Peacock publishes the list.

HE DIED NOT IN VAIN

My Lord died not in vain
As we see that is true
He was buried and rose again
To save sinners like me and you.

Our Savior arose on the third day
As the Bible plainly tells.
He paid the ransom so they say,
That is why I am free from hell.

Oh how I wish that people could see,
How our blessed Lord loved them.
Then they would be saved to be,
With him in heaven there.

Although I am not an angel
Yet I know that over there
I will join the blessed chorus.
That the angels cannot share.

There I will sing about my Savior
Who died upon dark Calvary.
There my Lord died so freely
To set all sinners free.

Cut And Sew Center Has Fashion Show

The "Cut and Sew Center" of the Dobson's Chapel Community Development Club a special treat Monday night, at their regular monthly meeting. The "Cut and Sew Center" is a sewing class under the sponsorship of the James Sprunt Institute with Miss Florence Dobson as instructor.

The class presented the club with a fashion show of the garments constructed by the members of the class. The three-week old class had several garments rated as excellent. Class members modeling their exhibits were Mrs. Gertrude Stallings, Mrs. Edith M. Dobson, Mrs. Mary L. Moore, Mrs. Annie B. Johnson, Mrs.

Bernice Newkirk, Mrs. Margie Frederick, Mrs. Ruth Carr and Mrs. Lottie Farris. The fashion show was narrated by the instructor.

Earlier in the program the 4-H and adults entertained the group with committee reports and a brief educational program.

R. E. Wilkins, Extension Agent for Duplin County, discussed the efforts of agricultural leaders to ascertain through a survey the sentiments of Duplin County farmers to growing vegetables in order to induce a vegetable processing plant to locate in the area. Farmers will receive a notice of the meetings set up to explain the projects in detail and also to make a determination of the possible number of acres that will be grown by farmers of the county. The agent explained.

Wilkins also discussed in some detail the recent changes in the social security program and suggested that persons falling into the brackets of the amendments should get in contact with the social security office immediately as a deadline of March 31, has been set for enrollment in some of the voluntary phases of the program.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Elizabeth Dobson, Mrs. Mattie Dobson is secretary of the club.
