

Health Kings & Queens Named At Parade of "Health And Talent"

(Reading Left to right) Junior Health King, Keith Westbrook; Junior Health Queen, Linda Smith; Runner-up King, Bill Costin, Jr.; Runner up Queen, Sarah Lynn Williams. The King and Queen were crowned at the 4-H Annual Health and Talent parade held on last Friday night in Kenansville.

Senior 4-H King and Queen who were crowned on Friday night at the annual program are Anna Lee Hawes and Ray Roberts, Jr. They will reign as Duplin County 4-H King and Queen for the coming year.

On a stage which was decorated as a garden lighted with Japanese lanterns, 4-H Health Kings and Queens paraded before a packed audience. Talent from the various 4-H Clubs of the county were performed with much skill and enthusiasm. Master of ceremonies, Leon Stone of radio station WLSE of Wallace, introduced Junior and senior kings and queens, and all of the talent performers. The "Beetles" were well represented in Kenansville on Friday evening when the talent program was held at the Kenansville Elementary School. Talents varied from piano playing to pantomimes, dances, skits, solos, and recitations. Much talent was displayed, and much interest was shown by the participants. Talent winners were announced by Marion Griffin, assistant county agent, and blue ribbon winners were: 1st place Gail Swinson, Stanford Club Second, Gail Long; Third, Linda Dianne Smith, Smiths Club; Fourth, Allan Johnson; Fifth, Barbara Whitfield. Dr. E. L. Boyette of Chinquapin announced the Junior and Senior Health Kings and Queens and the runners-up as follows: Queen, Junior runner-up, Sarah Lynn Williams; King Jr. runner-up, Bill Costin, Jr.

Junior Health Queen and King, Linda Smith and Keith Westbrook. Sr. Queen and King runners-up were Beverly Grady and ated in the contest. Judgment is based on the amount of work the boys and girls have successfully completed on their health projects during the year.

Anthony Westbrook. Senior Queen and King, Anna Lee Hawes and Ray Roberts, Jr. 31 Queens and Kings partici-

Outlaw's Bridge

Mrs. J. H. Parker, Cor. PERSONALS Mrs. Lottie Berger and Miss Rachel Outlaw will be hostess for the A. U. W. Saturday May 2nd at 3:00 p. m. All members urged to be present. Mesdames Remus Creel, Katie Outlaw and Lessie Horton were among Home Demonstration Club members to attend the 27th district meeting in Kenan's Stadium Tuesday April 21st. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Mitchell of Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. George Wadsworth of Grantham visited Mrs. Mack D. Outlaw Sunday. Plans are now underway for Home Coming and Mother's Day programs Sunday May 10th. Let's not forget bookmobile at the parsonage on Friday May 8th. at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Guy Smith of Hampton was a guest of Mrs. Ben Frank Outlaw Sunday. Mrs. Bowen of Goldsboro; Mrs. Rivenbark of Florida and Miss Verine Maxwell of Raleigh were visitors with Miss Jennie Maxwell Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nichols and son Nicky of Wilson visited Miss Rachel Outlaw and family Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. James Parker and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Parker in Mt. Olive Sunday afternoon. Farmers are busy transplanting tobacco now. The Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. J. Henry Parker for the April meeting Mrs. Remus Creel pres. presided and called the club to order opening song "Morning Comes Early" The hostess led the demonstration. Program for afternoon presented by the Arts and Crafts and House furnishing leader Mrs. Alton Powell who presented an interesting program on flower arrangement for the home also proper use for containers for flowers. A short business session was held with Mrs. R. D. Simmons as sec. Announcements of the 27th district meeting to be held in the Kenan Stadium in Kenansville. It was decided to have "a take home party" as part of the program for the May meeting. club Collect was used as closing prayer, the club adjourned. During the social hour refreshment were served to the members and visitors present.

