

MRS. BUDDY ALBERT POPE

English-Pope Vows Exchanged In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Alinda Lee English, daughter of Mrs. Steve E. English of near Warsaw and the late Mr. English, became the bride of Buddy Albert Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Pope of Magnolia, on Sunday, August 21, at three o'clock in New Hope Baptist Church, Turkey, North Carolina. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Waldo Early.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Larry Jones of Calypso, pianist, and the Rev. David Hansley of Beulaville, soloist. Rev. Hansley sang "Because," "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The vows were said and the couple knelt for a prayer before a background of burning cathedral candles in candelabra entwined with ivy and a single basket of gladiolus, mums, and pom poms. Standards of fern and palms were used in the church.

Given in marriage by her brother, Jimmy English of Warsaw, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de soie and imported Chantilly lace. The gown was designed with a florentine neckline and sleeves that tapered to points. The sheath skirt featured an overlay of Chantilly lace styled with self fabric bows. A flowing chapel train draped from a self fabric bow at the waist. Her chapel-length veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a crown of Bridal Braid trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. The bride carried a white orchid clustered with lillies of the valley and streamers resting on a white Bible.

Miss Betty Lou English, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her full-length gown of mint green brocade and crepe was fashioned with an empire bodice, styled with a scooped neckline and elbow sleeves. The sheath skirt of crepe was designed with a cathedral train of brocade. Her headpiece of a matching brocade bow was accented with mint green illusion. She carried a nosegay of mums, carnations, and pom poms with matching ribbons.

Two-piece ensemble and an orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Cleveland Thompson of Kinston presided at the register. Mrs. Nelson Carlton of Warsaw served as director.

The bride is a graduate of East Carolina College in Greenville. She will be employed by the Duplin County School System this fall.

The bridegroom attended East Carolina College and Wilmington College. He is now employed by Ramsey Feed Company in Rose Hill.

After a wedding trip to the western part of North Carolina, the couple will make their home in Rose Hill.

AFTER-REHEARSAL PARTY

Following the English-Pope wedding rehearsal, the bride couple was honored with a cake cutting at the home of Mrs. Steve English near Warsaw. Mrs. Jimmy English, Mrs. E. L. Blanchard, and Mrs. Ernest Frederick served as hostesses. Upon arrival the guests were greeted by Mrs. Jimmy English, Mrs. Cleveland Thompson directed the guests to the refreshment table, which was covered with a white lace cloth with a green underlay. Centering the table was an arrangement of glads, snap dragons, and pom poms flanked with white candles. An all-white three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom was served from one end of the table and fruit punch was served at the other end. Mints and cheese stars were served buffet.

Mrs. Pope, mother of the groom, served the cake after which the bride couple cut the first traditional slice, and Mrs. English, mother of the bride, poured punch.

The bride's book was placed on a table decorated with white candelabra draped with ivy. BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Miss Linda English was honored with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Steve English. Hostesses were Mrs. Duncan Cavanaugh, Mrs. Richard Cavanaugh, and Mrs. C. D. Frederick, Jr. Mrs. Elwood Coombs led the guests with wedding games which were enjoyed by all.

Upon arrival, Miss English was presented with a yellow mum corsage. The bride's mother and the groom's mother were given white carnation corsages.

The refreshment table was covered with a mint green table cloth overlaid with white lace.

Miss Holmes, Mr. Cox Wed In Bowden

Miss Annette Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Holmes of Bowden, and Mr. James Foster Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmi F. Cox of Goldsboro were united in marriage in the Bowden Presbyterian Church.

An arrangement of summer flowers centered the burning tapers at each end. Mrs. English, mother of the bride, poured punch while Mrs. Pope, mother of the groom, served bridal cakes. Nuts and butter mints were also served to about sixty guests.

in the Bowden Presbyterian Church, August 20, 1968 at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Norman H. Flowers. Vows were spoken before a setting of green palms centered with an arrangement of white glads, mums and pompons flanked by two seven branch candelabra holding tall white lighted tapers.

Traditional nuptial music was presented by Mrs. R. A. Williams of Warsaw, and Miss Joyce Potter of Warsaw. Mr. Tommy Surles sang Because and I Love You Truly preceding the ceremony and The Lord's Prayer as the benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de soie and alencon lace. The bodice was styled with sabrina neckline trimmed with reembrodered alencon lace and elbow length sleeves. Full skirt featured front panel designed with lace appliques. Attached Chapel train.

She wore a Mantilla of imported silk illusion edged with reembrodered alencon lace draped over a headpiece of peau de soie and pearls. She carried a white orchid resting in a field of greenery atop her white prayer book.

Mrs. William Reed Cooper, Jr., cousin of the bride and Matron of Honor, was attired in a canary yellow embroidered dress of organdy. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of rosettes, trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a single yellow mum with yellow satin streamers.

Miss Kallen Holmes and Miss Susan Holmes, nieces of the bride were child attendants wearing canary yellow dresses with matching peau de sole cum berbunds. The veils of yellow silk illusion attached to headpieces of yellow rosettes. They also carried a single yellow mum.

Mrs. Holmes chose for her daughter's wedding a blue sheath dress of silk crepe, with matching accessories. She wore a lavender orchid corsage. The groom's mother selected an emerald green sheath dress with matching accessories. She wore a lavender orchid corsage.

Mr. Emmi F. Cox served as his son's best man. Ushers were Allen McRae Holmes brother of the bride, and Donald R. Hison of Anderson, S. C.

The bride is a graduate of East Carolina College and her husband is a graduate of N. C. State University.

For traveling the bride chose an aqua blue silk chateau ensemble with the white orchid lifted from the bridal bouquet.

After a trip to Williamsburg, Virginia the couple will make their home in Goldsboro.

CAKE CUTTING.

After rehearsal Friday night, a cake cutting was held in the home of the bride's brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McRae Holmes.

The table was thrown with an imported lace table cloth over yellow. An arrangement of white carnations and greenery graced the table with white burning tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grady uncle and aunt of the bride greeted guests at the entrance.

After the bride couple cut the first slice, the tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom with wedding bells was served by the bridegroom's mother. The bride's mother poured punch at the opposite end of the table, nuts and decorated wedding bell mints were also served.

The home was decorated throughout with yellow and white mixed summer flowers.
