Bible Material: Mark 13:1 through Devotional Reading: I Thensalontans

Christians have engaged in endless debates more's

br. Foreman debates, more's the pity, about the Second Coming, — mostly questions about it that no one can answer beforehand. But whatever their differences, all branches and varieties of the Christian faith agree that Christ will reign; that at long last He will be in fact and not only in hope, the Ruler of this world. Literal or figurative?

Literal or figurative?

What is said about the Second Coming is not entirely simple and clear. If it were, there would not be so many arguments about it. One question that no one can answer to every one's satisfaction is: Are the predictions and the descriptions of it to be taken literally ar figuratively? Taken literally, they raise difficulties. For example, in one of the verses from Mark in this week's lesson, it is said that Jesus will come "in the clouds." Does this mean literal clouds such as you can fly through, and often fly over? Men come in the clouds to every airport. What is special about that? And if you say that these are not ordinary water-drop clouds, but something never seen before, you have decided the meaning must be figurative. But still the difficulty is not gotten rid of; for a figure of speech always means something. We could go through all the expressions connected with the Second Coming, and note the difficulties of understanding all of them;

pain truth is cond Coming welcomed by most people, as was the First Coming. Jesus will reign; He reigns even now in the hearts of multiples, but His reign is not always visible. His Second Coming will reveal Himself to the world with a sprenfor and force that no man said doubt. Sometimes a wealthy person will fall in love with another person will fall in love with another person will fall in love with another person who may be units pour by comparison. The rich lover may conceal the fact of his wealth, He wants to be loved for the ed, not for his stock and bounds to it may be that Christ, have the glory of the heavenly Father, wishes now in these present days, to be loved for Himself,—to be obeyed out of love and devotion. No one, seeing Jesus in power and glory, would most people, as was Jesus in power and glosy, would wish to be anywhere else but on His side. So the power and the glory come at the end, not at the beginning.

Jesus said plainly that even the S... (meaning Himself) does not know "of that day and that hour." so we waste our ingenuity making up timetables for Him. He will come when the time is. One other thing Jesus made plain: His followers ought to live every day as if that Coming were to take place before tonight. This does not mean that we must shut our stores and factories and every one go home to pray. It means that wherever we are, if we are on the right trail it is our God-given duty to stay on it. If we are doing a good work it is our duty to finish it, as if He were coming to inspect it at aix o'clock.

Live, in short, as in His sight; this is the old and always new command. But is He not always here? Yes—He can and He does live in the heart with the opened door. We have to remember this: God knows exactly as much about our lives, inside and out, as He could know if Jesus in person walked in the door with a fountain pen in His hand to make notes for a report for the Last Judgment.
