Carolyn Gresham Chosen Outstanding Pianist in Southeastern District

On February 22, the Southeastern District of N. C. held their Federation of Music Festivals at East Carolina College in Greenville.

Young piano students of Mrs. J. T. Gresham, Jr. attended this festival. The judges for each piano festival were members of the Music Teachers Association of the Southeastern District and the Eastern District. The judges do not compete with each other, but rather, each judge his own merits. Ratings were: Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair. On a percentage basis, the superior rating is 95 to 100%, Good 85 to 94%, Very Good 75 to 84%, and Fair 65 to 74%.

Carolyn Gresham, daughter of Mrs. J. T. Gresham, Jr., was chosen as outstanding pianist in the Southeastern District and the Eastern District at Guilford College. Students who received Superior ratings were: Suzanne Southerland of Chocomaun, Kay Britt, Linda Grice, Tana Carlton, Laurie Gresham, Carolyn Gresham, and Cathy Mattocks of Rose Hill.

Ratings of Excellent were given to: Jane Blackmore, Donna Sue Edwards, Dianna Outlaw, Patsy Sheffield, and Tanga Jo West of Warsaw. Students rating Very Good were: Tricia Kornegay, Becky Phillips, Cynthia Kretsch, Jan Townsend, Margaret Grady, Ann Price, and Nancy Ward.
