PRESBYTERIANS PLAN WEEK OF SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT

The week preceding Easter known as "Holy Week" has been planned for "Week of Spiritual Enrichment" by the Presbyterian Church with special services conducted by the Reverend Robert Burns, III of Mount Olive.

The topics of the sermons which he will bring will be March 22—"The King Cometh"; Mar. 23—"The Withered Tree"; March 24—"An Inescapable Question"; and March 25—"It is Finished". These special services will be from Sunday through Wednesday at 8:00 p. m.

On Thursday, March 26, the Warsaw Methodist Church and the Warsaw Presbyterian Church will hold a Communion Service in the Presbyterian Church at 8:00 p. m. It was on the night He was betrayed and the day before His crucifixion that Jesus established this Sacrament.

Special services will also be held on Friday, March 27th, from 12:00 Noon until 3:00 p. m. "The Words from the Cross" will be the special topic.

WARSAW 4-H MEETS

The Warsaw 4-H Club met Tuesday night of last week at the Penny Branch Club House at 7:30 p. m.

L. E. Stroud, president, called the meeting to order, and Jean Jones led the pledges. Gail Costin gave the devotion with Kathryn Costin reading the minutes of the last meeting and calling the roll. There were 17 members present and three leaders.

During the business meeting, Mrs. E. C. Wray announced that the Warsaw and Carlton's 4-H Clubs had raised $208.00 entitled the two clubs to have a party. (The members of both clubs are to be commended for their excellent performance and efficiency during the campaign for they more than trip the quota set.) The party was planned for Saturday night.

William Costin followed with a brief report on his trip to Washington, D. C. during which time he presented the club with a gavel he had bought them as a gift.

Bill Costin, Jr. and Charlotte Howard presented the program. They spoke on "How to Plant Trees" and "How to Plant Shrubbery" respectively.

SCOUTS TAKE TRIP

By Pat Matthis

Troop 20 of Warsaw took off last Friday for a Camporee at Tuscarora with plans to reconstruct in Scout work several events which took place during the American Revolution in keeping with the American heritage.

The scouts were divided into two groups - the British and American troops. As each group received grades and the Scouts won Blue Ribbons, the outcome of the Revolution was determined; however, a truce was met for the only event staged was "Washington Crossing the Delaware" for it rained the entire weekend. The only thing missing was ice! The scouts were graced and presented ribbons on other activities.

On Sun. morning Scouts who were not already rained out of their tents awoke with nearly everything not tied down either floating away or soaked. It is understood that one Scout saw someone's shoe floating by his tent. Scoutmaster L. F. McCullen had this to say, "Although all advance plans had to be dropped, the young campers learned from bitter experience how to pitch tents and protect themselves during foul weather. It is one camping trip they will not soon forget."

Another Scout said that he believed Saturday night camping was haxed!

All-in-all, the trip was exciting but wet and everyone was glad to get home so they could dry out!

METHODIST CIRCLES

Circles No. Three met in the home of Mrs. Hubert West with nine members present. Mrs. A. M. Benton, Chairman, presided during the business meeting. Mrs. Job Wahab presented the program on the "Easter Story". During the social hour the hostess served jello topped with whipped cream, chocolate cake

Announce Engagement

Miss Linda Ruth Hurst whose engagement to Robert Eugene Caison is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Marcus Hurst of Warsaw, North Carolina.

Mr. Caison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Robert Caison of Kenansville, North Carolina.

A July 3 wedding is planned.

and coffee.

Mrs. Q. J. Sutton was hostess to Circle No. Four which met Monday evening in her home. Mrs. C. C. Rouse, Chairman, presided over the meeting and Mrs. Sutton gave a most interesting program.

At the conclusion of the program, the hostess served spiced tea, jelly beans, chicken salad sandwiches, congealed salad with cottage cheese to the seven members present.

Circle No. 6 met in the home of Mrs. D. J. Middleton with eight members present Tuesday evening at five o'clock. Mrs. Charles Carroll gave the devotion and Mrs. Middleton presented the program on "Methodist Women."

