Stroud-Hancuff Wed In Meadville, Pa. Couple Will Live In Pennsylvania

Miss Janice Lee Hancuff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hancuff of Meadville, Pennsylvania became the bride of Gene Arden Stroud, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cameron Stroud of Warsaw, R. F. D. The wedding took place in the First Christian Church of Meadville, Pennsylvania on March 2 at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Rev. E. L. Russell was officiating minister at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Gloria Patrick was the Matron of Honor and Charlene Hancuff, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They were both from Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Best man was Edward Hancuff, brother of the bride, of Elizabeth City, N. C. and ushers were Kenneth Turner and Glen Smith, both of Meadville.

Baskets of white snapdragons and white mums, backed with lighted candelabra, palms and ferns, made a lovely setting for the exchange of the marital vows. Mrs. Sue Anderson organist played traditional wedding music. Ralph Pratt, vocalist, sang Because and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore bouquet taffeta and chantilly lace. The long sleeves were lace and applique of lace formed the jeweled sabra neckline on the basque bodice. The gown was floor length and had controlled front with bustle back continuing into a chapel train. A tiara of pearls secured finger-tip tiers of illusion veiling. She carried a lace covered Bible topped with white carnations, centered with a large pink throated orchid, and streamered with white satin ribbon tied with buds.

The matron of honor wore mint chiffon, semi-bouffant. Her short sleeved gown had high neckline and panels of chiffon tied at the shoulder line in the back. She wore a bandeau of multiple bows with small moline veil on her head in matching green, and matching accessories with short white gloves. She carried a bouquet of mint green carnations with touches of yellow.

The bridesmaid wore yellow chiffon in exact matching design as the matron-of-honor, with matching bandeau and carried yellow carnations touched with white and green.

A beige ensemble with beige accessories with a corsage of pink carnations and white mums was the outfit chosen by the bride's Mother. The mother of the groom was attired in a Colonial blue ensemble with a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the social room of the church. The brides table was served buffet style using crystal and silver against a background of mint green lattice work.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Glenna Kaputa, Mrs. Hazel Hills, Mrs. Mabel Turner, Mrs. Jessie Roberts, Mrs. Mildred Ervin, Mrs. Margaret Watt, Mr. Graden Watt, Mrs. Frank Brown, with Mrs. Eldred Russell at the Guest book.

After a short wedding trip the couple will live on Baldwin street Extension, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Stroud is a graduate of Meadville High School and Meadville City Hospital School of Nursing. She is presently employed by Spencer Hospital in Meadville, Pa.

The bride-groom is a graduate of Kenansville High School in Kenansville, N. C. and attended Gastonia Technological Institute. He has served as U. S. Coast Guard.
