Marshall - Hodge

Miss Arzelle Grady Hodge became the bride of Mr. Henry Flowers Marshall on Friday, June the eighth, at four-thirty o'clock in the Baptist Church in Kenly with the Rev. Tom M. Freeman officiating.

A program of pre-nuptial music was given by Mrs. Eva Person, of Louisburg, organist and Miss Hazer Marie Hancock of Jackson, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a wedding gown of net and satin. The tight fitting bodice of satin, made with sweet heart neck line and outlined with net opened down the back with tiny covered buttons. Her tight fitted sleeves tapered to points over the hands. Double satin panels extended the length of the net skirt and train. Her full length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and fern centered with a white purple-throated orchid. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, a gift from the bridegroom which had belonged to his mother.

A gown of aqua taffetta was worn by the maid of honor, Miss Ida Hodge of Langley Field, Virginia, sister of the bride. Her bouquet was of pink carnations, talisman roses and fern.

Mrs. Malcolm Prestridge of Greenwood, Mississippi, sister of the groom was matron of honor. Her gown was yeow net over taffetta and she carried a bouquet of yellow lilies, yellow roses and fern.

The little flower girls, Harriet Norton of Selma, niece of the bride, and Brenda Martin of Jackson, wore blue and pink dresses of net over satin, carrying dainty nosegays of mixed summer flowers.

Honorary bridesmaids wearing gowns of pastel shades and white carnations in their hair were: Misses Celesta Boyette, Malissa Godwin, Mary Johnson and Mrs. Bill Parris of Kenly, Miss Sue Waller of Kinston, Mrs. Roy Smith of Selma, Mrs. Lindsay Wagstaff of Roxboro, Misses Margaret and Emily Burt Person of Louisburg, Miss Lois May of Red Oak, Mrs. J. A. Hodge, Jr. of Maxton, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. W. L. Norton of Selma, sister of the bride.

The groom had as his best man Mr. James Speed of Louisburg.

Ushers were: Roy Gupton, Jr. of Louisburg, W. T. Woodard, Jr. of Selma, cousin of the bride and W. L. Norton of Selma, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of navy chiffon and matching accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Alvin Hodge of Kenly. She graduated from Western Teachers College at Cullowhee and since then has taught at the Goldsand and Jackson schools.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Frank Lamar Marshall, Sr., and the late Mrs. Marshall of Carrollton, Mississippi. He is a graduate of Mississippi State College and for the past four years has taught Vocational Agriculture in the Goldsand school, Louisburg.

For traveling Mrs. Marshall wore a two-piece pink dress with black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

CAKE - CUTTING

On Thursday night following the rehearsal Miss Ida Hodge of Langley Field, Va., and Mrs. W. L. Norton of Selma, sisters of Miss Hodge, entertained the members of the Marshall-Hodge wedding party at a cake cutting at the Woman's Club Building in Kenly. The lace covered table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple surrounded by ivy and flanked by white candles. Arrangements of mixed summer flowers were used in the decorations. After the first slice of cake was cut by the bridal couple, the hostesses served the wedding cake, ice cream, mints and nuts. The guests of honor were presented china in their chosen pattern.

Princeton Library Receives Books

Excellent Reference Books of the Late Miss Pearl Aycock of Micro Given by Family to the Public Library.

The book collection of Princeton Public Library will be enlarged by some 175 volumes when the gift books are placed on the shelves. They are the type of books which invite study and consultation namely: the Encyclopedia Americana in excellent condition; the twenty-five volume set, History of Nations; complete sets of the works of Charles Dickens, Alexander Dumas and Charles Reade; a Henley edition of Shakespeare complete in 10 volumes in readable print; Cassell's French-English and English-French Dictionary; Robert's Latin - English Dictionary; Robert's Rules of Order; short stories of O. Henry, Hawthorne and A. Conan Doyle; several good histories and histories of American and English literature; poems of Whittier, Longfellow and Lowell; Spanish grammars and a copy of the Life and Speeches of Charles B. Aycock. These books will be placed on the shelves of the Princeton Library as soon as they have been processed and a memorial plate will be placed in each volume.

Generosity of Family

Dr. B. L. Aycock of Princeton, his mother and sister of Micro exhibited the same love for learning and spirit of helping others that dominated Miss Pearl's life. Rather than keeping her books for sentimental reasons they realized the value of her personal library and wanted to place it where many people would benefit from it. The library is indeed grateful for their very generous gift.

Miss Pearl Aycock - A Real Student and an Inspiring Teacher

Miss Pearl Aycock, daughter of the late B. L. Aycock and Sarah Jane Aycock, died December 29, 1941. Before her death she had taught 14 continuous years in the Micro School influencing many boys and girls to seek higher education and always imparting to her students that rare quality, a genuine love for learning. In her teaching career, she missed attending summer school only once, the summer before she died. The University of North Carolina, the University of Virginia and the University of Florida were among the places where she studied. Recommendations from several of her superintendents summarized her splendid qualifications as a teacher thus: "She excelled as a disciplinarian through her rare tact, reserved power of personality, firmness of purpose which she bore with grace and ease. She was a lady of sturdy worth, modest and refined in manner, and of splendid Christian character." Higher mathematics was her special field, but she also taught Bible, English, Spanish, French, Latin and science.

Miss Aycock was graduated from Littleton Female College in 1904 and later taught there two years. She also had teaching experience in Carolina College Maxton, N. C., Wilson County, in Homestead, Fort Lauderdale and Bartow, Florida and in Princeton and Micro.

Her great contribution to education and worthwhile living will continue through the lives of the men and women whom she taught and also through her books which will answer questions for the new generation of students who use them.

Except in the food-raising areas, a dangerously low level of nutrition generally exists in Northwest Europe, says Samuel I. Roseman in a report to President Truman. "A choice and hungry Europe."

Windshield Stickers Are Not Needed

Raleigh, June 11. — Windshield stickers "A", "B", "C" or "T" indicating the type of gasoline rationing held by car owners need no longer be displayed, it was announced today by OPA District Director Theodore S. Johnson.

This action was taken, he said, because of the use of endorsed, serially numbered ration coupons. "The new rationing allotments, effective June 11, will not mean more gasoline for all "B" users, he pointed out. Only those "B" ration holders whose essential occupational driving needs exceed their present "B" allotments will be eligible for the new increase, he asserted.

Eligible holders of "B" rations need have no concern over their expiration dates, he explained, because additional rations will be computed from tables provided by OPA, so that all applications will receive their full allotment of gasoline after June 11; regardless of the expiration date of their present rations.

Applications should be mailed to the War Price and Ration Board, together with applicant's mileage record, he said.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!
