

Miss Dorothy Dunn Becomes Mrs. Claudius Ray Mullins

The welding of Miss Dorothy Helen Dunn and Mr. Claudius Ray Mullins took place Sun-day afternoon in the Saracta Free Will Baptist Church near Renarsville, Vows were spoker before Rev. M. E. Godwin of Duon before an altar of paims, and white candelabra with burning white tapers. Baskets of white Gladiolus and pompoins were arranged at the altar, and a white leather kneeling bench was placed before the altar. Miss Dumn is the daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Dunn of Kenansville. Mr. Mullins par-ents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Henry Mullins of Ratliff City Oldanoma. The ceremony took place at three p. m. on August 23

Mrs. Hubert Summerlin, sister of the bride, as planist. Rev. Paul Frederick Hall, soloist, sang O Perfect Love, Whi ther Thou Goest, and the Wedding prayer. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was clad in a pure silk white satin floor length dress with circle neckline signed in lace and seed pearis. The long sleeves ended in points over her wrists. The full skirt ended in a chapel train. The vell was of sille illusion failing from a corole:

of seed pearls.

THE COST OF COLLEGE IS SMALL

She carried a cascade of white pompoms and carlationa. Mrs. Lynn Buzzard, sister of the bride, directed the weiding.

Her maid of honor was Miss Judy Morgan of Vinita, Okla-homa. Bridesmaids were Pairicia Holland of WARsaw, Sue Mullins of Ratliff City, Okla-homa, sister of the groom. Ju-nior bridesmaids were Rhonda Gail Duan and Susan Annette Dunn, nieces of the bride. Flower girl was Myra Lynn Summerlin, niece of the bride. They wore street length dresses of pink peau de sole, circle neckline, and bell skirts with bow attached to the waist in backs. Their hats were of pink silk organza roses with nose tip vell of silk illusion. They carried long stem green carnationa.

Best man was Robert Bryan of Hampton, Virginia. Ushers were Larry Inscore

Usher's were Larry inscor, Durham: Ricky Mullins, Ratliff City, Oldahoma, brother of the bridegroom: Ronald Gene Dunn and Jimmy Dunn, nephews of the bride, and the Ring Bearer was Donald Gary Dunn, nephew of the bride.

Mrs. Duna was clad in a dress of green brucade sheath, white accessories and a pink carnation coreage. The groom's mother wore a

Kenansville News

PERSONALS Miss Joyce Shochar of Day-ton, Tenn, is visiting Mrs. O. L. Redwime. Mrs. Redwine and children and Miss Sinclair spent several days at Nago Hend and othr points of inter-cet on the Outer Banks. Mrs. Edna Earl Brinson accompan-ied them to Raleigh shopping before Miss Sinclair flew back to Tennessee on August 20.

to Tennessee on August 20. Mesdames Hilda Booth. Na-dine and Esteene Quinn shop-ped in Wilmington last Wed-

Nelson Precythe of Faison spent several days here last week with Johnny Scott. Mrs. Hazel W. Scott and son, Johnny also Mrs. Lois W. Pre-cythe and sons of Faison join-ed their brother, D. C. William-son and family of Charlotte for a week end at Carolina Back

Mrs. Dixon Hall and two children went to Goldsboro on Thursday.

Ervin Brown of Clinton has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Alda N. Brown.

Lt. Col and Mrs. Robert Carroll Wells have recently retur-ned from Tokyo, Japan and are here visiting his father, R. V. Wells, and sister, Mrs. Louise W. Mtichell. They spent the past week end in Lillington with the Joel Baytons and other relatives. After a short fur-dress of blue lace over taffeta with white accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Immediately following the cer emony the brides' parsats en-tertained at a reception in their home. A color scheme of pink and white was emphasized with cladidate ginerae and deblice gladiolas, zinnias and dahlias.

Pink and white burning tapers Mrs. Robert Worthington, Mrs. Lynn Buzzard, sister of the bride, Mrs. Jimmy Sum-merlin, Mrs. Archie Benson, Mrs. Herbert Jones, Mrs. Hal McColl, Mrs. Ernest Dunn, Mrs. Ernest Grady and Mrs. Bobby Howard assisted the hosts. Lime sherber punch, wedding cake mints and nuts were served.

For her going-away dress the bride chose a pink smocked whip cream with matching pink accessories and white carnation corsage.

