Houston-Quinn Vows Exchanged

In a lovely ceremony on Sunday July 3, at 4:30 p.m. in the Potters Hill Advent Christian Church, Miss Susan Wray Quinn became the bride of Roland Leroy Houston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Quinn of Potters Hill. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Houston of Potters Hill.

The Reverend Donald Lawson officiated at the double ring ceremony. The program of wedding music was presented by Mr. Joseph Q. Thigpen, organist, of Broadway and Mr. Clessy Worley, soloist, of Potters Hill.

The church was beautifully decorated with a lace cloth covered altar on which an open Bible lay with a single carnation - showered with bridal ribbon. A spiral arch candelabra was placed in the background with a tree candelabra on each side. Baskets of white gladiolus, mums, carnations, and white daisies accented by palms were also used.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore an empire waistline gown of crepe featuring and aleon lace bodice with a scalloped neckline. The lace sleeves were tapered to calla points and her carriage train was of crepe with a panel of aleon lace. Her veil of French illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and organza. She carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies and white roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Kay Quinn Walker, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her floor length gown was of mint green bonded crepe. Her matching headpiece was a circular crown with a veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow daisies with a yellow bow.

Misses Hilda Houston and Sue Houston, sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns and headpieces identical to the matron of honor and carried cascade bouquets of white daisies with yellow bows.

The groom had as his best man, Kenneth Ball of Potters Hill, Ronald Quinn, brother of the bride, and Rayburn Houston, brother of the groom, served as ushers.

For traveling the bride chose a two-piece blue linen suit on which she wore the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

After a trip to the western part of North Carolina, the couple will reside at Potters Hill.

MRS. LEONA H. BROWN

Mrs. Leona H. Brown, 68, died at her home at Grantsboro Wednesday afternoon. Funeral services were held Friday at 3 p.m. at New Bethlehem Free Will Baptist Church at Grantsboro by the Rev. Graham Lane. Burial was in the church cemetery.

She lived in the Ayden and Grifton community for thirty years prior to moving to Grantsboro. Surviving are her husband, H. Jeff Brown; two sons Willie Ray of Rocky Mount, H. J. Brown of Beulaville; one daughter, Mrs. Walter D. Pittman of Grifton, one brother, Joe Hardison of Salem, Virginia; and one sister, Mrs. Earl Skidner of Maury; and several grandchildren.

ATTENDS SUMMER INSTITUTE

Virginia P. Quinn of Beulaville is one for the NDEA Summer Institute in School Librarianship sponsored by East Carolina College from July 11-August 19.

Rose Hill Engagement Announced

CAKE CUTTING

Following the Houston-Quinn rehearsal Saturday night, July 2, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Quinn entertained the wedding party and other guests at a cake cutting at their home.

The dining table was draped with an ecru lace cloth over green. The centerpiece featured a floral arrangement of carnations, glads and mums with burning candles on each side. The three-tiered wedding cake and punch service graced the ends of the table.

After the bridal couple cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. Quinn, mother of the bride, served cake to the guests. Mrs. Houston, mother of the groom served punch. Mints and nuts were also served.

Approximately party guests enjoyed this lovely occasion.
