

CEDAR FORK won a blue ribbon at the Duplin Fair for this display of minerals and samples of different articles and materials made from each mineral. The exhibit attracted much attention and, no doubt, represented years of rock collecting.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS fair exhibit won a blue ribbon for the exhibit picturing the ideal home life showing the family returning to the home after laboring and school for rest, love and renewal of spirits and leaving the home refreshed and strengethened.

uplin Fair Draws Large Crowds

On

FLABE!!

Tuesday night

committee working for the raising of funds in Ken-ansville Township for the new industry met in the Fire House in Kenansville.

It was reported that a mmittee of 16 have been industries, fite., Kenany-feels that all citizens of the county will beenfit by this to contribute. Entitiation and has rise so high that a cit-taen of Outlaw's Bridge Community came in and doinated to help Renans-ville, and affered to work in his community if seces-afficial reports from aw are that they are asfally reaching their try and will be happy miribute. Enthusiasm

the-

Trial

Dixon Hall, Direcorof James Sprunt Institute, handed methis cresting bit of information

"The James Sprunt Institute, Infaulty established in 1896 by Mr. Henry Farrier and Dr. James W. Bloum of Kenans-ville, had a tuition charge of 30 per quarter which is the cost of tuition for students attending the James Sprunt Institute today. However, a list-ing of expenses from a B06-1907 catalogue indicates that room and board was included in the expenses for the college year. In 1906, the necessary ises required of each student for the entire college session, except for books are as follows: Board, fuel, lights, laundry $72.--. Tuition in regular ourse, $36.00.

Moore And Scott Visit Duplin Democratic candidate for governor Dan Moore and his running mate, Bob Scot, ac-companied by Congressman David N, Henderson and other party leaders, visited Duplin'

The group made a stop in Kenansville on their campaign tour of Southeastern North Carolina calling upon local party leaders to beat the bushes for the united Democratic ticket in November.

Moore promised to work for an expanded Interstate highway system to reach into the eastern part of the state, a ports to Piedmont highway, a stepped-up industrial developent program and better educational facilities

Scott, who heads a national Farmers for Johnson movement, asked rural North Caroline to "move forward with a full Democratic slate of officers. eners that Goldswater has detend. clared that the only solution to our farm surplus problem is to eliminate all national farm programs That convinces me, "Scott said. "that Mr. Goldwater was right when he said recently that he was not a farmer and knows nothing about farming.

istrations over the years, and cautioned them to think twice before discarding this tried and true philosophy for one of criticism but no program, for a philosophy wanfing to tear down instead of building.

Tobacco Meeting

President Carl Powell of Kenansville announced today that the Duplin County Farm Bureau will sponsor a countywide tobacco meeting to be held Wednesday night. September 30, at 7:30 in the Duplin County Courthouse in Kenans-ville. Bill Little, Head of the Commodity Division of the N. Farm Bureau Federation C. will be in charge. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the current tobacco situation and to see what recommendations the farmers of Duplin sary, goal. County have to offer. Every Now is the time for Exhibits Show Excellence Of Duplin Products committee of 16 have been working fevelship both day and night and they had a good report to make. The committee may have missed seting you. Anyons wissing to entribute mits mail checks, to Ken raville.

The Third Annual Duplin County Agricultural Fair open-ed with a bang Monday and people from all over the country are converging on Beula-ville in record numbers.

The fair is larger and bet-'er organized than ever before and there are $1500 in premiums to be awarded to winners. Thousands of school children were expected Tuesday to use their free tickets and to draw for a free pony.

The main entrance leads into a large tent housing commercial booths and displays. An-other tent holds the exhibits rainging from the largest pumkin to the best packed canned fruits, fancy products of the farm, beautiful quilts, expertly made wearing apparel for the $1500 in premiums to prove the xecellence of the producers. Duplin did herself proud in this showing of her best.

height of about 90 feet. The acrobats perform intricate balancing stunts and postures. Performances will be given twice nightly at 7:00 and 9:30 o'clock. The fair is staged by the Beulaville Jaycees on the Lyman Road just out of Beulaville and will continue through out this week. Sidney Kennedy won abblue ribbon for his 100-pound pump-

A blue ribbon winner was the Negro community development booth urging students to stay in school. It had a series of foot steps around the booth labeled: "I am likely to be unemployed, receive low wages, last hired, first hired, have poor health, be poorly housed, own less and have limited objectives." It warned not to fol-

New Warsaw P.O. Dedication Oct. 4

Warsaw's new post office will be formally dedicated at 3:00 p. m. on Sunday, October 4, Postmaster Fred J. Baars has announced

The formal dedication of the spacious and modern building. which has been in use since June 27, is sponsored by the Warsaw Rotary Club. The public is invited to attend the dedication exercises and spend a few minutes with their postal employees and inspect this modern building with all new equipment.

