BENTON REUNION

The Annual Benton Reunion was held Sunday March 27, at the Wallace American Legion Building.

The building was very attractively decorated throughout with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and yellow snapdragons.

The tables were formed in the shape of a T and covered with white table cloths holding single burning tapers. In the center of the T was a cake in the form of an open Bible decorated in white pages with yellow trim. On the left side of the book was the year 1914, the date the reunion originated and the present year 1966. Underneath the date the words Benton Reunion were written. The right side of the book was in memory of the deceased and Hugh Ross Williams officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Zachary Teachey of Rose Hill. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wellington Hawkins of Union, S. C.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Doane Cottle, organist, and Mrs. Eugene Pierce, soloist, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer" for the Benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath gown of beau de sole featuring a round neck line, with long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. The fitted bodice and front skirt had lace appliques and seed pearls. The detachable chapel train was worn as an overskirt. The three tiered illusion veil was attached to a Queen's Crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white pom poms and lilies of the valley centered with an orchid.

Mrs. James Edward Rackley of Rockingham, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a carnation pink beau de sole floor length dress. The bodice had a bateau neckline and elbow length sleeves with an A line skirt. Her headpiece was a matching veil attached to a pill box hat. She carried a cascade of pink carnations interlaced with pink tiffany roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Teachey of Clinton, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Jane Hawkins of Union, S. C., sister of the groom. Their dresses and headpieces were identical to the matron of honor. Flower girl was Miss Jane Rackley and ring bearer was Master Jim Rackley, niece and nephew of the bride.

The groom's father was best man. Ushers were Jess A. Sullivan of Raleigh, James Edward Kelly of Rockingham, James Edward Rackley of Rockingham, brother-in-law of the bride, and Jerry C. Hawkins of Baltimore, Md., brother of the groom.

The mother of the bride was attired in a blue crepe sheath dress with matching accessories. She wore a white orchid with a yellow throat.

The groom's mother wore an aqua linen two piece dress with black accessories. She also wore a white orchid with a yellow throat.

Following the ceremony, the couple received in the vestibule of the church after which they left for a wedding trip to Southern points.

The bride attended Campbell College and prior to her marriage was employed by the General Service Administration in Raleigh.

The groom is a graduate of Clemson University and has completed requirements for a M.S. degree from N. C. State University. He is employed by the Harwood Beebe Company in Spartanburg, S. C. where the couple will reside.

Wedding Party

Proceeding the wedding on April 2, the parents of the bride entertained the wedding party, families and out-of-town guests with a luncheon at 1 o'clock at the Rose Hill Restaurant. The private dining room was attractively decorated with light pink carnellias entwined with ivy on the tables which were arranged in a U shape. In the center of the Bride and Groom's table was a 3 tiered wedding cake. After a three course luncheon consisting of tomato juice, pineapple salad, baked ham garnished with pickles, candied yams, green beans, hot rolls and butter, the bride and groom cut the first slice of cake. Then cake and ice cream was served as dessert to those present.

Lovely Tea

Miss Joyce Teachey, bride-elect of April 2 was honored at a tea Thursday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Felton Rackley.

For the occasion, the house was beautifully decorated with spring flowers throughout. An artistic arrangement of carnellias in a ceramic cupid compote was used on the table in the bay window of the living room. The dining table was overlaid with an imported cut-work cloth. The centerpiece was of yellow carnations, snapdragons and burning tapers arranged in crystal "Cambridge Arms" and accessory units.

The crystal punch bowl was placed at one end of the table and a large silver tray holding decorated bridal cakes at the other. Silver compotes of nuts completed the table appointments. In the family room, carnellias were used on the coffee table and by the bride's book on the desk.

Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Rackley and greeted in the living room by Miss Teachey, Mrs. N. Z. Teachey, mother of the bride-elect, and Miss Carolyn Teachey of Clinton.

Presiding alternately at the punch bowl were Mrs. W. S. Wells and Mrs. W. T. Blanchard. Cake was served by Mrs. Herbert Cottle and Mrs. Doane Cottle. Mrs. Percy Blanton and Mrs. Eugene Pierce received in the family room and Mrs. E. G. Murray presided at the register.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a corsage of carnellias and gifts. Other honor guests also received corsages.

Bridal Shower

On March 3 the bride-elect was honored with a miscellaneous shower given by Misses Josie Shearin and Gwen Patterson in Raleigh. The bride was presented a white mum corsage and an electric fry pan by the hostesses. Refreshments consisted of lime punch, bridal cakes, pimento open faced sandwiches and nuts. Bridal games were enjoyed by those present, after which the honoree opened many lovely and useful gifts.

Lingerie Shower

On February 9, Mrs. Jimmy Senter of Fuquay honored the bride-elect with a lingerie shower. Refreshments were served and lovely gifts of lingerie were presented to the honoree. Approximately 15 young ladies attended this party.

Merely Pity

I stood and stared at such an object human being, Pity stung my heart, but soon the stinging eased and I moved on.

Then on my knees in prayer I learned the lesson of compassion - That when I see someone in need, I should stop to help, to pray, or seek for aid. Pity is not enough For pity stands and stares, Compassion sees and serves.

Selected,

If you're growing soybeans in light soil, and you're not using new Dyanap, you may be growing more weeds than soybeans.

In light soils, most weed killers soak too far down. But new Dyanap liquid weed killer stays in that top layer of light soil where weed and grass seeds germinate! New Dyanap stops more kinds of weeds because you can apply it. (1) At planting, to knock out germinating weed seeds or (2) Just before soybeans sprout to get weeds and grasses on contact. New Dyanap stops the worst of your weeds. Cocklebur, pigweed, Johnson grass (from seed), crabgrass, barnyard grass, foxtail, lambsquarter, ragweed, velvetleaf and other hard-to-kill annual grasses and broadleaf weeds.

Easy to use. New Dyanap mixes easily in water. Sprays on, does its work and disappears, leaving no harmful residue.

For best results and maximum safety, follow label instructions and warnings on all chemicals. ©Dyanap is the U.S. Rubber Company registered trademark for its pre-emergence herbicide.
