A green and white color scheme was used in the living room an den where covers were laid for 5 tables of bridge. White gladiolas, fever few, gypsophelia and shasta daisies were used in the flower arrangements. The brides table was centered with a bride doll and the other tables with centerpieces of white candles and tulle on a green base. The bride-to-be, her mother, Mrs. W. H. Fussell and the groom-to-be's mother, Mrs. Norman Whaley were presented corsages. Each guest received a miniature corsage of lillies of the Valley.

Upon arrival the guests were served lime sherbet and pound cake. Between progressions they were served punch, cheese straws, pecan fingers and toasted nuts.

Mrs. Robert B. Herring received high score for the evening and second high went to Mrs. W. H. Fussell.

The hostesses presented Miss Fussell a place setting in her dinnerware.

Miss Fussell was presented a gift of silver in her chosen pattern and a corsage of roses. The other guests were given miniature gardenias.

ATTEND WORLD'S FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ward and children, Susan and Alfred, spent several days in New York City last week, attending the World's Fair.

DINNER PARTY AT

Miss Marsha Fussell, August bride-elect was honored at a dinner party in "Ye Old Meade Hall" at the County Squire on Friday evening, May 29, at 6:30 O'clock. Hostess for the occasion were Mrs. James D. Fussell, Mrs. William R. Teachey, Miss Elizabeth Forlaw and Mrs. Herman B. Fussell.

The feast table was decorated with attractive rosettes, fashioned of sweetheart roses and greenery. Guests places were marked with lovely pink place cards, trimmed with miniature pearl wedding bands, love-knots, and lilies of the Valley.

The menu consisted of a frosted mint lime cocktail, congealed spring salad, roast almond chicken, stuffed potatoes, asparagus spears with dressing, party rolls, butter, coffee and tea.

Just before the dessert course the guests formed a fellowship circle around the dessert table. Mr. Joe West, host at the Country Squire, lighted the flaming melon jubilee and proposed a toast to the bride-to-be.

Miss Fussell received a miniature rosette of sweetheart roses and a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

The guests list included 20 friends and relatives of the bride.