The new office was constructed by Albert Jenkins of Warsaw for lease to the government and is located diagonally across the street from the old office, at the northeast corner of Hill Street and a public al-

The large building is constructed on a site containing 23,000 square feet. It has an interior space of 5,320 square feet, with an area of 13,466 square feet for patron parking and movement of postal vehicles.

The Post Office Department asked for bids for the new office two years ago, and con-tract for the building was awarded in October 1962.

The building is recessed from Hill Street with ample paved space in front for patron parking.

The public lobby extends across the entire front of the long building providing more

Contestants Are Registerng For Poultry Princess Pageant

Friday night, Oct. 23rd. promises to be a thrilling night in the lives of some of our beauties. The Rose Hill pageant, patterned after the Miss N. C. Pageant, will have the swim suit and street (casual) clothes competition. Five contestants from these competitions and a huge workroom. The building is modern in every respect with florescent lighting, air-conditioning and forced air heating, tile floors and the latest in equipment and furnishings.

The first post office in War-saw was established 125 years ago on January 14, 1839. The dedication committee is composed of E. C. Thompson boxes for the patrons. The east tern side of the lobby is enclosed as a service lobby and has a counter instead of the old wickets. There is an office

for Postmaster Fred J. Baars

chairman; Fred J. Baars, postmaster: J. E. Strickland Lee E. Brown, Robert L. West, Ed riel K. Ausley and Rachel F. Baars. To assist the committee will be Francis McColman, commander of the American Legion; Gerald Quinn, president of the Jaycees; Mrs. Earl Huie, president of the Home Gardeners; Mrs. Hugh We'ls, president of the B. & P. W : Mrs. J. W. Farrior, president of the Warsaw Garden Club; Forrest Martin, president of the Lions; Mrs. Bill Best, president of the Warsaw Gardenet tes and the Warsaw Police Department. Sponsored by the Warsaw Rotary Club and with Eugene C. Thompson as master of ceremonies, the program will begin at 3:00 p. m. at the post office with music furnished by a U. S. Army Band from Fort Bragg, In the event of incle-ment weath r the ceremonis will be held at the "starsaw Guard Armory.

Opening remarks will be extended by Postmaster Fred J. Baars and the invocation will be given by Rev. Delmar E. Parkerson, minister of the First Baptist Church, Major J. E. Strickland will make the address of welcome and Lee E. Brown will recognize the distinguished guests. Hon. David N. Henderson, member of Congress, Third N. C. District, will address the group, being introduced by Hon. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., Judge of the Superior Court. Congress-

Rent for rooms, furniture $8.00. Medical fee, $3.00.

Contingent fee, $1.00 Total for quarter $30.00; for year. $120.00. He also told me a little secret. He said that one of the county officials had told him, that he kissed the first girl he ever kissed on the porch of the old James Sprunt Institute in 1922. Wouldn't you like to

Ruth

Revival services at the Sarecta Methodist Church will begin Sunday night September 27th and continue through Fri-day October 2nd. Services will begin at 7:30 each night. Homecoming will be held on Sunday October 4th at 11 o'clock with the Rev. H. M.

McLamb conducting the ser-

Carey A. Williams.

Moore said that he still believes the new civil rights law is unconstitutional and should tested in the courts. He said that his only goal was to seek what is best for the people of North Carolina and to provide for it. "That is why we are going to the 100 counties of the state, to see what you want and what you need." Henderson reminded the audiences of the numerous ad-vantages the people had re-ceived from Democratic adminCommunity Development A-wards Day will be held Thurs-day, October 22, at 7:00 p. m. at the Kenan Auditorium. Judges will determine which of the organized communities has made the most progress during the year. The judges will visit each of the communities on October 19 and 20. The over-all long-time objectives of community develop-ment are increased income and improved living attained both through individual and organized group action, Financial sponsors promote the pro-gram and furnish the awards. Last year, the Smith's Community Club won the silver cup for the organized commun ity making the most progress With the award went $150 for representing the county in the SENCland Area Contest. Pleasant Grove won second place and Beautancus ranked third.

Community Development Awards Day Oct. 22

HALLSVILLE MOMECOMING

Homecoming will be held at Hallsville Presbyterian Chur-ch, Sunday October 4. The public is cordially invited to come and bring a picnic lunch. Rev. Syndor will deliver the oming message.

Then there is the midway. larger than ever, with fun and entertainment for young and old. There are ferris wheels, merry - go- rounds, dodgem, roundup, paratrooper and scrambler rides, thrilling all. Not just one, but three girlie shows with girls galore, all shapes and sizes. Of course, there are hot dogs, candied apples and cotton candy. Everything is there to draw the crowds and the crowds are there too. A highlight of this year's fair is the Aerial Winters. The act features a double swaying pole performance that rises to a low in his footsteps because "I was a school dropout."

