ings in view in the South Gallery during the month of February. This show opens to the public at two o'clock, Sunday afternoon, February 3.

John Brady is a native of Hickory, N. C., now residing at Blowing Rock, N. C. He is married to the former Jane Church of Morlanton. Their three children are John Jr., Jamie and JoAnne.

Brady's exhibition will consist of twenty-five paintings of landscapes and figure in water color, oils, polymer, casein and cado ink. Mixed mediums are used in "Timberline" done with oil, polymer and powder pigments; "Head" done with ink, potymer and charcoal and "Girl" done with pencil, polymer and cado. Two prize winning paintings will be shown; "Rose" an oil and "Mult Mist" done with cado ink and water color in brilliant reds, which is on loan from Dr. and Mrs. Richard Medcal of Hickory, N. C.

Brady founded and has successfully operated the John Brady School of Art and Gallery at Blowing Rock since 1954. Students from thirty different states, beginners and advanced painters have studied with Brady. Fifteen one-man exhibitions by important artists throughout the south have been shown in the Brady Gallery.

John Brady studied at the Ringling School of Art, Art Institute of Pittsburgh, Jerry Farnsworth School of Art, Amagansett School of Art and Umberto Romano School of Art.

His impressive number of one-man shows have been held in galleries and museums throughout the state including the Asheville Art Museum, Hickory Museum of Art, Statesville Arts and Science Museum, Raleigh Carolina Sales Gallery, Durham Allied Arts, Catawba College, Converse College, Charlotte County Day School and the Charlotte Mint Museum.

Presently, in addition to teaching at Blowing Rock, he is a staff teacher at the Winston-Salem Arts and Craft Association and the Florence Museum of Art, Florence, S. C. Brady has received seventeen awards from competitive shows.

John Brady serves on the Board of Directors for the Associated Artists of N. C., the Tri State Art Council and the Hickory Museum of Art.

Visitors are welcomed at St. John's Gallery Monday through Saturdays from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. and Sundays from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.
