Sports Highlights

It took eight weeks of waiting in the No. 2 spot in the nation before the Crimson Tide finally ascended the throne. Alabama, holding a power quotient of 109.5, is now Number One. Notre Dame slipped back to a close second with a power reading of 108.8, while Michigan moved from 7th to the third position vacated by Ohio State.

Duke and Oregon were the only two teams to fall from the good graces of the top group, but there was much noisy scrambling for position after some of last week's upsets. The two newcomers to the Top 20 made no bones about moving in, and moving high! Three-time loser Michigan State, just outside the power group all fall, busied itself right up the ladder to seventh, while Penn State, with a 4-4 record, elbow-

MEETING NEXT WEEK

BEULAVILLE EAST DUPLIN HIGH SCHOOL ORGANIZES F.T.A.

Group of prospective teachers met on October 12, to form a Future Teachers of America Club at East Duplin. At this meeting a steering committee was appointed to nominate a slate of officers for the chapter.

Thomasine Sanderson, chairman of the Steering Committee, presided at the first regular business meeting held on Tuesday October 20, in the school cafeteria. The following officers were elected to guide the chapter for the 1964-65 school year:

President - Sheila Brown; Vice-President - Henry Clay Nobles; Secretary - Elizabeth Andrews; Treasurer - Sylvia Mercer; Historian - Jewel Dean Bostic; Parliamentarian - Thomasine Sanderson.

The group elected Miss Mary Anna Grady to serve as faculty adviser. The dues for the F.T.A. were set as $.75 per year for each member.

Miss Linda Cain Brinson was chosen Miss F.T.A. to represent the club at Homecoming as well as other events.

(Friday games)

forecast this fall, disregarding ties, 1,023 have been correct and 316 should have been picked the other way. This maintains our .764 average.

In fourth, the Razorbacks of Arkansas. They entertain S. M. U., and the table fare will be wild horse-meat! The Mustangs become victim No. 9, the Hogs winning by 21 points.

Sitting on national football chair No. 5, the Cornhusker Nebraskans from Lincoln will "whip" the Oklahoma State Cowboys by 17 points this Saturday.

8th-ranked Texas will hold onto their next to the top spot in the Southwest Conference with a two-touchdown win over T. C. U. Oregon State, No. 8, runs into a band of Stanford Indians, but should handle scalping duties by about six points.

Ohio State dropped down to 8th, but the Bucks are 15 points too strong for Northwest.