Following the program, the members adjourned to the Country Squire where they had dinner at six o'clock.

MRS. SMITH HONORED

Mrs. G. W. Smith, nee Mary Susan Baars, was honored with a bridal shower Thursday evening from seven until nine in the Educational Building of the Presbyterian Church. Hostesses for the occasion were Misses Harriet O'Leary, Mary Alice Thomas of Magnolia, Holly Payne of Kenansville, and Miss Vickie Jones of Warsaw, Mesdames Edgar PoPlock, J. W. Straughan, Marvin Sutton and Mrs. Larry McCullen, all Warsaw.

Upon arrival of the honoree, a lovely white carnation corsage was presented by the hostesses. Each side of the entrance door was marked with silver wedding bells tied with pink ribbons and lovely arrangements of camellias and other spring flowers were used in decorating. Miss Mary Alice Thomas presided over the Brides' register.

The refreshment tables was thrown with a pink cloth overlaid with a net skirt of pink and draped with pink ribbons and camellias. An elegant arrangement of mixed spring flowers grace the center of the table flanked by pink burning tapers. Mrs. Robert Frederick, aunt of the honoree, served punch and Mrs. James Farmer, also aunt of the honoree, served individual bridal cakes. Nuts and mints were served buffet. Mrs. Emmons Garner was hostess at large.

The hostesses presented Mrs. Smith a complete set of stainless steel cookware. A lovely array of gifts were presented by the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith reside in Seven Springs.

MRS. J. T. GRESHAM ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. T. Gresham entertained the members of her bridge luncheon club with a luncheon at the Country Squire Thursday from eleven until two o'clock. Upon the arrival of the guests, Mrs. Gresham served coffee and soft drinks. For her menu, Mrs. Gresham chose pot roast, green salad, mixed vegetables, cherry cobbler and coffee.

At the conclusion of bridge, Mrs. Gresham presented Mrs. Fes Mitchner and Mrs. Bill Sheffield with memo pads for high and second high scorers respectively. Mrs. Avon Sharpe received eperges for consolation prize.

Other members enjoying the party were Mesdames Ed Strickland, Ed Sheffield, Douglass Townsend, Allan Draughan, Jr., and J. H. Hines.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

We the women of the Presbyterian Church Warsaw, North Carolina, wish to pay a tribute of love, and respect to one of our oldest and most devoted members, Mrs. (Stephen Edward) Plina Stevens Hines, who passed from our midst into her Heavenly Home on January 27, 1964. She was the daughter of Martha Best and Henry L. Stevens of Sampson County and a beloved charter member of the James Kenan Chapter U. D. C.

We have sustained a loss, but the world into which she has gone has been made more beautiful. A gentle soul, a gracious woman, given to hospitality and warmth that drew people of all ages. Her serenity bespoke love, and unspoken faith, which she translated into action with many deeds of kindness.

She was a lady of the old school, charming, beautiful and gracious, whose castle and field of operations, was her home. She witnessed to her Lord in a life of love, and service to her church, her community, family and friends.

The life of a loved one does not end. It simply goes on into a fuller life, the victory, the joy, the gain of everlasting life.

We ask that a copy of this Memorial be sent to the family, published in the Christian Observer, and incorporated into our records.

With Our Boys

Sergeant Gavin, a team leader in Company B, 2d Battalion of the divisions 503d Infantry on Oknawa, was instructed in techniques of combat and survival, day and night navigation and the employment of special equipment all jungle oriented. He was also taught to utilize the quick hit and run tactics of the guerrilla fighter, a type of mobile warfare vital to a paratrooper's effectiveness in both conventional and unconventional warfare.

The sergeant entered the Army in April 1959.

Sergeant Gavin, whose parents live in Warsaw, attended Denmark Area Trade School in Denmark S.C.

THANK YOU NOTE

I would like to thank everyone for cards, flowers, visits and many other acts of kindness shown me during my recent stay in the hospital. Each one brought much happiness which will be long remembered.

Mrs. Juanita Houston, PD.
