mittee served fruit cake topped with whipped cream, accompanied with coffee. Later gifts were exchanged from the Christmas tree.

Shower Honors Nancy Grady

Miss Mary Lillian Grady, December 30th bride-elect was honored here on Saturday night, December 15th, at 7:30 in the Lodge Building at a miscellaneous shower. The joint hostesses were Mrs. P. T. Heath, Mrs. Mildred Brewer, Mrs. I. T. Grady, Mrs. Don Parnell, Mrs. J. J. Wells and Mrs. E. V. Vestal. A Christmas motif was used throughout the building with the exception of the refreshment table which featured the bridal theme, in arrangements of white poinsettia mixed with greenery, flanked by white lighted tapers. The table was covered with a green cloth overlaid with a lace covering. Here the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. N. B. Grady poured green punch from one end of the table while Mrs. E. V. Vestal served dainty cake squares iced in white and centered with a lily. Salted nuts and mints were also served to the fifty or more guests present.

The honoree was presented a lovely white carnation corsage upon arrival. Her mother was also presented a corsage as was her maternal grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Swinson of Dudley. Among the out of town guests present was Miss Harriet Horton of Rocky Mount and Wilmington. She is the honoree's room-mate as they both teach school in Wilmington.

Before the guests took their departure the honoree was invited to open the many attractive packages. That had been placed on a large table centered with a unique Cedar Christmas tree decorated with hand made red carnations. After admiring her miscellaneous shower gifts Miss Grady graciously thanked the donors.

Mrs. McGowan Has Bridge Luncheon

The members of the Kenansville Kontract Klub enjoyed a delicious supper on last Wednesday night when they met at 6:30 in the home of Mrs. Edna W. McGowan. The menu consisted of Turkey timbale, sausage buns, green beans, parsnip slices, cucumber pickles, candied yams and coffee, followed by chocolate pie. Christmas decorations were used for the occasion, throughout the home. Afterwards several games of bridge were enjoyed. Mrs. N. B. Boney wound up with the high score prize with Mrs. Ellis Vestal close runner up who was presented second high. Mrs. D. S. Williamson was given a consolation gift. The members present exchanged gifts prior to adjournment from a prettily decorated Christmas Tree.
