EASTERN STAR MET
The annual election of Officers was held on last Tuesday night when Kenansville Chapter No. 215, Order of the Eastern Star met in the Lodge Hall at 7:30 for its bi-monthly. The Worthy Matron, Florence Brown appointed A. C. Holland assisted by Mrs. Ruby G. Newton and Mrs. Sally B. Tyndall as Tellers for the occasion. The following officers for the ensuing year were chosen by ballot; Mrs. Emma S. Lockamy, Worthy Matron; I. N. Bowden, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Margaret G. Johnson, Associate Matron; J. B. Stroud, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Virginia D. Holland, Secretary; Mrs. Louise K. Boney, Treasurer; Mrs. Lucille S. Bowden, Conductress and Mrs. Dora W. Evans, Associate Conductress.

These officers along with the ten appointive officers to be named by the incoming worthy matron will be duly installed at the next stated meeting of this chapter which will be in the form of a closed ceremony on March the 24th, 1964 at 7:30. Visiting Stars are always welcomed.

RESUSCITATION IN KENANSVILLE
The Kenansville Boy Scouts of America, Troop No. 50, are the first ones to learn mouth-to-mouth resuscitation with the new training aid of the Duplin County Civil Defense Agency. Their instructor was Dr. William A. Pate of Beulaville. This doll was purchased by donations and the help of Civil Defense Matching Funds.

These boys are not the first ones to learn this method of artificial respiration but they are the first ones to use the new equipment. A few weeks ago Dr. Pate also taught approximately 400 people this method with a borrowed training "doll."

The following boys and parents are thrilled with the ability have learned and feel confident that they may some day be able to save someone's life.

List Follows:
Dr. W. A. Pate of Beulaville, Marvin Norris, Vernon H. Reynolds, Earl Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hines, Harold Dunn, John Hall, Bill Helton, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kornegay and Ronald Gene Dunn,

tion in Evangelism and Mrs. Billy Stephens was moderator of the Bible Study and the "Individual Psalms of Lament." A social hour followed the meeting during which time the hostess served pineapple cocoanut cake and iced drinks

UNTREATED TREATED

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING... In this case, it lies in the broad smile worn by Harry Broermann of Tarkio, Missouri. The well-developed root system on the right grew in aldrin-treated soil... paid off in a 20% greater yield than corn grown in adjacent untreated soil.
