Coffee, sandwiches and candy was served the fifteen members present. The February meeting will be held with Mrs. Oscar Morris.

American Legion Aux. Holds Annual Party

On Wednesday evening the members of the American Legion Auxiliary held their annual Christmas party. The assembly room was beautifully decorated in holly. The tables were in the form of a "V". Red berried holly extended the length of the table, interspersed with red candles.

Rev. and Mrs. Wade Baker delightfully entertained the members with a group of songs. Mrs. Ronald E. Herren, with her usual charm, sang White Christmas and asked the group to join her in singing Christmas Carols.

The hostesses, who were losers in the membership drive, served a delicious plate consisting of baked chicken, dressing, rice, string beans candied yams, pickles, celery, hot biscuits, fruit cake topped with cream and hot coffee.

A short business meeting was held with Mrs. E. G. Hobbs presiding. It was decided to charge $2.00 for the use of the kitchen and those renting it are to be responsible for dishes, etc., and must leave kitchen clean.

Ten dollars was given to a needy lady.

Hen Lays An Egg With Sun On It

Mr. John H. Talton, of Selma brought a hen egg to the office of The Johnstonian-Sun Monday that has almost a perfect imitation of the rising sun on one side. This is one of those freaks of nature that is hard to understand.

Bomber Pilot Sees 420 Hours Action In Pacific

FIFTH AIR FORCE, SOUTH-WEST PACIFIC—Capt. Morgan F. Terry, Jr., of Alpine, Texas, is en route home after completing 420 hours of aerial action in the Southwest Pacific. He is the husband of Mrs. Elinor Ray Terry of Alpine and the son of Morgan F. Terry, Sr., of Alice, Texas.

Capt. Terry is a pilot in the crew of a Liberator bomber of the famous Jolly Roger heavy bomber outfit which is a part of the bomber command of the Fifth Air Force. He has flown on 65 combat missions and has been awarded the Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters. He has also qualified as a pilot of a P-38 fighter plane.

Jolly Roger heavy bombers have shot down nearly 400 Jap planes, destroyed hundreds more on the ground, sunk half a million tons of enemy shipping and struck the opening blow of the Philippine and other major campaigns to become the Allies' aerial spearhead in the Southwest Pacific.

Editor's Note - Mrs. Terry is the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Frank O. Ray, of Alpine, Texas and a granddaughter of Mrs. R. L. Ray, Sr., of Selma.