The bride attended Free Will The bruce attended Free will Baptist Bible College and is a senior majoring in music a: George Peabody College in Na-shville, Tennessee. The bride-groom is a senior at Free will Baptist Bible College in Nahsville, Tennessee.

After a wedding trip to the coast of North Carolina and the mountains the couple will be at home in Nashville, Tennessee.

lough they will go to S. C. where Lt. Col. Wells will be stationed at Shaw Field. Mrs. Alda K. Brown and daughter, Faye spent the day in Clinton on Sunday with the Robert Browns, and Miss Shir-

Mrs. Guy V. Gooding, Jr., and children of Raleigh spent the week end here with his parents, Dr. and M rs. G. V. Gooding.

Mrs. D. S. Williamson and Mrs. Ruby C. Kornegay accom-panied Mary Lee Sykes and neice of Goldsboro last Thurs-

Mrs. Martha P .Sitterson ac-companied her aunt, Mrs. Ger-trude Cooper of Wallace to Ta-bor City on Tuesday to visit rel-

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freder-ick Stroud and baby girl of New Bern spent the week end with the Willard Johnsons and with the Willard Johnsons and the Walter Strouds. The John Willards also the Ed. Sykes family of Charlotte spent the week end here with Miss Mary Lee Sykes and the Robert Sykes Family. They were joined here by the Bill Odens of Norfolk, Va. for a family reunion. Also the Bill family reunion. Also the Bill Eubanks family of Scotts Hill. Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Boney, Jr., and two children, Christo-pher Lea and Lesley. Louise spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. Louise Boney.

Mrs. Gertrude Cooper of Wallace spent the week end with her niece, Mrs. Martha P. Sitterson.

Mrs. Thelma D. Taylor accompanied by Mrs. Pattle Carter represented the Duplin County Welfare Department at a Workshop for "Home-mak-ers" in Raleigh last Wednes-

Mrs. Dorothea Tucker, Field Representative with the State Board of Public Welfare, was here on business at the Duplin County Office on Friday.

Mrs. Joyce Payne of Farmville, Va. spent the week end here with her family. Mrs. Frances Moore and son,

Jay of Dunn spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sitterson. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Vestal left Wednesday with their Trailer-house for Clemson, S. C. where they will attend Colleg this winter.

Mrs. Marion Griffin and daughter, Carol spent several days recently in Robersonville with her parents. Mrs. Glenn Rasmussen and taughter, Vicky spentra couple days scently in Atlanta,

Mrs. N. B. Boney and Mrs. Bill Spicer also Ralph Cottle at-tended a Disaster Preparedness Meeting in the Wilmington Red Cross Chapter House on Wednesday. August 19th. Mrs. L. Southerland accom panied Mrs. G. V. Gooding to Fayetteville on Thursday to spend the night with relatives. Mrs. Southerland was to visit her sister, Miss Ella C. Cogdell while Mrs. Gooding visited the Gilbert Honeycutts and other

MISS FLORENCE CURRIE

Miss Currie Attends Powers School

Miss Florence Currie of Ken-ansville, daughter of Mrs. Florthe director. "We are privileged to have enrolled with us from North Carolina Florence and Sue this ence S. Currie was enrolled in and has completed the Powers finishing, charm and mod-eling course at the John Robsummer as well as other young ladies from North Carolina las ert School in Fort Worth, Texsummer Jackle Marks (Miss Congeniality in your 1983 North Carolina Pageant) of Rockingas Florence was accompanied here in her classes by Miss Sue ham, N. C. Jayne Helms of Rockingham, North Carolina and Miss Cornelia Eisenhart of Eagles, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Archie Y. Eagles of Ahoskie, North Carolina. They are roommates at Atlantic Christ-Rockingham, North Carolina. They are all a credit and asset ian College in Wilson, North to your fine state of North Carolina. They are beautiful, Carolina. "Florence was an outstanding student and a credit to our school as well as to your city and state." stated poised and charming young ladies." offirmed Mrs. Bates,

C. Southerland who used for her remarks the familiar verse, "Seek Ye First the King-dom of God."

"Instead of the usual program a planning period was held in order to be more familiar with the new Manual of materials being instrduced for next year which begins in October. Sixteen ladies were present. The new officers will be installed at the September meeting at which time their names will be revealed.

