ROOTY BRANCH W A MONTHLY MEETING

"The new W. A. Emblem Points To Kingdom Building" was the Title of the program presented when the Womens Auxiliary of Rooty Branch Church met in the home of Mrs. Leslie Bell Friday.

Last spring in the N. C. State Auxiliary Convention a new emblem was adopted as the official emblem of the Womens Auxiliary. The Womens Auxiliary Colors are silver, royal blue, and Carolina Blue. It was pointed out that the emblem is a challenge to greater giving, greater service, and greater devotion.

Mrs. Cyrus Rhodes and Mrs. E. J. Summerlin were elected delegates to represent the Auxiliary at the State Convention to be held at the Beulaville Free Will Baptist church in March.

The hostesses Mrs. Andy W. Ivey and Mrs. Bell assisted by Janice Bell served coffee and cherry pie topped with ice cream to 15 members during the social hour.

SUMMERLIN HD CLUB

"Furnishing your Home on a Shoestring" was the title of a demonstration given by Mrs. Perry Grady House Furnishing Leader at the February meeting of the Summerlin's Home Demonstration club, held at the home of Mrs. Elbert Whitman Thursday.

When a home or apartment is being furnished the amount of money to be spent should be considered. The most essential peices of furniture and appliances should be selected with a definite color plan in mind, so that other items may be purchased later to harmonize.

Mrs. Carl Ivey gave a report on education and the Southeastern District meeting held in Cumberland County. Mrs. D. L. Cherry reported on health and suggested that each member get a chest X-ray and Physical examination. There were several other projects planned for the club to participate in during the year.

Mrs. Eddie Goodman was in charge of the devotional and Mrs. E. J. Summerlin led the recreation period.

The hostess served cherry pie-a-la-mode to 8 members and one visitor.
