

Group Meets To Explore Possibilities Of Duplin-Sampson Industrial Education Center

Fifteen interested persons met Tuesday noon for luncheon at Fussell's Restaurant in Clinton to explore the possibilities of an Industrial Education Center for Duplin and Sampson Counties.

It was the unanimous expression of those attending the meeting that the matter should be explored in detail and that an expanded meeting should be held at a later date at which the civic educational and political leaders of the two counties should be invited to attend. In preparation for this meeting, it was agreed that representatives including the county commissioners of both counties and the civic leaders, should visit one or more Industrial Education Centers to learn first-hand about the facilities and the program offered. A steering committee is to make arrangements to charter a bus for the purpose of making visits to the Fayetteville and Goldsboro Centers. Dallas Herring of Rose Hill, Chairman of the State Board of Education, attended the meeting to explain provisions of the legislative act establishing such centers and to answer questions raised by those in attendance. Preston B. Ralford, Executive Director of the Duplin

County Industrial and Agricultural Council, presided at the meeting.

There were six representatives from Duplin County: C.W. Surratt of Rose Hill; Eugene Thompson of Warsaw; T.J. Baker of Wallace; Faison McGowen O.P. Johnson and P.B. Ralford of Kenansville. Nine persons attended from Sampson County: W. Brantley Sutton of Faison and T.S. Cornwell, Worth Gurkin, George S. Walston, W.D. Reid, J.S. Eaker, Jr., W.M. Johnson, Jr., J.T. Herring and E.C. Sike, all of Clinton.

Elderly Man Missing, Chinquapin Negro Held For Murder Of Brother, One Goes Free Another To Prison In Murder Trials

An argument between two brothers at Chinquapin early Saturday morning culminated in the death of one of them, when J. Arthur Whitley allegedly shot his brother to death with a .22 cal. pistol about 1 a.m. Saturday. Deputy Basden brought Whitley in and at a preliminary hearing Monday night, he was ordered held without privilege of bond, on the charge of murder for the next term of Criminal Superior Court to begin November 4.

He was seen Sunday morning about his home there, but has been missing since that time. The Rose Hill Rescue Squad, members of the Sheriff's Department and others have searched the woods around where he was last seen to no avail. Wednesday, Company "A" of the Warsaw National Guard was called out and an out-and-out search for him began at 2 p.m.

After deliberating 30 minutes, James Henry Robinson, of Rose Hill, was charged with murder in the shotgun death of Aaron Hill of Magnolia on August 4. The jury deliberated for 45 minutes and returned a verdict of second-degree murder. Judge Howard H. Hubbard of Clinton, presiding at this term of court in Kenansville, sentenced Robinson to a 2 to 5-year term in State Prison.

Scheduled for trial in last week's term was a murder charge against James Willis Wilson 31, of Warsaw, charged in the shotgun death of James Thomas Bryant 30, of Warsaw, on August 25, in Warsaw. Three other men are charged with assault and engaging in an affray in this incident which killed one and wounded five. However, this shooting spree was continued until the next term of court.

Congressman Henderson To Speak Poultry Jubilee Saturday

Plans are completed, the frying pan is ready, and Saturday is the big day in Rose Hill! Thousands are expected to munch on chicken, to enjoy the festivities and fun and to see first-hand eastern North Carolina's burgeoning poultry progress.

The frying pan, a huge steel monster, complete with handle, the largest in the world, fifteen feet across, 47 feet around and weighing in at two tons, is ready to fry all the chicken the folks can eat along with hush-puppies and slaw. The pan will be fired with gas and the chicken will come to you hot from this vast utensil. It's worth the trip to see the pan. Where else can you see such a pan? Or, so much fried chicken? Or, smell such an agreeable odor as the aroma of thousands of chickens frying in deep fat?

Congressman David Henderson will speak. Smiley O'Brien and his Bar 7 Crew will bring songs everyone loves to hear. Vocalists Miss Joyce Vicks and Thomas Hardy will be there, as will Clyde Mattox and his electric steel guitar.

At 7 p.m. there will be one of the best square dance exhibitions--western style--ever held in this area. Dance teams from Raleigh, Mt. Olive, Warsaw, Bentonsville and other cities will be here to show their best.

There will be free Bingo and free rides for the kiddies. At 10:00 a.m. the horseshoe tournament begins. Tournament will consist of ten highest total scores out of 50 shoes pitched. Winner receives a 9 1/2 inch cup and runner up, a 7 1/2 inch cup. The Ringers count 3 points within 6 inches of a strike 1 point and leaner shoe 1 point.

At 2 p.m. there will be a cake judging contest, with Mrs. Lois Britt and Mrs. May Spicer judges. The cakes will be judged on their general appearance, shape, size and icing. Cups will be given to winner and for 2nd, place. All ladies are urged to bake a cake and enter this contest, for details call Mrs. Sallie Blanchard, Mrs. Lois Britt or Leo Jones. The cakes will be donated to the Retarded Children Fund and sold to highest bidder.

There will be plenty of parking in the Marlowe Bostic Subdivision. Plants in Rose Hill will open their doors to visitors and tours will be conducted by guides. These tours will include Ramsey Mill, Raleigh Hatcheries, Atlantic Casket Company, Explorer Scouts, Ramsey Hatcheries, Poultry Diagnostic Laboratory and Rose Hill Poultry Corporation (processing plant). Tours will begin in the parking area and will pick up passengers free at any point along the route. This will give visitors an opportunity to view the fantastic poultry industry around Rose Hill which started a few years ago from scratch and has grown into an industry with an annual income of eighteen million dollars, marketing twenty-five million broilers a half million turkeys and seven million dozen eggs a year.
