VA Pensions May Be Affected

Payment of Veterans Administration pensions to veterans or their dependents may be affected by the payment of increases in Civil Service annuities, J. D. DeRamus, Manager of the Winston-Salem VA Regional Office, said today.

These increases may raise the total income of the veteran or dependent concerned beyond the amount on which the VA originally based entitlement to present monthly payments.

All pensioners must promptly notify the VA of changes in income in order that timely adjustments in monthly payments may be made.

The season of living Proms is here! Decorated trees, lingering music, floating dreams - what other teenage affair is so enchanting and exciting.

To make this memorable night even more fun, invite the crowd over to your house afterwards. Refreshments needn't be elaborate. You'll hear the cheers when you serve tall, tinkling glasses of your own special V-8 drink. The tang of orange juice - the sparkle of club soda - the phenomenal flavor of V-8 Juice. Together they make a cooling combination that can't be beat. It really hits the spot after a long evening of dancing.

To fortify those male appetites (and the girls', too), have plenty of favorite snacks piled high for munching. Pretzels, potato chips, peanut butter, cheese twists - all go down well with your V-8 coolers.

What a wonderful way to end a perfect evening!

V-8 COOLERS

1 can (12 ounces) V-8
1/2 cup orange juice
1 bottle (7 ounces) club soda

Combine all ingredients. Serve over ice cubes. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

V-8 Juice is the surprise ingredient in a delicious new beverage. Taste for a minute in the blender and in has right for that needed after school "energy drink."

V-8 COOLERS

1 can (12 ounces) V-8
1/2 cup crushed ice
1/2 cup milk
1 can

In blender, combine all ingredients. Blend thoroughly. Makes 4 to 5 servings.
