CONSPIRED TO WRECK BANK

Riggs National Bank Seeks In Court to Stop Combined Demands of Treasury Officials.

Washington. - Secretary of the Freasury McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams were made defendants in proceedings begun in the District of Columbia Supreme Court by the Riggs National Bank of Washington, D. C., which alleges that these officials have combined and conspired to wreck the bank.

Temporary and permanent injunctions to halt the alleged conspiracy. and to prevent the Comptroller from making what the bank charges are unlawful demands for special reports of various kinds, are sought from the

One portion of the prayer seeks to restrain John Burke, treasurer of the United States from payment into the treasury of $5,000 declared to be due the bank as interest on $1,000,000 of United States bonds deposited with the Comptroller against its note circulation. This interest was withheld to cover penalties of $100 a day for the bank's failure to make certain

Once paid into the treasury, only an act of Congress could get the $5,-000, out and Justice McCoy granted a temporary injunction on this phase of the case.

The bank's bill of complaint contains 37 specific allegations designed to show that the Comptroller has adopted unusual and legally questionable tactics in dealing with the institution. It recites that evidence of an unusual desire for information concerning the bank was shown by Mr. Williams shortly after he assumed the office of Comptroller more than a year ago, and has continued ever since. Prior to that time, in December, 1913, it says Mr. McAdoo charged officers of the bank of responsibility for publications regarding the official conduct of the defendant Williams as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. When this charge was denied, the bill asserts, Secretary McAdoo cursed Milton E. Ailes, a vice president of the bank, and said to C. C. Glover, its president: "Mr. Glover, you know what this means to the Riggs National

SHIP BADLY NEEDS REPAIRS.

Kronprinz Wilhelm Must Make Formal Requests, Newport News, Va.-The German merchant raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, under orders from the Washington government, will not be permitted to go into dry dock at the shipyard here until Captain Thierfelder, commander of the ship, has made formal request in writing of the repairs he wishes to make to render his vessel seaworthy and for supplies necessary to take him to the nearest port. Captain Thierfelder told Collector of Customs Hamilton that he would make his formal request as soon as possible. Meanwhile the sea-scarred commerce destroyer remains at anchor in the James River and was examined by experts from the Newport News Shipbuilding & Drydock Co., who found the ship leaking and her boilers in bad shape. Unofficially it was learned that the vessel is in need of much tinkering before she can be made seaworthy and this was taken as an indication that the ship eventually may be forced to follow her predecessor the Prinz Eitel Friedrich to internment at this port for the period of the war.

Warship Des Moines is Sent. Washington. - The cruiser Des Moines will be the only additional warship sent to Dominican waters until further details of differences between President Jiminez and his congress are received here. The Des Moines was ordered from Progreso to Santo Domingo City. It was assumed that Minister Sullivan in asking for an additional warship feared the dispute might easily be fanned into another revolution. The Nashville already is at Santo Domingo City and the gunboat Wheeling could be sent over.

BUSINESS IS IMPROVING

EVERY STATE IN UNION TELLS OF INCREASED ACTIVITY EX-CEPT MAINE.

Reports From Eight of the Ninety Bank Examiners Show a Marked Improvement.

Washington,—Business conditions throughout the country are showing marked improvement in almost all lines, according to reports from National bank examiners made public by the Treasury Department. Eighty of the 90 examiners in the United States reported a permanent improvement and Maine is said to be the only state where real depression exists.

"Pronounced hopefulness is prevalent in nearly every district," says the anouncement. "Agricultural conditions are generally excelent and commercial lines, with compartively few exceptions, are enlarging their activities, mainly through an increased demand, but in some cases preparations for activity is expected to develop with the coming of good weather. Manufacturing is on the increase and those industries having orders for supplies from foreign countries continue especially active.

The statement attributes depression to unusual conditions abroad, but says busines here has been stabilized through the application of economy.

"The South," it continues, "is showing marked improvement. The sale of cotton is active at advancing prices, with the result that all business is improving. Farmers, however, generally pronounced improvement. The prospects for large crops generally are excellent and there will be greater February 22, 1915. diversification.

KRONPRINZ WILWELM REACHES NEWPORT NEWS AFTER LONG SEA RAID

DESTROYED MERCHANTMEN

Slipped in By British Warships and Captain Says He Can Go Out the Same Way.

Newport News, Va.—Steaming her way at full speed, passing four Allied warships off the Virginia capes in the early hours of the morning, the German converted cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm, another of the remarkable merchant raiders of the South Seas, arrived in this port and asked for fuel and supplies.

The Kronprinz Wilhelm, many times reported destroyed, made this port in almost helpless condition, with less than 25 tons of coal and only scanty provisions for her crew of 500 men and 61 prisoners from British merchant ships sunk in the South Atlantic. The 15,000-ton cruiser came with a record of 15 merchant ships of the enemy captured, 14 of them sunk, nine British, four GERMAN CRUISER INTERNS British ship Chasehill, captured, was allowed to proceed, taking to shore vious raids. The value of the ships and cargoes destroyed officers of the Wilhelm estimated at $7,000,000.