FRIENDSHIP News

The Friendship Circle met on Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Viola Sloan. Mrs. Morris Kornegay opened the meeting and Mrs. Mark Langston read the report of the secretary. Mrs. Ralph Veach gave the Bible studies. Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Lucille Woodward served punch, apple pie, ice cream and nuts to the 11 members present. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Langston of Rocky Mount spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Langston and boys.

Deaths

MRS. NINA M. GARNER WARSAW — Mrs. Nina M. Garner, 81, died Monday. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at First Baptist Church with the Rev. D. E. Parkerson officiating. Burial was in Creedmoor Cemetery at Creedmoor. Survivors include her husband, C. V. Garner; one son Wilbur Garner of Warsaw; one daughter, Mrs. Bill Peterson of Mount Olive; one brother, C. R. Mangum of Creedmoor; two sisters, Mrs. Henry Jones and Mrs. Clyde Hester, both of Creedmoor; and three grandchildren.

FATE GURGANIOUS WALLACE — Fate Gurganious, 47, a farmer of Rt. 1; Wallace — Mrs. Adelle Watson of Wilmington visited several days with her mother, Mrs. Emma Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Swinson. Mrs. Charles Grady, Jr. of Kenansville, Mrs. Dwight Hill and Mike and Dwight Jr. and Mrs. Lewis Martin of Mt. Olive visited Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Pate on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grady of Pink Hill visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grady on Thursday. Mrs. Dallas Weaver of Kenansville spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Outlaw. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Swinson fished at Topsail Beach on Thursday. Friends of Miss Mary Miller are sorry to hear she is a patient in Duplin General Hospital.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Pridden and Mack were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Matthews, Shirley and Larry of Turkey, On Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Royals, Kathy and Carson of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Matthews and children of Warsaw. Mr. Jessie Brock of Kinston and Mrs. Annie Brock of Warsaw visited Mr. and Mrs. Odell Brock and children on Thursday. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones and boys on Saturday were AlC and Mrs. Louis Jones, Beth and Timmie of Goldsboro and Wayne King of Faison. On Sunday evening, Mr. Johnnie Jones and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howard and children of Pink Hill also Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Millard of Faison. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whaley and children of Kenansville, also Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wallace, Angela and Danny of Albertson visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whaley Alice and Lottie on Sunday. Visitors on Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cavenaugh, Robin and Ricky of Whiteville. Mr. and Mrs. Glenwood Sanderson visited Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Powell of Portsmouth, Virginia over the weekend. Pvt. Johnnie Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Smith left for his base in Louisiana.

Five Inducted For April

The following named registrants were inducted from Duplin County in April 1964: Douglas MacArthur Hill Rt. 1, Mt. Olive, N. C. Jack Gardner, Jr. Warsaw, N. C. Jimmy Lee Crumpler Bowden, N. C. Weaver Ward Baker Rt. 2, Pink Hill, N. C. Steven Moore Warsaw, N. C. "The Induction Call for May 1964 is for 2 men to be delivered on 26 May 1964. There will be no registrants sent for physical examination in May", stated Mrs. Margaret Oakley, Clerk Local Board No. 31.

A mother is the strongest educator either for or against crime. - Mary Baker Eddy

Simply having children does not make mothers. - John A. Shedd

MRS. KATIE V. GRADY ALBERTSON - Funeral services for Mrs. Katie V. Grady 85, who died Wednesday, were held Friday at 4 p. m. at Howard and Carter Funeral Chapel, The Rev. Donald McMillan of Outlaws Bridge, assisted by the Rev. James W. Brown, Presbyterian minister of Jacksonville, officiated. Burial was in the Grady family cemetery near the home. She was a member of the Universalist Church at Outlaw Bridge and served as postmistress at Albertson for ten years. She is survived by two sons, Paul A. with who she made her home and Charles W. Grady of Live Oak, Fla.; three daughters, Mrs. D. G. Simmons of Albertson, Mrs. Ellen G. Spence of Kinston, and Mrs. Faison Smith of Albertson; and 13 grandchildren.

