace. Teacher said so last Thursday, and I guess she ought to know."

Strong Preaching.

The minister's eight-year-old daughter was returning with her parents from church, where the district superintendent had that morning occupied the pulpit.

"Oh, father," asked the little girl, her face alive with enthusiasm. "Don't you think Brother C. is a very strong preacher? I do."

Gratified by this evidence of unusual intelligence on the part of his offspring, the minister eagerly inquired into her reasons for her state-

"Oh," replied the little miss, artlessly, "didn't you see how the dust rose when he stamped his feet?"-Judge.

With a Sour Laugh. A Chicago editor has brought from London an amusing story about Hum-phry Ward. "'Humphry Ward," he said, was in his bachelor days, a really well-known art critic. But now!

"I met Humphry Ward at a dinner in Soho, and he said to me, with a sour laugh: "When a girl wants to retire from the world and be lost in oblivion, she has to enter a nunnery. But a man, to achieve the same end, need only marry a famous woman.' "

First Dose Cured. Permanent relief: "My daughter contracted chills in 1877. No prescription ever gave more than temporary relief, no tonic kept them off. Two bottles of Hughes' Tonic cured her completely. She had no chill after taking the first dose." Sold by Druggists-50c. and $1.00 bottles. Prepared by Robinson-Pettet Co. (Inc.), Louisville.

A Sure Sign.

"I understand, Mr. Reuben," said the visitor, "that your son is devoted to the turf." "Ya-as, I reckon he is," said the old man. "Jabez kin lay down on the grass for hull hours 'thout makin' no complaint."-Harper's Weekly.
