GI "RS" Insurance Policy Holders Have 3 Months To Qualify For Dividends

More than 150,000 holders of GI "RS" insurance policies have three months remaining in which to qualify for a special dividend by exchanging for "W" term policies or converting to permanent insurance, the Veterans Administration said today.

The special dividend, authorized for this purpose, expires on September 13, 1963, according to J. D. DeRamus, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office at Winston-Salem.

After that date, "RS" policyholders may still convert or exchange their policies, but they will no longer be eligible for the dividend payment, DeRamus pointed out.

Only GI insurance policyholders with "RS" insurance that was issued to Korean Conflict servicemen are concerned in this program, the VA said. On or before September 13, 1963, they must:

1. Exchange the "RS" term policy for a "W" term policy, generally costing about one-third of what they are now paying; or
2. Convert the "RS" policy to a low-cost permanent plan of insurance.

The "W" term insurance cannot be renewed after age 50 but the insured may at any time while term insurance is in force, convert to any of six permanent plans. These have fixed premiums higher than for term insurance but they do not increase in cost every five years as term insurance premiums do.

DeRamus said the six permanent plans are: ordinary life, twenty payment life, thirty payment life, twenty-year endowment, endowment at age 60, and endowment at age 65.

Policyholders need not write to the VA since information, premium rates and application forms are being sent by the VA to each veteran still holding and "RS" policy.

What Questions Vets Are Asking

Here are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to questions from former servicemen and their families:

Q-Will the Veterans Administration exchange my 48-star American flag supplied after my husband's death five years ago? I would like a 50-star flag.

A-No. Exchange is not permitted. However, it is perfectly legal to use your 48-star flag.

Q-I am an insurance company official. How do I get from the VA an abstract of medical records on veterans who are applying for insurance?

A-VA Regulations state that a charge of $3.00 per request will be made to insurance companies for medical reports. Therefore, a check in this amount should accompany each such request to the VA.

Q-Is it true that most of the patients in Veterans Administration hospitals are over 65? If so, is the VA doing anything in the way of special programs to help them?

A-VA patients in the age bracket 65 to 74 far outnumber other age groups. Recognizing this, the VA has special programs for the rehabilitation of senior citizens. The VA Medical Research program with more than 7,000 different projects is aimed at improving the lot of the older veterans.
