Teachers Attend Conference

Duplin County Vocational Home Economics Teachers attended the State Conference which was held August 3-7 on the Woman's College Campus. The Theme: Home Economics Education. A Dynamic Challenge was presented to the group in a wide and varied manner.

Conference Goals:
 To clarify the purposes of the Vocational Act of 1963 and their implications for the home economics program.

To explain values in family living and citizenship through the youth organizations.

To focus attention on creative teaching in the areas of foods and textiles and clothing.

To explore new approaches in home economics education.

Those attending from Duplin were: Mrs. Kathleen Synder, Carolyn Outlaw, Josephine Anderson, Emily Wells, Delia Mattocks, Nettie Herring, Marion Elkin and Miss Thelma Dilday.

Mrs. Elkins was listed on Thursday's program which was in the form of a Symposium: How We Teach Goods Creatively. She related facts of outstanding projects which have been developed by the Vocational Home Economics Teachers throughout Duplin County. She stated that the Duplin Teachers do not overlook the values of sharing failures as well as successes but that sometimes are of the best learning experiences can be a project that was a flop.

In closing she said, "Truly a creative young mind is one of the most rewarding experiences of teaching. Helping to develop such minds is a challenge. Creativity is a talent; yet like thinking and decision making, creativeness can be taught. Using intelligently the ideas of others is the first step in developing creativity in Foods."

The Penny Branch Home Demonstration Club will hold their annual family picnic Sunday, August 16th at 6:00 p. m. at White Lake. All members and their respective families are urged to come, bring a picnic basket, enjoy the fellowship and water, and to be present at 6:00 p. m. when the lunch is spread.
