

Science Fair Huge Success At JK

An Open House and Science Fair was held at the James Kenan High School on Friday night. Teachers cordially greeted parents, guardians, students, and friends and served them punch and cookies which the Home Economics girls had prepared. Many of the guests stayed longer to socialize and comment on the projects.

The teachers agreed that the fair was enjoyable. Many thought that these were the best projects yet. Winners of Blue Ribbons were

ITEM: Girls are more poorly fed than boys, reports the U.S. Department of Agriculture. A study made in the Western United States shows that 6 out of 10 girls have poor diets, but only 4 out of every 10 boys get less than two-thirds of the nutrients recommended by the National Research Council.

BLUE RIBBON WINNER in the Physics Department at James Kenan High School was the radio made by Everet Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Phillips.

BLUE RIBBON WINNER in the General Science Field was an exhibit on Space Travel which was done by Bill Smith.

BLUE RIBBON WINNER in Biology was the exhibit done by Elaine Scott of Warsaw, RFD.

ON THE MANIKIN is a spring outfit made by Theresa Whitman, a sophomore. Approximately 70 dresses were on display in the Home Economics Department including woolen suits. Also on display were many items in the Arts and Crafts work such as smocked pillows, hats and many other beautiful items.

YOUR SAVINGS BOND QUIZ

Question: Is it necessary to keep Savings Bonds in a safe deposit box?

Answer: You certainly should keep Savings Bonds in a safe place, and a safety deposit box is ideal. If, despite your precautions, your bonds should be lost or destroyed, the Treasury will replace them. For this reason it is well to keep a list of your bonds, separate from the bonds themselves.

Question: Recently I found two partially filled albums of Savings Stamps my children bought when they were in school. Are these worth anything?

Answer: They certainly are; in fact, every cent paid for them. By adding the difference between their value and $18.75, you can get a $25 Series E Bond at your bank. Or, if you simply want cash, the stamps can be redeemed at

Question: I own a $1,000 Series E Savings Bond and need some of this money in cash. Is there any way this can be done?

Answer: Yes. Any Series E Bond of a denomination greater than $25 maturity value can be redeemed in part with the remainder being reissued bearing the original issue date. However, the amount bond or multiple thereof. For example, you could obtain a $500 bond, plus the current redemption value - in cash - of a $500 bond.
