

Moore-Bright Vows Are Spoken

On Sunday afternoon, September 22, at 4:30 p.m. at the Rose Hill Methodist Church, Miss Edna Earl Bright of Rose Hill became the bride of Edward Timothy Moore of Wallace, Rev. T. Fant Steele officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Elixson of Rose Hill, the bride is a graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School, and is employed as secretary by Gene Kelly, Justice of the Peace, in Wallace. Parents of the bride-groom are Mrs. Grice Moore and the late Mr. Jesse Moore of Wallace. He is a graduate of Atkinson High School, and serves with the N.C. National Guard of Wallace.

Mrs. W.M. Bryan was organist, and Jimmy Oreglia, was the soloist, he sang, "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," "Seal Us Oh Holy Spirit" and for the benediction, "The Wedding March."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of nylon chiffon tulle and imported silk taffeta. The billowing skirt was trimmed with tiny tufts of chiffon net. Re-embroidered alien con lace was applied at the neckline and on the front of the skirt. The bodice was styled with a smooth neckline of nylon chiffon and long sleeves tapering to calla points over the hands. Silk illusion fell from a miniature Queen's Crown of pearls and sequins. For her jewelry she wore her mother's pearls. The bride carried a white satin bible covered with lilies of the valley white satin and nylon tulle streamers. The bible was a present from her father. The bible was the background for an all white orchid.

Mrs. Jerry Giddings of Rose Hill was matron of honor, she wore a street length gown of bright yellow taffeta in a bouffant style. Her hat was a circlet covered in taffeta and topped with tulle veiling. She carried a cascade of yellow mums and bronze pon poms, showered with green nylon tulle and bronze satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were; Miss Ann Price, Miss Kay Brice, Miss Linda Grady, and Miss Barbara Elixson, sister of the bride. They wore gowns identical to the matron of honor and carried cascades with yellow mums and pon poms with yellow tulle and bronze streamers.

Flower girl was Miss Reba Jane Elixson, sister of the bride, who carried a white flower basket trimmed in white and yellow satin ribbons. Her basket was filled with white satin ribbons. Her dress was made of nylon chiffon over taffeta. The color was identical to those of the other attendants. She wore a yellow velvet ribbon in her hair.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Dennis Pope of Magnolia, Miss Linda Cockman of Wilmington cousin of the bride-groom; Miss Carolyn Giddens and Mrs. Lucy Stanley of Rose Hill. They wore pastel party dresses with matching accessories.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Elixson wore a sheath of blue silk over crepe with a v shaped neckline, matching flowered hat and accessories. The mother of the groom, Mrs. Moore, wore a sheath of blue crepe with scoop neckline, also matching flowered hat and accessories. Both mothers wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Alter boys were; David and James Elixson, brothers of the bride.

Best man was Billy W. Savage of Penderlea. Ushers were; William Giddons of Penderlea, Hershel Rivenbark of Watha, Jimmy Murry, and Jimmy Elixson, (brother of the bride) both of Rose Hill.

The church was beautifully decorated with Alter vases of white bridal mums, gladioli, palms and fern were entwined for the background on either side of the Chancel were three Candle-abras each consisting of seven burning tapers.

The couple spoke their vows before a white covered kneeling bench; pews were marked with sprays of white mums and ferns with white satin bows.

After the wedding trip the couple will reside in Ivanhoe.

The wedding was under the direction of Mrs. W.T. Blanchard and Mrs. C.W. Surratt Jr., of Rose Hill.

REHEARSAL PARTY

After the Moore-Bright rehearsal, Mrs. William Formyduvalle of Charleston S.C., Mrs. Wayne Rich, Mrs. Carlos Cockman and Miss Lila Moore entertained members of the wedding party and guests in the home of Mrs. Grace Moore.

The table was covered with a white lace cloth. Two, three branch candleabras with white burning tapers and an arrangement of yellow and white mums and greenery were used to carry out the bridal motif. A lovely white cake was on one end and a crystal punch bowl on the other.

Mrs. Formyduvalle served cake, and Miss Moore served lime sherbet punch. Nuts and mints were also served. Mrs. Cockman and Mrs. Rich assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Surratt Jr. and Robert, and Mrs. C.G. Peeler visited John Surratt student at U.N.C. Chapel Hill, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Herring and children visited Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Hood and family in Charlotte during the week-end. Mrs. Lula Herring returned home with them after a visit in Charlotte.

Mrs. Annie James spent a week-end in Burgaw with Mr. and Mrs. Pullen.

Tingley - Dall Wedding Solemnized

At the home of Mrs. Leslie D. Dall, Jr., October 5, at 1:30 a.m. Miss Martha Cooper Dall, daughter of Mrs. Leslie D. Dall, and the late Mr. Dall of Magnolia, became the bride of Mr. Egbert Fuller Tingley, son of Mrs. Franklin G. Tingley and the late Mr. Tingley of Hyattsville, Md.

