Do Teenagers Need A Youth Center?

by a Warsaw Teenager who says Yes

"Friends, Warsawians. Country-men, lend me your eyes. Come I here to write in the local paper about the need for a youth center. So much for Julius Caesar.

There is no question about it we need a youth center. Wouldn't it be wonderful, if we could immediately begin planning the location, architectural designs, and costs of such a building? Needless to say, we teenagers understand what must be done and the cost involved, however, we are eager to see this much needed center get "underway" and we are willing to help.

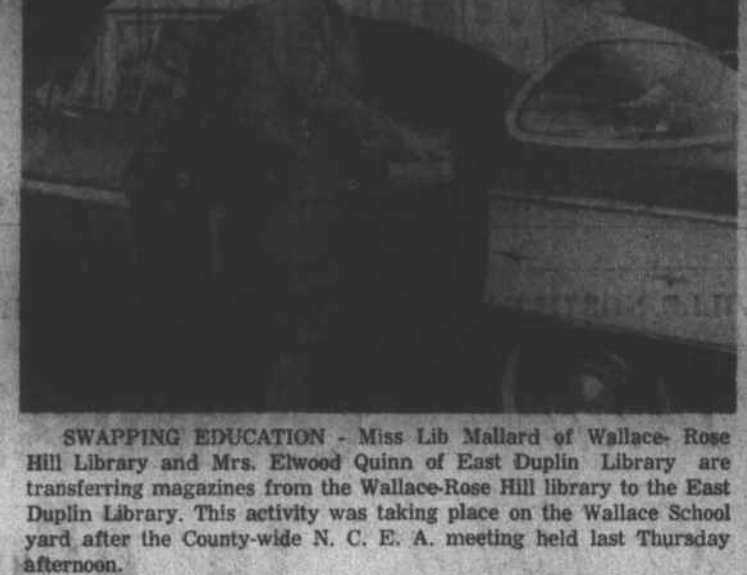

With permission, we will put on car washes, cake sales, and anything else to help promote a fund raising campaign. I assure you, we are in earnest about offering "ourselves" to "work". So give us a chance for a happy life here and now. Remember the old saying, "You're never young but once"? It still holds true." We want a place where we can be proud to go, where our parents want have to forbid us to attend, a place in our own town so we want have so much time on our hands. This summer, we will have more time with nowhere to go.

A YOUTH CENTER would be ideal. There would be no need for our parents to say, "No, you can't go, the gas is low", or "It's too far to drive at night and driving is dangerous". Parents should realize that we wouldn't be going to Faison, Wallace, Mount Olive or Goldsboro if we had our own recreation center.

One person can not get this "underway", and if our aspirations for a youth center are to be realized we will need the support of everyone. Want you help us solve the typical teenage problem - "I've got my dancing shoes on, and nowhere to dance".
