Trial & Error

VOL XXXIII NO. 3

An unusual thing happened this week. I was talking with a couple who had just celebrated their fiftieth wedding annifersary. They had entertained at their home and had really entertained at their home and had really entertained at their home. yed the event. In the converation, the lady told me that er only son and his wife had the same wedding anniversary as theirs. She said that her son d his wife were married eighteen years ago and at that time the four of them went on a two-weeks honeymoon together to Florida and the Florida Keys. A wonderful time was had by all ! I The young couple were 15 and 17 when they married.

Was talking to Mr. Seymore from Kinston this week. He reports court news for five coun-ties. He does not have a car and everymhere he goes he hit-ch-hikes. He says that he is idom late at any of the courts he attends.

It is a busy time in the old C. E. Quinn building where people are signing-up for the training program in the new Reeves Brothers, Inc. plant. One of the men who is taking applications said they had been "snowed" this week. Sounds good for Duplin.

WARSAW ABC STORE GOOD BUSINESS

Warsaw A B C store has been in operation since December 4. Kenansville, Warsaw and Faison all voted in favor of ABC stores in a November, special election.

Sam E. Godwin, chairman of the ABC Board in Warsaw, on being contacted this morning (Wednesday) said that to date they had been very pleased with the operation. December was a good month with a gross ome of $29,000, how month of January had dropped off considerably.

ral paved road 1500 near Scott's Store on Saturday at about 7:45 p.m. The wreck happened three miles East of Scott's Store.

All three men were taken to Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro by the Mount Olive Rescue Squad. Sullivan suffered a broken hip and a broken leg.

Rose Hill Fire Department was called to the home of Girt Newkirk, near Rose Hill at 5:15 p.m., Thursday, January

When firemen arrived the house was completely filled with smoke and one room was on fire. All outside doors were closed to retard the spread of flames, Firemen applied water fog to extinguish the flame, when the fire was under control, the building was ventilated so fire-men could completely extin-guish the flame.

The fire originated in a clo-thes closet near the floor and spread up the wall. Although the flame did not reach the other rooms, the heat was so intense that the paint pealed from the walls and broke the glasses from the windows.

Considerable damage was done to the house due to excessive heat and smoke. The contents of the room which burned were a total loss, and walls and ceilings were burned
