The James Kenan Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy met at the home of Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. A. Porter Mrs. Woodrow W. Blackburn and Mrs. Robert L. West were co-hostesses. For the afternoon program, Mrs. Norwood B. Boney read the Nativity of Christ. Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, III read a most interesting and entertaining story entitled "Christmas."

Resolutions of Respect were read by Mrs. C. F. Carrill.

"IN MEMORIAM"
In as much as God has taken our fellow member, Mrs. Bertha Pauline West, from our midst, be it resolved:

I. That we, the members of the James Kenan Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, while we mourn her passing, do rejoice in her long life of usefulness, not only as a loyal member of this Chapter, but also for her work in the community, especially in her church for which she labored long and efficiently.

II. Be it also resolved that these resolutions of respect be spread upon the pages of our minutes. A copy sent to the press and a copy sent to the family.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Miriam M. Carroll.
Mrs. Stevens closed the meeting by offering a Christmas prayer.

Delicious refreshments of molded Ruby fruit salad, hot tea, pimento cheese sandwiches, chicken salad sandwiches, cookies and jello cake were served to the 19 members present.

C. C. Organizations to Present Christmas Eye Program Over ABC

Grovesville, N. C., Dec. — Christmas music by student organizations in the School of Music at East Carolina College will be broadcast December 24 over a national radio hook-up of 425 stations of the American Broadcasting Company. The program will be on the air for 4 to 4:30 p.m.

Gov. Terry Sanford of North Carolina will extend during the broadcast greetings from this state to the nation and congratulations to the East Carolina College School of Music for being selected to give the ABC Christmas Eve broadcast.

Presented at the college Dec. 7 during the annually held Christmas assembly, the program was taped under the direction of Rosalind Roulston, director of radio and television at the college, and by request of ABC forwarded to New York transmission December 24.

Organizations which will be heard include the Symphonic Band, the Brass Choir, the Men's Glee Club, the College Choir, the Women's Chorus, the Chapel Choir, and the College Singers.

Selections forwarded to ABC include works by composers on the college faculty, "Alleluia" by Dr. Martin Mailman, composer in residence; "Awaken Us" by Gordon Johnson, director of the College Choir; and "In Quest of Truth" by James Parnell, director of the Brass Choir, will be performed by vocal and instrumental groups in the School of Music.

Other selections will range from Leroy Anderson's lively and amusing "Sleigh Ride" by the Symphonic Band to the final chorus from Saint-Saens' "Christmas Oration" performed by the Chapel Choir. Christmas carols by both vocal and instrumental ensembles and "Joy to the World" and other numbers sung by the audience at the assembly will also be included on the program.

Katz Employees Entertained

The employees of Katz Department Stores of Warsaw, Wallace and Rose Hill were entertained Monday evening, December 10th, with a Christmas party at the County Squire. The group enjoyed charcoal steaks with all the trimmings. Following the supper, they exchanged Christmas gifts. Mrs. Ida Katz was presented a silver water pitcher by the Employees of the Warsaw Stores. About forty persons enjoyed the fellowship.

A delicious dinner of baked turkey, dressing, candied potatoes, garden peas, cranberry sauce and chocolate and pine apple cake was served by the Coffee Shoppe.

Following the dinner, bingo was enjoyed by all the guests. Winners of the door prizes were Cynthia Batts, Terry Quinn and Henry Dunn.

Oris Cantrell New Home Editor Progressive Farmer

Birmingham, Ala. — Miss Oris Cantrell, since 1947 an associate editor of The Progressive Farmer magazine, has been named editor of the magazine's Home Department effective December 1. Miss Cantrell succeeds Mrs. Lucia Brownell who is resigning for health reasons and to devote full time to her teaching duties.

Miss Cantrell is the daughter of a rural teacher and farmer, and was born in Pittsburg Landing, Tenn. She was reared in small towns in Texas, Tennessee, Illinois, and Kentucky.

A graduate in home economics from Milligan College, Tenn., Miss Cantrell also did graduate work in journalism and home economics at Kansas State College. Prior to joining The Progressive Farmer, she taught home economics and other subjects in Tennessee high schools, and from 1938 to 1947 was county home management supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration.
