There was a good attendance, and new members were welcomed.

The hostess served ice-box pudding and coffee.

Tom Thumb Wedding Proves Great Success

A military Tom Thumb wedding, sponsored by the local American Legion Auxiliary, was given at the school auditorium Friday evening. The wedding presented a pagentry of grace and beauty, those taking part being really the younger set.

The stage of the auditorium was artistically decorated in the traditional green and white. A background of long leaf pine, interspersed with white cosmos, made an effective setting for the improvised altar.

A program of nuptial music was rendered with Elaine Clemmons at the piano. Betsy Boyette, of Pine Level, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and Vonnie Mae Harmon sang "Because."

The bride, Joan Creech, a typical blonde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Creech, entered with her "father" Ivan Hill. She wore white taffeta, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, and long sleeves which came to a point over the hands. Her full length veil of marquisette was held in place with orange blossoms. Her flowers were gardenias.

The bridegroom, Jimmie McMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan, had as his best man, Ed Rose. The officiating minister was Alton Denning.

Ushers were Bobby Oliver, Mickey Williams, Moran Parker and Darian Fowler.

Betty Booker was maid of honor. She wore powder blue net over taffeta, with a bandeau of flowers in pastel shades. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink roses and delphinium with streamers of pink and blue ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Virginia Matthews, Harriet Norton, Sylvia Langley, Mary B. Ray, Ruth Mae Peedin, Nancy Parrish, Jean Peedin and Faye Warren. They wore identical dresses of organdy, in green, pink, yellow and orchid. Their flowers were Colonial bouquets with ribbon of contrasting shades.

Groomsmen were Will Creech, Mickey Sittin, Jimmy Percy Strickland, J. A. Creech, Charles Green, Harry Green, Stanley Ricks, and Thomas Allen Brown. They as were the other men of the bridal party, were dressed in uniform.

Kay Wiggs was ring bearer. Her dress was of yellow organdy and she carried the ring on a white satin pillow. Flower girls were Joyce Norris and Gayle Price whose identical dresses were of blue and pink. Train bearers were Jimmie Odell Strickland and Charles Woodall, who wore white suits.

Guests were Barbara Ann Ward, J. B. Harper, Judy Oliver, Loretta Carter, Elizabeth Taylor, Harold Phillips, Ruth Norris, Georgia Tuck, Sue Massey, Albert Wesley Brown, Mary Jo Futrell, Benjie Brantley, Imogene Henry, Dickie Parker, Carrol Rollins, Bebe Oliver, Willard Hinnant and Pat Lewis.

Immediately following the wedding a reception for the bridal party and parents was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Booker. The guests were greeted at the door by Dr. and Mrs. Booker and invited into the dining room where the punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. E. G. Hobbs and Mrs. Raleigh Griffin. Punch and cakes were served. Others assisting in receiving were Mesdames W. D. Perkins, W. H. Hill, Roy Smith and H. L. Boney.