Officiating at the ceremony, which was attended only by the members of the immediate families was the Rev. T. Fant Steele, pastor of the Rose Hill Methodist Church.

Attendants were Nieces of the bride; Misses Martha Louise, Susan Lee and Mary Elizabeth Dall, who were dressed in pink embroidered dresses with matching hats and veils. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and fern.

Mr. DeLeon Wells of Wallace, Uncle of the bride gave his niece in marriage. The bride wore a light blue silk and lace sheath dress with matching jacket, hat and shoes. Her bouquet was pompons centered with a pure white orchid.

Mr. Thomas Randolph Brooks of Hyattsville, Md. served as best man.

Immediately following the wedding the bridal party was entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Tiki room in Wallace. The breakfast was given by the bride's mother, Mrs. Leslie Dall.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore a green suit fur hat and skin accessories she lifted the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After a trip to Western N.C. and Tenn. the bridal couple will be at home in Hyattsville, Md.

WEDDING BREAKFAST

Immediately following the Dall-Tingley wedding on Saturday morning Oct. 5, the bridal party was entertained at the Tiki Room in Wallace, by the bride's mother, Mrs. L.D. Dall, Sr.

The bride's table was covered with a lovely arrangement of white mums, sprays of fern and mums centered the other tables.

The breakfast consisted of pineapple juice, ham and chicken supreme, creamed asparagus potatoes au gratin, tossed salad, rolls, coffee and banana cream delight.

CAKE CUTTING

On Friday evening, Oct. 4, Mrs. L.D. Dall Sr., entertained at a cake cutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Cooper Jr., in honor of her daughter Miss Martha Cooper Dall, and Mr. Egbert Tingley.

The guests were met at the front door by Mrs. L.D. Dall Jr., who introduced them to Miss Martha Cooper Dall bride elect, and Mr. Egbert Tingley; the guests were then introduced to Mrs. Robert Littin, daughter of the bride-groom and her husband, Mr. Robert Littin.

The table was covered with a silk cloth, topped with silk lace covering, and centered with a lovely arrangement of gladioli and a silver candleabra.

Mrs. L.D. Dall, Sr. poured punch from a silver punch bowl and Mrs. D.L. Wells Jr. served bridal cake. Mrs. J.C. Cooper, Jr. served coffee from the silver service on a side table.

The home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of white flowers and fern.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. L.D. Dall, Sr., Mrs. L.D. Dall Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Cooper Jr.

MISS DALL ENTERTAINED IN ROSE HILL

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 2, Miss Martha Dall, October bride-elect was entertained at the home of Mrs. Loney R. Lanier with Mrs. J.C. Cooper Jr., co-hostess.

Upon arrival Miss Dall presented a white corsage and the guests were invited into the den for refreshments.

The table was covered with a beige cloth and very tastefully decorated with an arrangement of grapes and ivy. A ceramic punch bowl and matching candle sticks were placed on the table.

Punch was served by Mrs. L.D. Dall Jr., and the guest served themselves, from the assortment of nuts, cookies, and cheese straws.

The guests returned to the living room where Miss Dall was presented a surprise "Lingerie Shower"

MISS DALL ENTERTAINED IN WALLACE

On Thursday morning, Mrs. W.M. Bryan, Mrs. W.D. Short and Mrs. R.A. Bostic, entertained Miss Martha Cooper-Dall, at a Coca Cola party, at the home of Mrs. Bostic in Wallace.

The guests were invited into the beautifully decorated dining room, where Cokes, nuts, party sandwiches, mints and ladyfingers were served. A delightful social hour followed in the living room, where the hostess presented Miss Dall, silver salt and pepper shakers.

PTA MEETS

The Rose Hill Elementary school held its regular P.T.A. meeting, Monday night Oct. 14., with Mr. Leo Jones President, Presiding.

Mr. W.R. Teachey and William Elmore's combined 7th grades gave the devotional.

A program on school drop out was presented by Mrs. Lee Souder and Mr. Billy Murphy, Duplin County Truant officers. A film "When I'm old enough-good-bye," was shown, which would certainly discourage youth from thinking of leaving school before graduation.

The committee for the Halloween program, this year was appointed.

The new teachers and truant officers were introduced to the audience.

MUSIC CLUB MEETS

The Rose Hill Music Club met on Tuesday night at 8:00 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Lillie Bell Brummett with Mrs. Horace Fussell, co-hostess.

After a short business session, Mrs. W.M. Bryan and Mrs. Charles Hall, gave the program. The topic of the program was "Music in the Home" Miss Sharon Harrell, a guest of the evening, and Mrs. Bryan played a duet, "Songs my mother taught me" and Mrs. Hall sang "Rock a bye baby."

The theme of the meeting was to emphasize the importance of the proper music in the home from infancy through the school years. Miss Harrell presented music in simplified form and then in the original composition, to show the contrast. After this a quiz on songs in the home was conducted.

The hostesses served delicious apple-dapple cake, topped with whipped cream and coffee, to the 8 members and 2 visitors present.
