Rose Hill Jaycees Variety Show
The Rose Hill Jaycees plan to hold a Variety Show Friday Night, April 3rd in the Rose Hill Elementary School, says Mr. Leo Jones, chairman project.
Performers from throughout the area will be asked to take part in the show. Many have already promised to make an appearance. Mr. George Turner and son from Potter's Hill will be on hand to do some old fashioned banjo picking and singing. Mr. Donald Abernathy, renowned local artist of the "Folk Song" field, will bring along his "Uke" and give voice to some favorite folk songs. Leo Jones will try to revive the "Rose Hill Combo" for the show, and will also do some numbers himself. Plans are under way to secure "Van Johnson and his group" of singers for the show.
Leo Jones, Jaycee project chairman, says "A first class show, requires a first class master of ceremonies and we have just that in Mr. Del Strickland of WLSE Radio in Wallace." Mr. Strickland has long been associated with show business and is a good musician and singer himself.
The Rose Hill Jaycees urge anyone who can perform in any fashion; sing, dance, or comedy to contact, Leo Jones, Keith
