Should Parents Choose Teenager's Friends?

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I am fourteen years old. I make excellent grades in school, people tell me that I am above-average in intelligence, talent and looks. But I wonder. The reason is that I just don't understand my parents. They object to some of my friends. They object to some of my friends: not all of them, just a few. I ask them to explain their objections, and I get no answer, but 'We just prefer that you be friends with Susan or Sally'—no explanation as to why they object to a girl—and in some cases, a boy, that I like very much. Don't you think, if they object to some of my friends, they owe me an explanation of some kind or another?"

OUR REPLY: Your parents owe you no explanation and, if you are as smart as your friends think you are, you will realize that your parents are simply living up to their responsibility when they exercise some opinion and control over your friendships.

You are, after all, only fourteen years of age. Your parents have lived a few years longer than that. And, if they are the kind of parents we assume them to be, and we have no doubt they are, they have very good reasons when they suggest that some boy or girl is not the one you should choose for a friend. And, you can bet that their objection is based on something much more than a personality conflict.

Your parents are interested in one thing—your future. Rather than expecting them to give you "explanations," you should be happy that they really care about you.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Let's look at the RECORDS

BY LINDA NORRIS

THE REGENTS were recorded live at Hollywood's newest Discotheque for a Capitol album of wild vocals and instrumentals designed for dancing anything—the Stomp, Hully Gully, Frug, Watutsi, Snake and Dog . . . included in the deluxe package (entitled The Regents Live at the A.M.P.M. Discotheque) are Hully Gully, Linda Lu, Comin' Home Baby, Mojo Workout, Gonzo, Blue Suede Shoes and Poison Ivy.

In The Sensational Johnny Rivers, on Capitol label, Rivers offers a collection of songs with dance beats ranging from the Watutsi and Hully Gully to the Snake and Frug . . . Among those in the album are Long Black Veil, Double C - Cinnamon Cider, Fallen Idol and Everybody But Me . . . Rivers, who recently had one of the biggest hit records in the country (Memphis) also sings his own composition, This Could Be the One, on the LP.

Maurice Chevalier hits big on Capitol of the World with an album called The Young Chevalier . . . This collection of performances by one of France's greatest entertainers was recorded during the peak of Chevalier's music-hall career . . . Among the 1930 pop tunes the celebrated Frenchman sings on Capitol for the first time are 'I Pleurait, You Are What You Are, Give Me Your Hand and Paulette.

The famous tenor Richard Tauber is heard singing 21 favorite German and Austrian folk songs never before available on LP except by special order from Germany in his Capitol of the World "Richard Tauber" album . . . Many of the tracks were recorded in the 30's (he died in 1948) and are songs he helped make famous in his native Austria.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES

The annual community Thanksgiving Services will be held at the Kenansville Baptist Church. Everyone is invited to attend the programs of worship and praise beginning Sunday continuing through Thursday.

IF YOU ARE SHORT AND SLENDER, wear a well tapered crown with a turned-up brim. If you like to snap the brim, it should be fairly flat set at front.

SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES - SENTINEL.

Distraction . . .

Fert, blonde, Jennifer Billingsley proved an obvious distraction from duty for Lt. Rice in "The Lieutenant" episode, "A Touch of Crimson." Who wouldn't prefer such a distraction!

VERSATILITY PLUS

Refrigerator/freezer shelves do everything but hand the food to you. They swing out and slide out. They're adjustable up and down and completely removable for storage of bulky items. Such versatility is made possible in many cases because the shelving is made of strong, slender steel.

TARIFF RATES RAISED ON POULTRY

Another "chicken war" started Friday when the European Common Market raised the tariff rates on poultry products by 10 per cent. The new rate raises the tariff on chicken up to 17 cents a pound.
