4-H Club Basketball Game

By: Ronnie L. Roberts
The Warsaw Jr. Clover Leaves met the Kenansville Jr. Clover Leaves Saturday, January 12, 1963 at Douglass High School in a thrilling basketball game. There was action all the way. Troy Dixon scored two points in the first quarter and Robert Kenan scored two points in the fourth quarter. Kenansville won the game 4-3.

Troy and Robert played for Kenansville. The third quarter saw Steve Frederick score one point and Willie Rich two points. This group is composed of boys up to ten years of age.

Boys ages 11-14 from the Senior Clover Leaves Clubs saw plenty of good shooting as Kenansville took the game 25-18. Sorry but the plays were not given to this reporter on a player or quarter basis.

The Clover Leaves will have another game Saturday, January 19, 1963 at Douglass High School. Game time 9:30 a. m.