MRS. NANCY ALBERTSON Beulaville-- Funeral services for Mrs. Nancy Zobe Albertson, 81, who died Thursday, were held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the home with Elder Lonnie Young officiating. Burial was in the Albertson family cemetery near the home. Survivors include four sons, James, Gardner, LeRoy and Orlando Albertson, all of Beulaville; six daughters, Mrs. Tessie Norris, M.s. Leona Smith, Mrs. Lillie Lanier, Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Mrs. Virginia Bostic, all of Beulaville and Mrs. Edna Batchelor of Chinquapin; one brother, Liston Lanier of Chinquapin; one sister Mrs. Alma Batchelor of Beulaville; and 34 grandchildren.

RUSSELL FARMER MOUNT OLIVE - Funeral services for Russell Farmer, 73, of Mount Olive, Rt. 1, who died Wednesday, were held Friday at 3 p. m. at the home. The Rev. Milton Boone, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Herman Grubbs, pastor of North East Free Will Baptist Church. Burial was in the Farmer family cemetery near the home. Surviving are his wife, the former Winnie Jones; one son, Johnny C. Jones of Raleigh; two daughters, Mrs. Jim Jackson of Mount Olive, Rt. 1, and Mrs. Keith Waller of Mt. Olive, Rt. 3; one brother, Patrick Farmer of Mount Olive; and seven grandchildren. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

RUFUS V. DAVIS Beulaville--Rufus Vernon Davis, 86, died Saturday. Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 3 p. m. in the home of the Rev. B. D. Butler. Burial was in Golden Grove Cemetery in Kenansville. Surviving are his wife, the former Victoria Bostic; and several nieces and nephews.

WILL CARTER Mt. Olive--Funeral services for Will Carter, 77, who died Friday at Kenansville were held Sunday at 3 p. m. in Tyndall Funeral Home. Burial was in Maplewood Cemetery. Surviving are his wife, the former Callie Pate of Duplin County; one son, Wilbert of Mount Olive; and two grandchildren.

Cure Tobacco

...this modern, fast economical way!

YEARS OF ENGINEERING RESEARCH HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THE MAKING OF THE NEW FUEL CHIEF TOBACCO CURER AN OUTSTANDING AUTOMATIC CURING AID

How Much Does Your Fuel Cost To Cure Tobacco?
Below Is Listed Some Facts & Figures

	Curing Costs in the Test		Summary of Six Cures
	Gas Barn	Oil Barn	Gas Barn	Oil Barn
Fuel consumed	1,675 gallons propane	1,174 gallons No. 2 fuel oil	Number sticks of tobacco	2,959
Price per gallon	15 cents	14.8 cents	Average curing time (hours)	141
Fuel cost	$251.25	$173.75	Average fuel consumption (gallons per cure)	279
Electricity	115 kw.-hrs.	$2.18	Total market weight	6,856
Electricity cost		$2.18	Average sale price	$66
Total curing cost	$251.25	$175.93	Total sale receipts	$4,541
				$4,605

Above Figures Reprinted From The Progressive Farmer February 1964 Issue.

Total Cost of Fuel Chief Cure Oil For 20 by 20 Barn on 16 by 20 Barn $287.50 - For More Information Concerning Curers Contact:

Mack Oil Co.

Fall Billing on Curers

Phone 293-4328 Warsaw, N. C.

HOW TO

Make Mother Happy

From Our Point of View...

Gayla

IS YOUR BIGGEST SHOE VALUE!

Sizes That Fit... Fashion That's Right

$9.99

CHECK THESE OUTSTANDING FEATURES:

- Smartly grained calf* that's as soft as it is luscious
- Cushioned arch pad for comfort where it really counts
- Cushioned foam insole that whispers softness in every step
- Lighter, more flexible outersole that is long-wearing
- Walkable mid heel... broader, more comfortable
- Fashionable square toe
- Combination last that hugs the heel and frees the toe for greater comfort
- Best of all, a price that's so easy to pay!

*refers to upper part of shoe

Powell's SHOES

101 WEST MAIN ST. CLINTON