3 TIMES FASTER and Flameless!

BUY A QUICK-RECOVERY ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

These comparing soap-dodgers won't like it a bit. But Mom and Dad will. Comparing soap-dodgers won't like it a bit. But Mom and Dad will. With this new type of electric water heater, they can give three times as many hot baths as before. And the cost per gallon of hot water is no more than with old type electric.

Safe—fast—flameless—you can install it anywhere... attic, basement, closet, under cabinets, or stairs. No flues or vents needed. It's safe as your electric light.

Triple your hot water supply soon. Call an electric appliance dealer, electrical contractor, or a nearby CP&L Office for facts and a FREE BOOKLET about the Quick Recovery Electric Water Heater. It's three times as fast and of course it's flameless.
