Heavy Vote Expected Saturday

FAIREST OF THE FAIR - Resplendent in their dress blue uniforms, Marines of the 2d Marine Division Band pause for a pose beneath the Unisphere at the New York World's Fair. The occasion was a special salute to Armed Forces Day at the Fair May 17, at which the band played three concerts. The 70-man band, based at Camp Lejeune, N. C., is led by their Drum Major, Gunnery Sergeant J. E. Rippard of Baltimore, Md. (Photographed by S-Sgt. C. Chance, USMC.)

As the final countdown begins before Saturday's primary voting, many astute political observers think there are strong indications that a runoff battle will be necessary to pick the party's nominee in many Duplin and State contests.

If any one candidate should receive more than half the total vote cast a runoff would not be necessary. Necessary runoffs would be on Saturday, June 27.

J. M. Smith of Chinquapin, chairman of the Duplin County Board of Elections, says that over 600 new voters have registered in the county for the primary on Saturday, 250 new names have been added in Warsaw, 92 in Rose Hill and 125 in Wallace. Two years ago, Warsaw voted 1,079 and Wallace 1,180. Warsaw is expected to take the No. 1 spot this year from Wallace because of the interest there in the commissioner race. The county is expected to vote more than 8,000.

Politics is really bustling in the commissioner's race in Dist. 1. Voters in Warsaw, Faison, Bowden and Calypso are expected to go to the polls in large numbers to cast their ballots in the hotly contested county commissioner race in that district. Six men are seeking the post, Joe Q. Sutton, J. Ed Strickland, Davis Y. Hollingsworth and Richard Hussey Blackburn, all of Warsaw; Nick Kalmer of Route 2, Faison, and W. A. "Bill" Bartlett of Bowden. It would be difficult for any one of the six to garner more than half of the vote cast to ward off a second primary in this district. Lott Kornegay, who had represented this district, did not offer for re-election.

Things are fever hot in Rose Hill in another commissioner race. Rose Hill has not had a seat on the county board in a hundred years, and this time has two candidates, J. A. "Albert" Pope and W. H. "Bill" Fussell. The incumbent J. B. Stroud of Route 1, Magnolia, is also opposed by Paul Ed Dail of Route 1, Kenansville. There is a spirited contest in this Dist. 1, composed of Rose Hill, Kenansville and Magnolia, between the four contestants. Two years ago, Rose Hill voted 611; Magnolia 294 and Kenansville 580. It is expected that the vote will be heaviest than the 1,485 cast in the district two years ago.

While the commissioner races are creating the most interest in these districts, there is interest countywide as three seek position on the Board of Education where only two vacancies exist. These are D. D. Blanchard of Wallace, James Albertson of Beulaville and Dr. Edward L. Boyette of Chinquapin. Bill Dail of Chinquapin, whose term expired this year on the board did not run to succeed himself, but Mr. Blanchard is seeking reelection.

Only one Republican filed in Duplin, Samuel E. Godwin of Warsaw filed as a candidate for the Legislature. Hugh S. Johnson, Jr., of Rose Hill, the incumbent, is opposed in the Democratic primary Saturday by Butler M. Cavenaugh of Route 2, Wallace.

Duplin has no candidate for the State Senate and will be without representation there for two years because we bargained our seat away in an agreement signed back in 1922, whereby the Senator from the 10th Senatorial District will be selected from New Hanover and Duplin for one session and Sampson and Pender for the next.

Mrs. Christine Whaley Williams, Route 2, Pink Hill, is unopposed in her bid for reelection as Register of Deeds as is William E. Craft of Kenansville for reelection as Solicitor of the General County Court.

Incumbent Russell J. Lanier, Judge of the County General Court is opposed by David N. Fountain of Route 2, Beulaville.

Each township is entitled to three Justices of the Peace. Six candidates have filed in Island Creek, one of whom is a Negro, and this is the only township in which a race has developed for this office, as three or fewer filed in the other 12 townships.

Justices offering in the May primary are:

JUSTICE OF PEACE:
Albertson, M. B. Holt.
Cypress Creek, Gib Batchelor and Gurman Norris.

Faison, C. D. McCullen, Paul Grice and James G. Dickson. Island Creek, R. F. (Bob) Powell, Gene Kelly, Garland Kennedy, Seba F. Dempsey, Coy Farris (Negro) and Lenon (Negro).

