

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN ONE BEFORE - a check for $50,000. This is 1/2 of the gift of $100,000 given to Duplin

Kenans

Continued From Page 1 for sports and also for stage shows as the lighting equip-ment will be fixed so as to give proper stage lighting. Many activities which have had to pass Duplin by because of lack of space and proper faci-lities will be able to be held in the auditorium.

Mr. Tom Kenan III expressed his pleasure at being with the James Kenan graduating class at their commencement pro-gram. He further stated that he and the late William Rand Kenan, Jr. and other members of the Kenan family had a great interest and love for Duplin County and their original home

Built like the big ones!

...for keeps!

See it now

briefs

Continued From Page 1 I'ne school will be directed by Mrs. W. E. Craft, and all chill dren and youth of the area are urged to attend.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL

Plans are now complete for the Vacation Church School to be held in the Warsaw Methodist Church.

The school will open Friday, June 3 with registration from 2:00 until 3:00 o'clock, Regular classes will begin Monday, June 6 and will continue throuh Fri-day, June 10. The hours are from 2:00 until 5:00 o'clock.

Children in Kindergarten, Ele mentary I & II, Elementary II & IV, and Elementary V & VI or children from four years of age through the seventh grade in school are invited and urged to come. A good program has been planned and all children will be the commencement spea

tions for Duke Power Company

F'town

gram, the Farmers Home Ad-ministration makes and ser-vices the loan and guarantees repayment of the money bor-rowed along with interest. "Recreation projects of this type boost rural areas develop ment," Director Hearn pointed out, "Such endeavors bring new jobs to rural communities and provide much needed recreajobs to rural communities and provide much needed recrea-tional facilities for urban and rural families. These facili-ties also help develop the type of rural community that en-his choice,

Pope Continued From Page 1

amount of $1,000 per year and is for four years or a total of $4,000 if the student does superior work in the college of or rural community that en-courages young people to re-main in their hometown, at-tracts industry, and promotes tourism. These projects gene-rally utilize land not needec for crop production." The Farmers Home Admi-nistration will be repaid over a 40-year period.

a 40-year period. Association officers are E.

L. Fountain, President, Route 1 Chinquapin; Hershall Brown, Vice-President, Route 1, Chin-quapin; and Mrs. Laura R. Foun tain. Secretary-Treasurer , Route I, Chinquapin, This is the third loan to be made to a rural goup in Dup-lin County, North Carolina, for development of a recreational area. Loans of this type were authorized by the 1962Food and Agricultural Act.

The James Kenan Scholarship Duplin Native Heads , an High School Sentor each N. C. Dairy Industry

A Duplin County native is play ing a vital role in promoting the State's growing dairy industry. He is John E. Johnson, chair man of the N. C. Dairy Indus-try Committee and executive vice president of the N. C. Dairy Products Association. As vice president of the dairy products association, Johnson coordinates a state-wide pro-gram for his members - 44 manufacturers and processing try.

Kenan High School Senior each year. Sandra Pope has been an out-standing senior both scholasti-cally and in extra curricular. She is president of the Future Bustness Leaders of America. She was awarded a trophy by the Warsaw Jaycees for being an outstanding senior. She has received other honors during her four years in High School. In awarding the scholarship, Mr. Kenan III, stated that the decision had been a hard one to make as this class of 1966 was a most outstanding class. The Valedictorian, Linda Grice, and the Salutatorian, El-aine Scott were presented a-wards by J. F. Strickland, The valedictorians average was 97.7 and the salutatorians was 97.2. Charles Ingram was class speaker and Carol Ann Tucker was selected for the Bible read-ing. manufacturers and processing plants across the State, He works closely with the associa tion's 15 active committees, ranging from safety to insur-ance. Since 1958 the association has awarded 56 scholarships in food science at UNC-Raleigh. These scholarships are valued at more than $21,000. ing. The speaker Mr. J. W. New-kirk, Math Teacher at James Kenan High, was introduced by Class President, Thomas Cos-tin. Many of the seniors were

The State Milk Commission checks the records of the dairy processing plants. Mr. Johnson believes more people should know about this vital industry and he spends a great deal of time doing just this. He is active in a number of He is active in a number of civic groups, including the N. C. Travel Council and the N. C. Press Association, He was a director of the Traffic Safety Council from 1961 to 1963, He is a member of Masonic Lodge 304 and a past commander of Veteran of Foreign Wars post 9514 at Pink Hill in Lenoir County where he taught agri-culture for several years.

recognized as Honor graduates and several members of the class were recognized for hav-ing won other scholarships. The Senior Class presented a portrait of Mrs. Gertrude Pope to James Kenan High School with the inscription "A Great Tea-cher. A Great Mother. A Great Christian."

TWINE

He was married in 1947 to the former Lois McLamb and they have two daughters, Bar-bara Jane, and Susan Lynette. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Perry Johnson who reside in Rocidish Township.

Travel Business Boom

MIAMI, Fia. — Sparked by the $30 billion spent annually by Americans in traveling, the travel agency business is booming, according to Robert W. Grant, Vice President of agencies. Grant disclosed that with only 5,700 professional travel agencies trying to ser-vice the American traveler, business reform and the services to in Latin America and ex-pects by the end of the year to have an additional 50 in the States and a Monsieur travior group in Europe, all under the Mister Travior business reform sells a pack-banner. Mister Travlor sells a pack-age of know-how, training and equipment, a national image, a national promotion back-up and an international network of agencies that can meet all the ticket licensing requirements of the various airline, railway, steamship and passenger conferences. The Mister Travlor execu-tive said a well run local.

The Mister Travior execu-tive said a well run local, travel agency can make an comfortable living for its owner in a small town if he develops the professional skills necessary to give cus-tomers first class service. The canital required runs The capital required runs from $10,000 to $22,000. Mister Travlor gets its income from the sale of the original package plus a consultant fee of $45 a week from each agency.

511.00

3 Phy

Da tilalis

COTTON TWINE

N. B. Boney, Chairman of Library Board, F. W. McGowan, county auditor and the Duplin County Board of Commis-knows his land.

Many mothers of the county are deeply indebted to Miss wightman for having inspired a love for reading in their children. She seemed to analy

Miss Wightman Trial & Error Continued From Page 1

"just and honest debts are paid

Waccamaw

of everyone of us - asking no-thing, giving her all!

Miss Wightman, we salute your memory. You will live in our hearts forever as a lovely. generous, friendly person.

Ruth

Miss Dorothy Wightman, late, librarian of Duplin County, beside her beloved bookmobile, shown with her are Mrs.

Continued From Page 1

everything she owned is to be converted into cash and given to the Duplin County Library.

ker at wilmington College. Wilmington College will gra-duate its second senior class on Sunday, June 12 at 4 p.m. in Hanover Hall. will enjoy and benefit from it. COMMENCEMENT Mr. John Paul Lucas, Jr., Vice President of Public Rela-

Continued From Page 1

Under the insured loan pro-