Following in the wake of the interned Prinz Eitel Friedrich which arrived here about a month ago after similar thrilling and effective war operations for the German arms, the Kronprinz Wilhelm came dashing bravely through a lane of enemy warships and her commander Lieutenant Captain Paul Thierfelder, formerly navigating officer of the German cruiser Karlsruhe, said, "we got in withcan go out the same way."

Most of these were sent to South American ports at various times on German ships which met the raider in response to wireless call. The sixtyone one board who were landed here are British sailors taken from the steamship Tamar, destroyed March 25 and Coleby, destroyed March 27 last The toll of destruction credited the Kronprinz Wilhelm include the following vessels: British steamer Indian Prince,

The commerce raider has made her last cruise of the war. She was taken to the Norfolk Navy Yard across Hampton Roads from the ship yard here where she has been laid up since limping into port on March 10 after the remarkable commerce-destroying voyage from the Orient during which she sent the American ship William P. Frye to the bottom.

Commander Thierichens notified the Washington Government through Collector of Customs Hamilton of his decision to intern rather than "deliver the passes are in the hands of Ruscrew and ship to fruitless and certain destruction" by British and French warships waiting off the Virginia Capes to destroy them.

The German captain delivered his announcement in writing when Collector Hamilton boarded the Eitel Friedrich with an imperative notice from the Washington Government that the time for his stay in this port would expire at midnight and that he must leave American waters by 4 o'clock next morning. Before the customs collector had a chance to deliver the message from Washington Commander Thierichens handed to him the written announcement of his decision.

After conferences between Rear Admiral Beatty, commandant of the Norfolk Navy Yard, "Rear Admiral Helm of the battleship Alabama and Collector Hamilton actual interment of the Prinz Eitel was accomplished, the searaider was taken to the Navy Yard at Portsmouth, Va. RUSSIANS SUCCESS MAKES PEACE TALK

INCREASING INDICATIONS THAT HUNGARY, ESPECIALLY, IS TIRED OF FIGHT.

Talk of Peace With Hungary Brings Increasing Talk of War in Italy.-Fierce Fighting.

London.-Russian successes in the Carpathians, where the Muscovites are now said to control virtually all the important passes and are preparing for a descent on to the plains of Hungary, have revived unofficial talk of separate peace for Austro-Hungary, and seemingly increasing anxiety on the part of interventions in Italy for their country to take up arms on the Mr. Mather is the new assistant to side of the Allies and obtain territory with Austria. Russian newspapers seem convinced that Hungary, if not federal reserve board. Mr. Mather is the whole of the Dual Monarchy, is ready to seek peace, and it is said that Emperor Fracis Joseph has requested Pope Bendict to intervene in their behalf.

Except in Italy, the neutral country most directly interestd in this question, little credence is given this report, although the opinion is expressed in military circles here that if Russia breaks down the joint resistance of the Austro-German troops in the Carpathians as she apparently has that of the Austro-Hungarian armies. Hungary at least will be ready to bring the war to an end as far as she is concerned.

However, the Russians have some way to go yet before they reach the plains of Hungary and the Austro-Thierichens of the German auxiliary German forces are placing every obcruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, asked stacle in their way. The whole southern slopes of the mountains have been port authorities here to intern his ship strongly fortified and troops are being poured into the region. It is said there are now 24 Austrian and six German army corps facing the Russians, and that more are on the way. The Russians are bringing up reserves, and, according to the Austrian report, they are attacking without any regard for the loss of life. British military critics express the greatest admiration for the Russians' handling of the Carpathian campaign. The advance between Polianka and Bartfeld, they say, squeezes the Austrians out of the Dukia Pass, that from Dukia squeezed them out of Mazolabroez and from west to east this process has continued until all sian troops. The critics contend that the Austro-Germans must return from East Galicia and Bukowina or they will find themselves cut off.

GREAT HIGHWAY IS OPENED

After Seven Years Road From Spartanburg to Hendersonville Through Heart of Mountains is Open.

Spartanburg.—After an agitation of more than seven years and the expenditure of not less than $75,000 by Polk and Henderson counties, in North Carolina, not to mention what has been spent by Spartanburg county, a well located, well graded highway has been built an opened from this city to Hendersonville, N. C., by way of Inman, Campobello, Landrum, Tryon, Saluda. Flatrock and Tuxedo, a distance of 45 miles, more than half of which is through the very heart of the mountains. This fact was demonstrated when more than 200 Spartanburg people, traveling in 55 automobiles, made the journey to Hendersoncille in ease and comfort and without a mishap of any serious nature. The tourists left Spartanburg shortly before 10 o'clock in the morning and the majority of the cars were back in the city before 7 o'clock in the evening. At Tryon a meeting of the committees in charge of the road, representing the several sections of the road, was held for the discussion of questions touching the future maintenance of the highway. At Hendersonville the Community Club of that city entertained the entire party at the new club house for luncheon.

The road is one of the most scenio in the Southeast and is destined to become a popular highway with to irists visiting the mountains of western North Carolina. The surprising foature of the road was the section between Saluda and Hendersonville, which winds through a mountainous country on easy grades. Here some fine road construction has been done. This section of the road was entirely new to the great majority of the party going over it.
