IN THE GENERAL COUNTY COURT ORDER

NORTH CAROLINA
DUPLIN COUNTY

It appearing to the Court from the affidavit of Irvin T. Bell the plaintiff in the above entitled action that the defendant cannot after due diligence and search be found in the state of North Carolina; that a cause of action exists in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant for an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony, heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant on the grounds of continuous separation for more than two years next preceding the bringing of this action and filing of the complaint in the same and it further appearing from said affidavit that this is one of the cases provided for in the Statutes of North Carolina.

That said administrator reserves the right to object and refuse any bids made on any article of personal property when the same is, in his sole discretion, inadequate or insufficient.

This the 6th day of September, 1963.

William E. Craft, Administrator of the Estate of Robert E. Batts deceased.
