TRIP TO WILLIAMSBURG
A group of children fourth trip to Williamsburg, Va. from the High School left Pink Hill at 9:15 Saturday morning for an educational trip to Williamsburg, Va. Directors of the tour were Mrs. H. H. Bullock, of Kinston and Mrs. Jack Perkins, a member of the Pink Hill School faculty. They chartered a Queen City Bus, from Fayetteville. Arriving in Williamsburg at 12:00 noon, they had lunch, and began a weekend of sight-seeing. Places of interest visited included the Governor's Mansion, the Capitol, the Pillage (all) where they were looked in (for fun) and attended a number of picture shows. Yorktown and Jamestown were also on the itinerary.

Although Williamsburg was packed with students, attending the homecoming football game, at William and Mary College the Pink Hill group had no trouble finding living quarters while there, because they had made reservations three weeks in advance. They were booked at the York Hotel.

At 7:45 P. M. Sunday, the group arrived home, tired, but extremely happy over the experience. These students, with eight from Grifton, took the tour-Bobbie Howard, Eleanor Hill, Douglas Hill, Pam Finney, Debbie Turner, Mary Turner, Rebecca Sheppard, Mil Burden, Susan Taylor, Debra Kennedy, Annette Simpson, Terry Ward, Mike Pickett, Charles Schimmel, Phillis Stroud, Martha Stroud, Butch Howard, Ronald Taylor, Dempsey Smith, Harvey Tyndall, Linda Howard, Anthony Quinn, Janice Noble, Tommy Miller, Gail Howard, Betty Carter, Martha Howard, Angela Howard, Rommie Earl Tyndall, Carmon Howard and Dany Herron.

Other adults making the trip were Mrs. Carrie Hines Weston, Mrs. Hazel Murphy and Mrs. Fannie Schimmel.