A Cedar Fork booth showed different minerals and some of the uses these minerals can be put to, Another Cedar Fork blue ribbon winner had as its theme increasing income and improving homes.

Other blue ribbon booths were Magnolia's picture frame refinishing, entered by the Home Demonstration Club; the Wallace-Rose Hill Future Homemakers "Home as the Center of Life;" the Rose Hill Home Demonstration Club's food conservation booth; the Negro 4-H church and home scene; the Branch Home Demonstration Club's color in draperies and bedroom covers; and the Cedar Fork 4-H and the Warsaw 4-H club booths.

will be selected and will answer questions for final selection of the "Miss Poultry Princess", and 1st. and 2nd. runner-ups

Miss Poultry Princess will receive a $100 bond and a beautiful trophy and will reign for one year. The 1st. and 2nd runner-up selections will also receive cash awards and tro-

The Woody Hayes Band from Raleigh will provide accompaning music and will play at the dance given in honor of Miss Poultry Princess immediately after the pageant in the school gymnasium.

Interested parties are asked to contact Leo Jones, Bobby Lee Jones ,or any Jaycee in Rose Hill for details and applications blanks

POULTRY PRINCESS CAN-

DIDATE. — Pretty Miss Sue Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Andrews, will re-present Rose Hill Poultry Cor-poration at the first "Miss Poultry Princess' pageant in Rose Hill October 32.

man Henderson will present a flag to the postmaster will be raised by a Fort Bragg Honor Guard.

Hon. Robert L. West will present C. B. Gladden, Regional Director of the Post Office Department from Atlanta, who will address the crowd as the postal representative.

Service awards will be presented by the postmaster and the Warsaw Scout Troop No. 20 will lead the assembly in a Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. The Army Band will play the National Anthem anl Rev. Paul Mull, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church will prononunce the benediction.

ANNUAL HARVEST DAY

Annual Harvest Day will be held Sunday, September 27 at Dobson Chapel Baptist Church. All members are urged to attend and bring a picnic lunch. October 25 the church will have Homecoming and celebrate their 100th Anniversayr. Further announcements will be made.

AMOUNT OF DEBT BLAMED IN SHOOTING

It was first understood that the disagreement leading to the alleged shooting of Elarkin Perry, 26, by Will Carr Houston, 41, concerned straying hogs. Houston is held in jail without privilege of bond charged with murder Both are Rose Hill Negroes.

The Perry family. however, told Deputy Snyder Dempsey that Elarkin Perry's father, Elipah Perry owned Houston a liquor debt of $1.50 and that liquor debt of $1.50 and the ston tried to collect more uston claimed he sought the repayment of money "thor. nowed" by Perry, but admits shapping the elderly Perry. Young Perry came to his fath-er's aid and the argument grew in intensity, finaly resulting in the tatal shot. Houston claims he was using an axe to repair places his hogs were gotting out and as he picked up the axe young Perry jumped him. ng the elderly Perry

DEMOCRATS VISIT KENANEVILLE. - Proson Wells avtends his hand to Bob Scott as Mrs. Dan K. Moore shakes bands with Willard Hoffler. Cong. David N. Henderson is directly behind Mrs. Moore. On the right, Ralph Cottle extends his hand to J Moore as Falson Mollowen approves

Football Contest Winners Named Two Duplinites took the jack pot in the first week of the football contest sponsored by the Duplin Times-Progress Sentinel and merchants throughout the county, according to the final tally of entries in the first of 12 to appear in the weekly series appearing in this newspaper. Charles Pope of Warsaw took first prize of ten dollars with a eleven out of fourteen selec-tion of winners from the games played last weekend. First prize is a cash award of ten collars and a slot among the articipants for the grand prize of two tickets to the Orange Bowl Game, in Miami, and 5100 spending money. Pope-won with the nearest guess as to the highest number points cored by any-one team listed. One other entry select-ed all but two winners and this was a Beulaville resident who failed to mail his entry before the deadline Friday making him ineligible for the first week. Second prize of $5 went to Continued to Page 2

Godwin Awarded Sidewalk Contract

The Duplin County Board of Commissioners on Monday, September 21, 1964, awarded the contract for a curb, gutter and side walks project on County property adjacent to the County Courthouse to Godwin Building Company of Warsaw. Godwin was the low bidder in the sum of $5,500.00. Other bids received were from S. E. Cooper Company of Wilmington in the amount of $8,787.75 and Cumberland Paving Company of Fayetteville in the amount of $9,619.25. The project covers 1483 feet of 24 inch Battered Type Curb and Gutter, 816 feet of 4 t oot wide side walks and 460 foot of 5 foot side walks.