NEW HOPE BAPTISTS ENTER ACHIEVEMENT MINISTRY

The New Hope Baptist Mission of Beulaville has entered the 1964 North Carolina Baptist Church Achievement Ministry. Pastor Gerald M. Davis said this week.

Sponsored by the Church Development Department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, the ministry is designed to stimulate growth and development in church work. Outstanding achievements by pastors and churches in the areas of church, community and world improvements are recognized.

Each church sets up goals for achievement in ten areas:

(1) Worship, (2) Evangelism, (3) Organization and Administration, (4) Education and Training, (5) Pastoral Ministry, (6) Fellowship, (7) Buildings, Equipment and Supplies, (8) Christian Stewardship of Money, (9) Community Relationships and (10) Missionary Outreach and Expansion. Many of the participating churches will present an illustrated book of their progress to the annual meetings of their associations.

Many churches in North Carolina entered this ministry last year for the first time. These churches look forward to further growth and development in the above mentioned areas of improvement as they continue to participate in this ministry. The churches achieving outstanding progress are now scheduled to be recognized at the Baptist State Convention at its annual meeting at Greensboro, November 10-12.

The Church Achievement Committee from New Hope Baptist Mission consists of Pastor, Gerald M. Davis, chairman, James Batchelor, Walter Kennedy, Jerry Jarman, and Mrs. Odell Thompson.

Ernest C. Upchurch, Secretary of the Church Development Department of the Baptist State Convention, Raleigh North Carolina is in charge of this ministry. "The enlistment of a church's membership in active service, growth and development is the ministry's primary aim and value," Mr. Upchurch stated.