Kenansville, W. J. Patterson. Limestone, Gordon Muldrow and Silas Whaley. Magnolia, R. G. Tucker. Rose Hill, Hix Bradshaw, Ellis G. Baker and Robert (Bob) Fields. Warsaw, W. J. Middleton and Perry Smith.

Each of the 13 townships is allowed one constable. Eight of the townships have constable races. There are five candidates in Island Creek Township and five in Rose Hill Township, four in Cypress Creek, and three in Faison and Limestone Townships. Magnolia, Kenansville and Wolfscrape each have two candidates for constable. Constables offering in Saturday's primary are:

CONSTABLE:
Albertson, Bursell Holland, Cypress Creek, Bruce Mobley, Theodore Roosevelt Brown, Johnny Hatcher and James Doris Brinson.

Faison, George H. Davis, N. L. Tadlock and Jimmy Kelly. Glisson, E. E. Proctor. Island Creek, W. E. (Bill) Sholar, Robert Frank Maready, N. F. Dixon, Jerry B. Martin and Joe Blanton.

Kenansville, A. J. Summerlin and Stacey Ray Smith. Limestone, Herbert Penny, E. Hampton Kennedy and Tom Lanier. Magnolia, J. E. Chestnut and Ray Williams.

Rockfish, Luther B. Thomas, Jr.

Rose Hill, Lonnie E. Casteen, Bennie Rich, Edward Chestnut, Delaney Evans and Guy Maready.

Smith, Johnson Smith. Warsaw, Joshua Creech. Wolfscrape, Carol (Dump) Herring and Carl L. Hargrove.

Congressman David Henderson of Wallace is opposed by Morehead City businessman S. A. Chalk, Jr. Henderson is now serving his second term and has served the Third District in Congress since 1960. The district includes Harnett, Jones, Onslow, Pamlico, Wayne, Pender, Sampson, Carteret, Craven and Duplin Counties. Republican Sherman T. Rock, Morehead City attorney, has also filed for the seat in Congress.

Four of the six Democratic candidates for governor have campaigned in Duplin, but it is difficult to determine clearly which one leads at this time. Dr. I. Beverly Lake, L. Richardson Pryer and Dan K. Moore all have ardent boosters in Duplin. Raymond J. Stansbury drew a large crowd when he spoke in the county, but Bruce (Bozo) Burlerson and Kidd Brewer have done little in Duplin to garner votes. A second primary is practically assured in the race for governor.

This is the first year in modern times that more than one Republican is seeking the nomination for governor. The candidates are Robert L. Gavin, who ran in 1960, Charles W. S. and Du. W. Bagley.

State Democratic Convention Names Several From Duplin

State Democratic Convention Dr. John D. Robinson, Jr., of Wallace, was named a presidential elector from the Third Congressional District, at the State Democratic Convention meeting in Raleigh last Wednesday.

James M. Smith of Chinquapin was named by the convention as an alternate delegate at large to represent the party at the national convention in Atlantic City this fall.

The Third District Democrats met in a district convention an elected Mrs. Kathleen Barfield as a delegate to the national convention; Mrs. Winifred T. Wells of Wallace was elected secretary of the district group. Claude Hefler of Wallace and Mrs. R. D. Johnson, Sr. of Warsaw were elected to the State Executive Committee by the district group.

Dr. J. S. Blair of Wallace and Jim Smith of Chinquapin were elected by the district group on the District Executive Committee.

About thirty Democrats from Duplin attended the convention.

Editorial Correction

The 1963 General Assembly passed an Act authorizing adjustments in farm valuations for ad valorem tax purposes when changes are made in commodity acreage allotments. We regret that our editorial on May 14, was in error. The records in the Duplin County Tax Supervisor's office disclose that pursuant to the direction of the Board of County Commissioners, the value placed on tobacco allotments in 1962, has been reduced 10% for 1964 taxes in accordance with the law enacted by the 1963 General Assembly.

Man Held For Murder

K. C. Whitfield, 22-year-old Negro of Faison, was charged by Duplin officers Saturday with first degree murder in the death of Julius Roosevelt Faison.

According to Deputies Glenn Jernigan and Rodney Thigpen, who investigated, Whitfield and Faison had an argument at the home of Bob Kelly, one mile south of Faison on US 17. Whitfield went to his home, approximately 100 yards away, and returned with a 12 gauge shotgun.

