Death

EDWIN E. TEACHEY

ROSE HILL - Funeral services for Edwin E. Teachey, 59, who died Thursday, were conducted at Rose Hill Baptist Church Saturday at 4 p.m. by the Rev. Hugh Ross Williams, assisted by the Rev. Al Morris. Burial was in the family cemetery in the Charity community.

He had been a merchant in the Charity community 37 years. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Selma Raynor Teachey; two sons, Edwin Earl Teachey, Jr. and Roger Allen Teachey of the home; one sister, Miss Mary Ann Teachey, and two brothers Leland G. and Bryon Teachey, all of Rose Hill.

Resolutions To Mr. Teachey

The colored citizens of the Charity section express grief at the loss of a loyal merchant, Mr. Edwin E. Teachey.

Mr. Teachey has served this area for more than 37 years, and we feel that he was a citizen note-worthy of evaluating for his honesty, industry and christian living.

We feel that God's gain has been our loss.

Miss Hanchey Weds Mr. Whaley

Miss Ann Gardna Hanchey became the bride of David Glenn Whaley on Sunday, July 3, at four o'clock, in the Island Creek Baptist Church. The Reverend R. D. Riggins officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Hanchey of Rose Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whaley of Teachey, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza with bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The sabrina neckline featured a seed pearl trim and the control skirt attached chapel train was fashioned with appliques of lace. The bride's veil of bridal illusion was attached to a headpiece of tiny seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on top of a lace covered prayer book adorned by lily of the valley and white rosebuds. Her only jewelry was a string of tiny seed pearls, gift from an aunt to the bride.

Miss Angela Hanchey was her sisters maid of honor. She wore a floor-length dress of maize crepe and carried a cascade of yellow shasta daisies. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gordon Sholar of Charlotte, sister of the groom; Miss Rachel Owens of Clarksville, Virginia, college classmate of the bride and Miss Brenda MacMillan of Teachey. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor. They also carried a cascade of yellow shasta daisies.

Mr. Whaley was his son's best man. Ushers were Richard Whaley of Wallace, brother of the groom; Dean Whaley of Asheboro, also brother of the groom; Craig King of Rose Hill, and George Daily of Murfreesboro.

Aubine English, soloist, sang "Oh Perfect Love" by Barney and "The Wedding Prayer" by Malotte.

Miss Betsy Shanor of Morehead City, suitemate of the bride was pianist.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Hanchey chose a dress of mint green crepe with matching accessories and wore a white orchid. Mrs. Whaley, mother of the groom, chose a rose colored dress fashioned with matching accessories and also wore a white orchid.

The newly wed couple received directly outside of the church following the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Whaley is a graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School and Meredith College in Raleigh. She has accepted a teaching position with the Raleigh city schools for this fall.

Mr. Whaley is a graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School and East Carolina College in Greenville. He is presently employed with Peat Marwick Mitchell and Company, accounting firm in Raleigh.

After a wedding trip to the Western part of North Carolina, the couple will make their home at 3424 Bellevue Road, Raleigh.

cake to the guests. Also nuts, mints, lady fingers, cheese straws, ham biscuits and open-faced sandwiches were served from silver trays on the table. Mrs. Gene Wells poured punch.

Mrs. Ben Rivenbark, aunt of the bride, presided at the registry which held the bridesbook and an arrangement of miniature white and yellow daisies.

FLOATING SHOWER

A Miscellaneous Floating Shower honoring Miss Ann Hanchey was given at the home of Mrs. Garland Carr on Saturday night, June 4, from 8 to 10.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Glenn Bradshaw, Mrs. Ben Rivenbark, Mrs. Waltus Harrell, Mrs. Allen Teachey, Mrs. V. H. Rouse, Mrs. Clyde Rivenbark and Mrs. Carr.

Upon arrival the guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Carr and introduced to the receiving line composed of Miss Hanchey, bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Linwood Hanchey, the groom's mother, Mrs. Norman Whaley. They were all presented corsages of white carnations.

After leaving the receiving line Mrs. Bradshaw directed the guests to the dining room where the brides table was covered in white organza and overlaid with lace. On the table was a lovely arrangement of pink roses and larkspur and also crystal candelabras holding white burning tapers surrounded with lace fern.

From one end Mrs. Allen Teachey and Mrs. Harrell took turns in serving lime punch from the crystal punch bowl. On the other end bridal cake squares, nuts and mints were served.

After enjoying the delicious refreshments, Mrs. R. D. Riggins directed the guests to the registry where Mrs. Ben Rivenbark presided.

After registering they were shown to the gift room where Mrs. Clyde Rivenbark was in charge.

Mrs. V. H. Rouse said the goodbyes to the sixty friends calling during the evening.

The Carr home was decorated throughout with beautiful arrangements of summer flowers. Miss Hanchey received many nice and useful gifts.
