Christmas Parade Big Event

The Pink Hill Business and Professional Men's Club annual Christmas Parade staged Saturday, was a huge success. Some 30 units participated, including both commercial and non-commercial float entries, horses and riders, clowns, bands, beauty queen contestants, fire fighting rescue and other units and even Santa Claus himself.

Miss Joan Walker of Albemarle was crowned queen. Brewer Drug Company was her sponsor. First runner-up was Judy Blizard and second runner-up Grace Howard. Mrs. Frank Finney, Mrs. John Wilkerson and Mrs. Rodolph Page were judges.

A float from the Moss Hill School of Community took first prize in that division with the Brewer Drug Co. float taking second place. The FFA boys float won third place.

In the Clown division, Oliver Noble was over-all winner, a First Aid group took second prize, and Junior Howard came out third.

A pony cart sponsored by Potter's Hill Milling Co. placed first in the Children's division.

The parade terminated at the school, where the queen was crowned and all parade prizes were awarded. Santa Claus greeted the children at the location and distributed some 1,000 bags of candy and fruit.

Tilt-Away Steering For Added Motorist Comfort

Optimum ease of entry and exit is provided by Oldsmobile's new Tilt-Away steering wheel to be offered on the 1963 full-size Oldsmobiles. By operating a small lever at the base of the steering column, Oldsmobile buyers may tilt the wheel to its most vertical position for maximum ease of getting in or out of the car. In addition, the driver may position the steering wheel at any one of seven angles to best suit his driving comfort. The Tilt-Away, shown installed on a 1962 Oldsmobile, was designed and built for Oldsmobile by the Saginaw Steering Gear Division of General Motors. It will be available as an extra cost option on all 1963 88's, 98's and Starfires equipped with power steering.

Future Homemakers Banquet

Mothers were honored Thursday night, December 13, at the annual Pink Hill High School Mother-Daughter FHA Banquet. The program began with a welcome to mothers by Ann Denny Tyndall. Mrs. Jasper Tyndall responded. Kay Hill welcomed the guests, and Grace Howard recited a poem to Mothers. Christmas Carols were sung, with Luci Turner at the piano. The group enjoyed a comical fashion revue.

As the group entered the cafeteria they were served cranberry punch, barbecue, slaw, pickles, hushpuppies and tea made up the menu. Jello and cookies were served for dessert.

Mrs. Nancy Jones is the FHA sponsor.
