October, November and December the Opal, Topaz and Turquoise interpreted in flowers. These exhibits were shown at the standard flower show, "Enchanted April" held in Warsaw last Friday, April 19 the show was presented by the Warsaw Garden Club, The Home Gardeners and the Gardenettes.

THE TRICOLOR WINNER which was arranged by Mrs. E. C. Thompson of Warsaw. The arrangement was in the Invitation Class and was an interpretation of the Amethyst, the birthstone of February. The colors in the arrangements were perfectly beautiful. This arrangement was shown in the flower show held by three garden clubs in Warsaw last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw Honored At 50th. Wedding Anniversary

A surprise buffet dinner given by their children honored Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bradshaw on their 50th. Wedding Anniversary Sunday of last week in the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bradshaw in Warsaw.

Thinking they were invited to have dinner with the Clyde Bradshaw's, they were quite surprised to arrive and enter the living room of the home and here "Happy Anniversary" ring out at them.

After the shock of the reunion of all their children and their families and friends they were all invited into the dining room where they were served a delicious dinner consisting of ham, barbecue chicken, turkey, string beans, potato salad, fresh corn, deviled eggs, slaw, tea, and a variety of cakes. The table was thrown with a gold cloth overlaid with white lace and centered with a tiered wedding cake in yellow decorated with gold roses with matching gold ribbons tied gracefully around the stand. Candelabra holding gold tapers flanked the cake.

After enjoying the dinner the honorees and guests were invited into the gift room where Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw opened their many lovely and useful gifts from their family and friends.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lee, Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee, Mr. and Mrs. William Yarbour and Doug of Roxboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Long, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howell and son Watson of Kingston; Miss Margaret Lee, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Summerlin and children of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Konegay and Jane of Goldsboro; Mr. and Mrs. David Evans, and children of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Farrell, Lewis Summerlin, Hallie Lee and Miss Laura Lee of Goldsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bradshaw of Durham and Mr. and Mrs. John Bradshaw and boys, Donnie and Gerald of Newport, News, Va.

Randy Sutton Honored

Randy Sutton was entertained on his seventh birthday last Saturday afternoon with a lawn party by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sutton.

After outdoor games were enjoyed by the boys helping Randy celebrate, his mother served birthday cake, ice cream, cold-aid, and peanuts.

Party blow outs, bubble gum and marbles were presented to each guest upon departure by Randy.

Miss Barr Is Honored

Mrs. Floyd J. Strickland, entertained Miss Martha Anne Barbride elect of June 9th with a Kitchen Shower last Friday night in her home on Pollock Street at 8:00.

The living room where three tables of cards were in play was predominated with lovely arrangements of spring flowers. Upon arrival of the honoree Mrs. Strickland pinned a lovely corsage on her.