Witnesses told Jernigan that Whitfield shot Faison in the chest as the dead man stood on Kelly's porch. He died instantly from the blast when the load of No. 4 shot struck him directly in the chest.

Whitfield, held without bond, will be tried in the August term of court. He is a native of Georgia, but has been working with a pulpwood crew and living near Faison for the past several months. He told officers that Faison, a 23-year-old Negro, had been picking on him and that he just could not put up with it longer. It seems the argument began some time ago and grew in intensity until Whitfield settled it with the gun.

Universalists To Hold "Fifth Sunday Service" At Woodington

The Universalist Church at Woodington will be host to the traditional Fifth Sunday Service of Universalist congregations in eastern North Carolina, May 31, at 11:00 A. M. The speaker will be Gustav M. Ulrich of Greensboro. Mr. Ulrich is the son of the Reverend Gustav Ulrich who served the Outlaw's Bridge Universalist Church with distinction for several years through the World War. Soon after the cessation of the conflict in Europe, Dr. Ulrich went to Germany to superintend a home for German orphans which was a project of the Universalist Church of America. Mr. Ulrich, speaker at the Sunday service, spent the part of his childhood at Outlaw's Bridge; so the coming of Mr. Ulrich to Woodington will be a renewal of old ties of affection with Universalists in this area.

The service of worship will be conducted by the Reverend Donald B. F. Hoyt, D. D., Minister of the Clinton-Red Hill circuit, Secretary of the Thomas Jefferson Unitarian Universalist District, and Horace Ward, member of the Fifth Sunday Committee.

Mental Program For Duplin Discussed

Many interested citizens of Duplin met on Tuesday evening to hear Dr. Charles Vernon from the State Department of Mental Health. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss with Dr. Vernon the possibility and plus ability of formulating plans to aid in the treatment of mental and emotional disorders in the county.

A previous meeting had been held at which time Garland P. King, secretary of Duplin Credit Association, was Duplin Project secretary of Duplin Project Credit Association, was named chairman. King presided at the Tuesday evening meeting which was held in the Agriculture Building. Also at the previous meeting a county-wide committee had been named which was made up of school principals, doctors, ministers and other civic work rs. This committee attended the meeting and discussed with Dr. Vernon methods of establishing a worthwhile organization.

Dr. Vernon gave the history of the Mental Health program North Carolina which began in the year 1925 at which time people became concerned about mental cases of the worst stages. In 1849 Dorothea Dix came to North Carolina and persuaded the General Assembly to establish Dorothea Dix Hospital. Since that time three other state hospitals have been established.

At about 1911-4 funds were established for Caswell Center and since then other centers. Along about 1908 when a mental patient recovered a new program of mental care was started. Since that time many Mental Health Clinics have been established, and about 34 counties in the state have some type of service for the persons with mental problems. The new program follows three fields, catch things before they happen, catch the problem quickly and promote rehabilitation.

Dr. Vernon pointed out that all mental problems did not have to be treated by psychiatrists. Duplin already has a working program for retarded children and another program for school drop outs.

Trial & Error

Fred Walston, State Income Tax man for Duplin, dropped in the office the other day and I asked him about politics. Of course no comment from Mr. Walston. But he did quote Hambones which is pretty good. He said "Hambones said: Political platforms are like the platforms of a railroad car. Something to get in on but not to ride on" -- do you agree?

My friend Elery Guthrie and her husband just love to go to Caswell County, especially if their children and grandchildren are going to be there. Charles and his family visited with their uncle and aunt Bennie and Geneva enroute from Silver Springs, Maryland to Decatur, Georgia to make their home. Geneva and Bennie being animal lovers had 8 new kittens. The children had never seen baby kittens, so a good time was had by all except the mama cats. During the night, one mama decided to move her baby, taking it under the cabin. The baby kitten went on exploring trip and got itself in a place, where even mama cat couldn't get him. Disappointment reigned on Sunday morning when the children had to leave without getting the kitten out.

Elery says she then went fishing and caught a big Chub played canasta, the dog got into a fight and she and Geneva had to bathe and dress the wounds.

IN FLANDERS' FIELDS

By Colonel John McCraw

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our places and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns' roar.

We are the dead,
Short days ago we lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch—be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.
