ail Storms Leave Destruction

Duplin County received wide-spread damage in two separate hail storms last week. Each storm covered an area one miles in length.

The first storm hit in the Scott's Store area of the northern part of Duplin County on Wednesday afternoon about thr-ee o'clock, Heavy rains and winds contributed to the des-were believed to be a total loss. Most farmers were later with harvesting this year than usual, and in many fields more than three fourths of the crops remained in the fields. Many fields had only been lugged. Destruction appeared total on the tobacco farm of Mrs. Cyrus Rhodes, Rt. 2, Mt. Olive.

The crop had been leased to Mrs. (Pop Eye) Norris, Smith Douglas Fertilizer dealer of the area. The tobacco had been barned only once. The ground was literally covered with broken leaves snapped by the hall.

Damage was also heavy on the farms of Lawrence Kelly, Calvin Rouse, Ralph Jones,

Mrs. Nora Jackson, William Waller, and Mrs. Ruth Herring. Many of these losses were at least partially covered by insurance. Thursday afternoon between 12:30 and one o'clock the Beulaville area received heavy losses by hall, wind and rain. The results of the hall are evident on highway 24 about Continued to page 7