OBSERVES FAMILY NIGHT Family night was observed by the members of the South Kenansville Home Demonstration Club on Friday night. They met at 6:30 at Roscoe Jones' Cafe for a Dutch Supper. Tur-key with all of its trimmings were served to the 21 present. This number included nine members and 12 others who were guests of the members. This being recreation month for all home Dem. Clubs. no

ce and Mary Bryan of

Wheaton, Maryland: Dr. a Mrs. Bob O'Conney of Cha Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Fred

Wher and son of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eubanks and Mr. Billy Eubanks of Wilming-

The family enjoyed a tu-logy dinner with all the trip mings at the home of the sister, Miss Sylces, on Sundy

Vocational

Teachers Plan

Program

The Vocational Home Econo-mics teachers in Duplin and Pender counties met in the home of Mrs. Della Mattocks home of Mrs. Della Mattocks on August 19 to plan a program of work for the year. Officers elected are: Presi-dent - Mrs. Josephine Ander-son, North Duplin; Co- vice chairmen - Mrs. Carolyn Out-law and Mrs. Kathlene Soyder, James Konan, Sacratary and law and Mrs. Kathlene Soyder, James Kenan, Secretary and Reporter- Miss Thelma Diday, East Duplin; Treasurer - Mrs. Nettle Herring, East Duplin; and F. H. A. advisor - Mrs.

gout the year are concept Tea-ching, Home Experiences Classroom Instruction, and Mrs. Mattocks, and Mrs. Em-

F or Year

The hostess served Blueberry Turnovers topped with ice cream for refreshments.

MRS. STOKES CLUB HOSTESS Mrs. J. O. Stokes was hos-

Mrs. J. O. Stokes was hos-tess to her bridge club on Tuesday evening with Miss Many Lee Sykes and Mrs. I. C. Burch playing with the fol-lowing members: Mrs. Mattle Sadler, Mrs. Rufus Elks, Mrs. Leo Jackson, Mrs. George Pen-ney, Mrs. J. B. Wallace and Mrs. C. B. Guthrie.

After two progressions, Mrs. Wallace assisted the hostess in serving strawberry short cake and coffee.

When scores were compiled, Mrs. Wallace was given cos-tume jewelery for club high and Miss Sykes a scarf for visitors gift.

FAMILY REUNION FAMILY REUNION The family of the late Anna Jernigan and Bob Sykes gath-ered for a week end at the home of their daughter, Miss Mary Lee Sykes, for a reunion, and to see their brother and family the Robert Sykes who recently returned from a tour of duty in Germany. of duty in Germany.

Yetive Davis, Burgaw. Mrs. Josephine Anderson, presented the program on Adult Education. Topics plan-ned for future meetings throuor duty in Germany. Those enjoying a dutch sup-per on Saturday evening at the Country Squire were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sykes and daugh-ters, Miss Mary Lee Sykes of Kenansville, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sykes and family of Charlotte also the John Willards of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oden and 1000

Feathers fly to new high fashion in thsi seafoam green roller by Jille

Anti Shires

$32.95

Autumn

Beauty

and Color

Resplendent

in our

1 9

34

14

1 2 2

200

Guida

Director of Powers School.

Town and Country Bridge Club on last Tuesday night at 8

Mr. John Classics Leather trimmed mohair fedora. Rend and olive combination ..

(when it's saved for in advance)

Regular saving far enough in advance can make the high cost of a college education seen much smaller. High earnings ne can meet a substantial part of the expense. Let us help you plan a program to meet your children's educaneeds. Start saving now . . . while the cost is

This chart shows how your College Fund Savings Account will grow.

HOW SAVINGS GROW	$10 Monthly	$15 Monthly	$20 Monthly	$25 Monthly
10 years	1676.37	2214.55	2988.74	2000.00
15 years	2466.62	3699.64	4832,85	6185.05
	3674.48	$$11.78	7348.58	9101.39

NO 12 MONTHS WAITING PERIOD TO EARN. . .

ASSETS OVER TWENTY TELES MILLION DOLLARS

Mrs. Ruby G. Newton spent several days last week in Kinston with her sister, Mrs. Nina G. Boone who was ill, but is better now and left the Hospital on Wednesday. Mrs. Voila Quinn spent sev-eral days recently in Mt. Olive, with the Thomas Quinn family. Her son, Thomas has re-cently returned from an assi-gnment overseas in Viet Nam but is being transferred to Langley Field in Virgina. Mrs. Josephine Krestch of Lenox Dale, Massechusetts is visiting her son, Phil and family

Mr. James Kennedy of Jack-sonville spent Sunday with Mr. McCoy Kennedy and Mrs. Eloise Ryder.

