Holstein Wins Record

Fobes Pabst Netherland 4516785, a four-year-old, owned by R. M. Lefler, Willard, produced 14,120 lbs. milk and 517 lbs. butterfat in 282 days.

North Carolina State College of Agriculture and E. supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the official breed improvement program of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

In announcing the new record, a spokesman for the national Holstein organization said that it compared

Mrs. Theodore Kelly Grady
Grady-Noble Vows Spoken - Deep Run

Miss Glenda Sue Noble became the bride of L. Cpl. Theodore Kelly Grady at the Deep Run First Baptist Church at five o'clock Friday, March 1.

Rev. R. H. Lineberger, pastor of the bride, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noble of Deep Run and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noble of Deep Run and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noble of Deep Run.

A program of nuptial music was presented by the church choir, pianist, and Mrs. Horace Davenport, vocalist, who sang "O Promise Me and the Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal-length gown of satin overlaid with embroidered silk organza. The fitted bodice was designed with charmingly lace and sleeves ending in calla points over her hands. Lace motifs also edged the bateau neckline. The gathered waistline featured a panel extending down the back to the edge of the chapel train. The veil of silk illusion was attached to a train of seed pearls. She carried a Bible topped with white carnations.

Miss Judy Carol Noble, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a lavender waltz-length gown of taffeta overlaid with chiffon. Her headband featured a circular veil. She carried a bouquet of matching pastel carnations.

Mr. Robert Shelton Grady of Newport served his brother as best man. Ushers were Messrs. Jess Smith, brother-in-law of the groom and Phillip Grady, cousin of the groom, both of Seven Springs.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a medium blue suit with matching accessories. Her corsage featured white carnations.

Mrs. A. H. Munn of Deep Run directed the wedding ceremonies.

The bride is a 1953 graduate of Deep Run High School and is presently a senior at East Carolina College at Greenville, where she is majoring in Home Economics. The groom is a 1950 graduate of B. F. Grady High School. He attended Campbell College at Buies Creek and also East Carolina College, and is now serving in the United States Marine Corps at Beaufort, South Carolina.
