Mrs. Jule Thomas Matthews
Miss Mary Linda Kennedy
Weds Jule Thomas Matthews

Miss Mary Linda Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kennedy of Beulaville, became the bride of Jule Thomas Matthews, son of Mr. Mack Matthews and the late Mr. Matthews of Beulaville, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Hallsville Presbyterian Church.

The church was decorated with burning tapers, palms and a fan shaped arrangement of white gladiolus, mums, and snapdragons.

Rev. Clement A. Sydnor III, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. Harold T. Smith.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Katie Sue Grady of Rockingham, pianist, and Miss Barbara Jean Miller of Washington, cousin of the bride. Soloist, Miss Miller, sang, "Because," "Whither Thou Goest" and the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of imported silk and chantilly lace. The bodice was styled with a sabrina neckline trimmed with pearls and sleeves tapering to calla points. The full skirt, fashioned with handmade roses and a tier of chantilly lace, extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a Queen's crown of pearls. She carried a Bible covered with lace, topped with an orchid and a cascade of mums.

Miss Grace Kennedy, sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a dress of royal blue satin styled with a scooped neckline, sleeves to the elbow and belled shape skirt. She wore a headpiece of self-fabric rosettes with a face veil. Her bouquet was a long white stem rose.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sue Kennedy sister of the bride, and Miss Irma Matthews of Cuthbert, Ga., sister of the bridegroom. They wore dresses, headpieces, and carried flowers like that of the honor attendant.

Best man was Harold Matthews of Raleigh, half-brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were at 5639 Fayetteville Rd, Raleigh.

CAKE CUTTING

Following the wedding rehearsal Friday evening, Mrs. LeRoy Kennedy entertained the wedding party and close friends at a cake cutting at her home.

The bridal colors of pink and white were most attractively carried out. The bridal table was covered with a white lace cloth over pink, and centered with an arrangement of white mums and snapdragons. Balanced on each side were silver candelabras holding burning white tapers.

The wedding cake, decorated in white and sprinkled with white rose buds, was topped with a miniature bride and groom. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice, Mrs. Ralph Miller finished cutting the cake from one end of the table. Mrs. Maurice James poured punch from a crystal punch bowl from the opposite end while the hostesses served nuts and mints.

Upon arrival, the bride was presented a corsage of white carnations.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Miss Mary Linda Kennedy and Mr. Jule Thomas Matthews, bride and groom-to-be, were honored with a miscellaneous shower on Saturday Feb. 1 at 7:30 in the Beulaville Masonic Lodge Hall. The gifts were attractively arranged on a table covered with a white cloth. After games were played, they opened the many useful gifts.

Miss Grace Kennedy served punch from a crystal bowl and Miss Sue Kennedy served bridal cakes. Mints and nuts were also served. The table was covered with a white lace cloth over green. The center piece was composed of white flowers with single burning candles.

IN HOSPITAL