Miss Alice Brown returns home this week from Campbell College for several weeks be-fore registering for fall semes-

Mrs. Ruth Adams of Carolina Beach is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams.

MRS. VESTAL HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. Ellis Vestal was hostes to the Kenansville Kontract Klub on Thursday picht, Au-rust 20th. Additional guests were Mrs. Oliver Vestal, and Mrs. W. M. Ingram, Jr. of Raleigh. They were both rembered with gifts.

Miss Lottie Anne William Miss Lottle Anne Williams received a silver necklace for being the high scorer. Mrs. Marion Griffin won the Bingo prize. For refreshments the bostess served gineerale -ice-cream floats and assorted cookies also salted muts.

RESBYTERIAN WOMEN PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN The regular monthly General meeting of the Women of Grove Presbyterian Church was held on Monday night at 7:30 in the Adult Sunday School Class Room of the Church. The president. Mrs. Louise W. Mit-chell presided, assisted by her secretary. Mrs. Deris N. Sit-terson, The opening Devotional m. The opening Devotional conducted by Mrs. Mary

S Was d. After supper a goodly number of those participating went to the Court House to the graduation exercises of the Practical Nurses Class sponsored by The New James Sprunt Institute in cooperation with Duplin General Hospital.

BRIDE ELECT HONORED Miss Sylvia Chestnutt-bride of September 6th, was honored on Monday night at a miscel-laneous bridal shower. The lov-ely affair was hosted by the ely affair was hosted by the Women of Grove Presbyterian Church. The honoree is a teac-her in the Sunday School. Her class remembered her with a silver pitcher in addition to the many useful gifts that were placed on the gift table which was centered with an unique wedding bell arrangement.

wedding bell arrangement. Another arrangement of white lillies was placed on an auxiliary table, eiphasizing a color note of green and white. The honoree also her mother, Mrs. Thomas Chestnutt, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Geor-ge Powell of Wallace were all three pinned with lovely cor-sages upon their arrival. Gues-ts were registered in the bride's book by Mrs. N. B. Boney.

bride's book by Mrs. N. B. Boney. Several games and contests were enjoyed before the bride-elect opened her gifts. Mesda-mes Harry Wells Murphy and I. N. Bowden were winners of the contests, of which Mrs. Ralph Brown was chairman. For refresemments, Bridal cates were served at one end of the prettily decorated party table, by Mrs. J. J. Wells while Mrs. J. R. Grady served punch at the opposite end. Sal-ted nuts were also served, to the 30 present. Maedames J. B. Wallace and Billy Stephens also Miss Margaret Williams were hostesses at large. Good-byes were said to Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell and Mrs. Doris Sit-terson.

TOWN AND COUNTRY CLUB MET Mrs. Whey Booth was hos-tess to the members of the

Oleg Cassini's deep turban silky Italian Beaver. Spruce Green, Gypsy Rose, Dorable Blue, Rose, black . . $16.98

> Lilly Dache crea ted this Dachet tes of stitches vel vet in a bonnet siblack, coffee or beige . . $18.98

• Mr. John Jr. • Olez Cassini • Mr. Stanley • Emme Boutique • Winner

. Mr. Rickie

.Frieman .

Amy
Amy
Vivi
Ruby Ann
Mr. John Classics
Henry Margu
Herbert Bernard
Robby Ann
Skolnips
Concast

Skolnips
-Coronet
Dece'
Betmar
Linds
Adolpo Realities
·Chesterfield

Quaker Maid

Down

Lily Rache

, JHIe

We have collaborated with more than twenty-five of the country's leading designers of fashionable millinery to bring you one of our finer collections of fall hats and we cordially invite you to come in tomorrow for our first showing of the new season. Here you'll find millinery in many silhouettes . . . many moods. Lovely velvets, softest felts, newly important leathers and wispy feathers that are a recurrent fashion ... all in the season's best colors. . . . all headliners for fall, '64.

New Fall Millinery

And while you're there be sure to register for the beautiful Sterling Silver Dresser Set worth more than $65.00 that is going to be awarded to some lucky winner on Saturday, August 29th.

BELKS MILLINERY DEPARTMENT - SECOND FLOOR